LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

At the time the Reporter went to press Harry C. Shirk was quite ill at his home in Centre Hall.

Rev. L. I. Park, of Port Matilda, will preach in the Holiness church at Colyer, Sunday evening, May 23.

Glenn S. Musser, having finished teaching a term of school at Maitland, Milfin county has returned to his home at Millheim.

Mr. and Mrs. Stover Hess and children, accompanied by Mr. Hess' brother, Lowell, of Scotland, S. D., are visiting relatives and friends about Millheim.

Wasontown high school graduated a young lady by the name of Grace Klapp with an average of 99.7 for the school year. She carried the honors of her class during her entire school life.

Before you buy arsenate of lead, make a bit of inquiry as to its price. Last week a quantity of this poison was sought and the customer was asked anywhere from 25 cents to 75 cents for the identical article. The purchaser today must be watchful if he does not want to continue paying the war prices some merchants and dealers wish to hold to.

A few days ago, J. C. Brooks, farmer west of Centre Hall, made a trip to Williamsport to have an x-ray picture made of himself with the view of discovering, if possible, the cause of an affliction from which he has suffered for a period of years. The picture disclosed a disarrangement of the intestines and Mr. Brooks will later undergo an operation to correct it. He had the unusual experience of himself seeing, in a reflecting mirror, the vital organs of his body and the particular portion of the intestines where his trouble lay.

THE DEATH RECORD.

WALKER.—Lewis Ammon Walker, son of Jeremiah and Anna Walker, both deceased, died at the State hospital at Danville on the morning of the 17th of May, aged about 48 years. He is survived by three sisters—Emma, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Jane Brungart, of Mill Hall, and Elizabeth, of Milesburg. He enlisted for service in the Spanish-American war and was in training in Georgia when the conflict ended.

Burial was made at Rebersburg in the Lutheran and Reformed cemetery; Rev. W. A. McClellan conducted the services at the grave.

GRAMLEY.—Levi Clair Gramley, who for several years resided in Millheim, died in the Geisinger hospital at Danville, aged 60 years, 9 months and 14 days. He had been a patient in the hospital for about a month.

He was a son of the late Philip and Catherine Gramley and was born at Rebersburg, November 25, 1894, he was united in marriage with Elmira Wolfe, and ten children were born to them, five of whom survive, as follows: Mrs. L. E. Legerot, of Aurora, Ill.; Miss Iva, of Bellefonte; and Mildred, Henry and Myrna, at home.

Funeral services were held at the home in Millheim last Thursday morning; interment at Rebersburg.

FINKLE.—Mrs. Margaret Finkle, wife of Samuel Finkle, after a lingering illness for several years, finally passed away at her home in Bellefonte, May 9th. Mrs. Finkle was born in Centre county and at an early age moved to Milfin county where she resided during the entire period of her life.

Death had been unknown to this family of nine children until the mother passed away at the time above mentioned. Besides the father the following children remain to mourn the loss of a noble mother, the first one to be called away from the family circle: Taylor, Foster and Mrs. William Utts, residing in Bellefonte; Mrs. Hester Bigelow, of Altoona; Mrs. Charles Horton, of Philadelphia; Mrs. A. D. Riden, of Woodwardsville, Md.; R. C. Finkle, of Muncy; R. P. Finkle, of New Bethlehem, and William Finkle, of Buffalo, N. Y.

LUSE.—Mrs. Mary Ann Luse, relict of the late Dennis Luse, of Millheim, died of general debility, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jane Maize, at Baltimore, Md., aged 86 years, 5 months and 12 days.

She was the daughter of the late David and Rachel Kreamer, and before her marriage she resided with her parents at Aaronsburg.

Since the death of her husband, which occurred in Millheim about sixteen years ago, she divided her time with her children in Williamsport, Sparrows Point, Md., Mardella Springs, Md., and Baltimore. Nearly a year ago she fell and fractured her hip and most of the time since she was bedfast. She is survived by seven children, as follows: Henry, of Portland, Oregon; Mrs. Jane Maize, of Baltimore, Md.; John, of Los Angeles, Cal.; James D., of Williamsport; Mrs. Mary Warner, of Mardella Springs, Md.; Mrs. William Beard, of Sparrows Point, Md., and Mrs. Ada Herald, of Connecticut. One sister, Mrs. Sarah Shreffler, of Akron, O., also survives.

She was a lifelong member of the United Brethren church.

The remains were shipped to Millheim, and funeral services were held in the United Evangelical church, conducted by Rev. C. B. Snyder. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

STOVER.—Benjamin Stover, the oldest resident of Haines township, passed peacefully to his eternal home Sunday morning of last week, aged 89 years, 7 months and 17 days. His health was failing for about a year, but it was only for several months that he was confined to his bed for intervals of a day or two. On Saturday he was up and about the house, although he was not feeling good. About 2 o'clock Sunday morning his daughter, Mrs. Alfred Long, with whom he made his home, went to his room to inquire as to his condition and he told her he was all right, and at 3 o'clock when Mrs. Long went to his room again, he was dead, apparently having died without a struggle.

Mr. Stover was born in Haines township and his entire life was spent in that locality. He was married to Eve Brown, who preceded him in death April 2, 1889. Besides the daughter mentioned above he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Jacob Detwiler, of Farmers Mills, two grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

GERBRICK.—Calvin T. Gerbrick, one of the best known residents and business men of Centre county, died at his home at Bellefonte Monday afternoon of last week. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon, with burial at Bellefonte.

Mr. Gerbrick was born at East Hanover, Lebanon county, May 3, 1836. When eighteen years of age, in 1856, he journeyed to Bellefonte by stagecoach by way of the Seven Mountains, to learn the trade of miller at the Wagner mill. Later he went west for two years. He returned to the east and after a short stay in Lebanon county, where in 1864 he was united in marriage to Miss Sara Dick, he again located in Bellefonte.

For many years Mr. Gerbrick successfully conducted a milling business in Bellefonte in company with the late Dr. E. W. Hale, the firm being Gerberich, Hale & Co. Later Mr. Hale retired from the business, which became the property of C. T. Gerberich & Son. Father and son retired from the milling business eighteen years ago.

Since 1905, the year of its incorporation, Mr. Gerberich had been vice president of the Bellefonte Trust Co. He was a conservative successful business man, held in high regard by his business associates and business acquaintances. He was for many years a member of St. John's Reformed church.

Mr. Gerberich's wife died about seventeen years ago. There are three surviving children, and one brother, Frank Gerberich, of Maysville, Ky.

BLACK.—Miss Margaret Black, sister of the late Mrs. Daniel Gress, and who frequently visited the Reformed parsonage while Rev. Gress was pastor at Centre Hall, died a few days ago at her home in Adamsburg, in the Pittsburgh district. Miss Black was much devoted to the church and philanthropic work. For thirty-five years she was organist in the Brush Creek church and for fourteen years missed but one Sunday.

The deceased was aged 58 years, 4 months and 12 days.

Will Build New Home.

The foundation for a new dwelling house was commenced on Wednesday by Samuel Shoop on his lot opposite the public school building on Church street. The structure will be 22x24 feet, and will be a one-floor house with six rooms and a bath. It will be an Aladdin ready-cut house, and the erection, after the cellar and wall are completed, will be by Aladdin company. Their representatives were here on Saturday to stake out the building. The best of material will be used in construction, the roof to be of asbestos shingles. The home will be heated with a furnace and electrically lighted.

Report of High School.

Number in attendance, girls 22, boys 24, total 46. Percent of attendance, girls 100, boys 97, average 98½. Those present every day during the term: Charlotte Kether, Curtis Reiber, Paul Smith, Philip Musser, Albert Emery. Albert Emery was not tardy nor absent for seven years.

N. L. Bartges, Principal
Isabel Rowe, Asst. Principal.

McSparran at "State."

John A. McSparran, Democratic candidate for governor, made a public address in the auditorium, State College, Monday evening, speaking in a general way of government. His address was not political. A special session of State Grange was held in the auditorium that evening, and advantage was taken of the opportunity to give the state master a chance to talk to the general public. The audience was made up largely of the order of Patrons of Husbandry from all sections of the county. The speaker was enthusiastically received and the various high points of his address liberally applauded.

Milk Prices Same for June.

Producers' milk prices for June will remain the same as the May prices, according to a statement issued today by the Dairymen's Co-Operative Association, Inc.

Prices usually are lower in June than in May but a cold spring has resulted in poor pastures and a falling off in production. Market conditions for dairy products are also improving.

A Perfect Gentleman.

The best answer to the question, "What is a perfect gentleman," asked by the Williamsport Sun, was given by Mrs. M. Cogswell, of that city, and was one of several answers sent in for a prize of $10.00 Mrs. Cogswell wrote as follows:

"A perfect gentleman is a man who is courteous, not only in manners, but at heart; one who is at ease in any environment or situation and has the power to make others feel at ease. One who is courteous to inferiors as well as superiors, always preserving dignity, and commanding respect."

War Tools Germany Has Destroyed.

Up to March 1 Germany had destroyed 5,855,000 rifles and carbines, 104,000 machine guns, 35,700,000 loaded shells and mines, 13,800,000 grenades, 13,363 airplanes, and 24,045 airplane engines, according to official figures made public.

Auction at Meis' Store.

Another auction sale will be held at Meis' store, Colyer, on Saturday evening of this week. Don't fail to attend. "Jack" Smith, auctioneer.

LINDEN HALL.
