Not Harming Him.
 "What's the cause of this traffic congestion?" asked the dignified person.
 "A live model is demonstrating silk hose in a shop window," said a frustrated little man on the edge of the crowd.
 "Shocking!"
 "Maybe so, stranger. Maybe, but I've been struggling for half an hour to get a closeup view and so far as I'm concerned it might as well be a demonstration of safety razors."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Willing to Divide.
 Teacher (sternly)—Willie, give that chewing gum to me.
 Willie—I'll let you have half of it.
 Good spelling doesn't make friends with millions.

A Few Little Smiles

NERVOUSNESS EXPLAINED

A train on one of the roads running out of Indianapolis struck an old horse at a crossing and one of the passengers became very much excited. Some one finally remarked on his nervousness and he replied, "Sir, if you had $20,000 of stock in this road you'd feel just as I do."
 "Why, we only killed an old horse."
 "Exactly, but you don't know on what a mighty small affair dividends are passed nowadays."

Exigencies of Art.
 "The arena is ready," said the movie director. "Step in and we'll turn loose the lions."
 "Are you sure those brutes have had their dinner?" asked the star who was to play the role of a Christian martyr.
 "I saw 'em fed myself. They are as frisky as kittens."
 "All right, but if they show signs of wanting to toy with a little dessert I'm liable to run over a few camera men."

SHE ALSO WORKED
 "Do you always take a morning constitutional?"
 "Oh yes, only I haven't enough leisure to call it a morning constitutional."

From Missouri
 "Kind air, will you give me a dime for a bed?"
 "Well, let's see the bed first."
 The young freshman said.

In the Spirit of the Times.
 Eva—Why, I thought they were about to be married?
 Bill—Yes, everything was in shape and they had arranged to have the announcement cards printed when the printers went on a strike and by the time the strike was over their engagement was over, too.

A Warning.
 "Why do you keep this stock certificate framed and hung on the parlor walls?"
 "Just as a little reminder not to make the same mistake again."
 "I know how it is," said the lady.
 "I feel that way every time I look at my marriage certificate."

Not Assuring.
 An old woman who kept a pig that did not fatten as fast as she thought it should took the case to her physician.
 "You must see the vet," the physician told her.
 "Oh, doctor," was the answer. "I have no confidence in him; he is so thin himself."

Wifely Caution.
 "Why all that storming?"
 "I asked my husband for $10."
 "Well, if he must kick up a fuss like that, why not ask him for a hundred?"
 "Because I need his support. I don't want to see him drop dead."

SKINNER SKINNED HIM
 "When you traded cars with Skinner, did you get anything to boot?"
 "Yes, I've kicked myself ever since."

Little Things.
 Little bits of cardboard, Buckles, silk and glue. Make the very stylish Twenty-dollar shoe!

The Ladylike Habit.
 "My wife says she will leave me if I don't quit smoking," said Mr. Meekton.
 "Going home to her mother?"
 "No, her mother smokes more than I do."

Privilege of the Downtrodden.
 "Are you on friendly terms with your landlord?"
 "Well," said Mr. Gadspar, "we still speak."
 "I see."
 "But wild horses couldn't drag 'You are welcome' out of me when he thanks me for the rent."

Car Breaks Down.
 "Is there a motor mechanic around this village?"
 "No, sir. Best I can do for you is to call a horse doctor."

HAD TO STAY IN BED FOR WEEKS

Omaha Citizen Says He Is Now Rid of Troubles That Had Kept Him Miserable for Years.

"I was almost out of commission when I began taking Tanlac, but it has made me feel like a new man in a short time," said W. S. Meadville, 7604 North Twenty-ninth St., Omaha, Neb.

"My liver and kidneys were out of order and I had terrible pains in my back and sides and was so bad off I often had to stay in bed for two weeks at a time.

"The results I got from Tanlac were a very glad surprise to me. It benefited me in every way and I believe the improvement I received will prove lasting and I feel stronger and better than in many a day."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

NOT CHICK'S TIME TO DIE

Raider of Garden Seemingly Had as Many Lives as Has the proverbial Tabby.

My garden has flowers and fruits in it; my neighbor keeps chickens, but I do more than my share in keeping those hens plump. My son has an air-gun, and one evening recently a fowl foolishly met one of the shots half-way. We were anxious to dispose of her; we could not dream of eating her ourselves, so our neighbor on the other side promised to help us out by lifting the chicken after dark. That night we watched for his coming, and growing impatient, I started out to help. There was my neighbor quartering the ground without finding the bird; he had a flashlight and I a lantern.

Across the fence came the friendly inquiry, "Anything you are looking for?"

Like guilty conspirators we looked up to find the missing chicken safe in her arms. The hen evidently had recovered sufficiently to find her way home. We doused our glims and scuttled for beds.—Exchange.

Christmas as a Name.

There are 25 persons whose name is Christmas in the present London directory. "Their callings," he says, "vary from a stained-glass artist to a furniture broker." There have been some quite notable people whose name was Christmas. A Mr. Christmas was master carver in the navy in the time of Charles I, and evidently had great privileges, even to the extent of impressing men for service on the ships. Then there was a Henry Christmas, for some years lecturer at St. Peter's, Cornhill; and a Miss Jane Christmas, a well-known author and zealous Protestant propagandist in the middle of the Nineteenth century.

Inside Facts.

Alice had been to Sunday school for the first time, and had come home filled with information. She was overheard to say to her six-year-old sister, as she laid a wee hand over her heart, "When you hear something wise here, you know it is conscience whispering to you."
 "No such thing," responded the six-year-old; "it's just wind in your tummy."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Are Men So Fickle?

Women members of the Republican county committee were discussing Assemblyman Steinberg's bill providing that no marriages should be performed until thirty-six hours after the issue of the license. Miss Mary Wood, prominent in politics, opposed the measure. "It gives a man too great a chance to change his mind," she said.—New York Herald.

Headlines.
 Sir Philip Gibbs, the art connoisseur, recently told a group of Chicagoans about the editor of a small paper who had the village carpenter make type large enough to tell of a village scandal. "Great show we made yesterday," he told the publisher of the paper after it was all over. "Yes," said the publisher quietly, "but I always thought we'd save something like that for the second coming of the Lord."

An Athlete.
 "Although you considerably outweigh your antagonist, you seem to have had the worst of the fight," said the sympathetic old gentleman.
 "I was out of luck when I struck him," replied the man who was nursing a broken face. "Nobody told me he'd been playing for years in a jazz orchestra."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

A Bad Combination.
 Trollope—I know a combination which you may always take it for granted is bent on mischief.
 Needham—What combination is that?
 Trollope—A small boy and a pin.
 Fame is more lasting, but notoriety pays quicker.
 Our race is growing sturdier. Few people now faint.

Foxy Old Boy.
 "And you are ninety-five years old!" she exclaimed. "How wonderful! You look so well, so strong, so young. How have you managed to do it?"
 "My method is very simple," the venerable gentleman replied. "I have never let any of my friends know if I didn't happen to be feeling well, consequently I've never had to take any of the things they would have recommended if they had known I was ailing."

Obeys Orders.
 Boy Scout (on right guard)—Halt! Who goes there?
 Voice—Officer of the day.
 "Advance, officer of the day, and explain what you are doing out at night."
 —Answers.

The Principal Inducement.
 "What sends men into the far corners of the world?" asks one of the magazines. Our guess is that it is the hope of seeing their names in the newspaper headlines.
 Getting into trouble is generally expensive, but some people just will have expensive things.
 A great deal of life consists in waiting for good weather.
 Willingness to work will make a hit in any job.

More Quality for Less Money

There never was a time when Goodyear Tires were so good as now.

They are bigger, heavier and stronger today than any earlier Goodyears ever were.

Yet Goodyear prices are lower now than ever.

Not even in those remembered days before the war did Goodyear Tires sell at such low prices as today. Look at the figures listed below.

They represent an average decrease of more than 60% from Goodyear prices of 1910.

When you can get these better Goodyears at such prices, there is no question of the tire value at your command.

Your Goodyear Service Station Dealer will tell you that never in his experience as a tire dealer has he known the equal of this value. See him today.

PORTLAND CEMENT

PERMANENCE means ECONOMY.
 Permanent fencing protects both stock and crops, and reduces labor. Permanent feeding floors save food and save stock health. Farming, like any other industry, shows greatest profits from proper equipment.

Your local building material dealer deserves much of the credit for modern farm construction. His capital, tied up in comparatively slow moving building materials, has kept on hand the means of community improvement.

With such an investment on his part he naturally has selected such materials as he could safely depend on. For concrete construction, whether fence posts, feeding floors or silos, he is apt to recommend Atlas Portland Cement, "the Standard by which all other makes are measured."

Here's Good Advice: Relieve Your Fatigue With Sleep. Avoid Stimulants

THERE is nothing in the world so reconstructive as sound, refreshing sleep. During sleep the system rids itself of the fatigue poisons that have accumulated during the day. The food elements are taken up by the various tissues that require rebuilding nutriment.

It is important that you get plenty of health-bringing sleep. Anything that interferes with your sleep hampers and hinders you—mentally and physically.

A common cause of physical weakness and mental depression is the reaction following over-stimulation by the drug, caffeine, and other elements found in both coffee and tea.

If you have an idea that coffee or tea drinking may be injurious to your health, why not stop it for a week or so, and drink delicious, fragrant Postum instead.

Postum is a rich, golden-brown, pure cereal beverage. It contains no harmful elements of any kind. You can drink Postum as many times a day as you or the children desire a grateful, refreshing beverage.

Your grocer sells both forms of Postum: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for fully 20 minutes.

Made by Postum Cereal Co., Inc., Battle Creek, Mich.
