

PINE GROVE MILLS.

The rainy weather put farming to a standstill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Markle, from Penna Valley, spent Saturday evening at the J. A. Fortney home.

Mrs. Ida Williams spent last week at the home of her son Fred, ministering to his sick wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ash, of State College, were entertained at the Frank Swabb home last Thursday.

Miss Edith Sankey, of Middleburg, was a welcome visitor at the Charles Smith home last week.

Vinton Stevens, J. H. McCracken, Luther K. Strouse T. A. Frank, C. M. Dale and Mrs. Etta Corl are among the sick.

Russel Shirk and wife, Will Glenn and wife and Master Willie, of Boalsburg, were callers at the W. H. Glenn home Saturday.

Aunt Phoebe Potter, who has been ill with pneumonia, is now able to get about her room.

The I. O. O. F. minstrel troop of home talent gave their first entertainment in the hall Friday evening, and had a ninety dollar house. It was repeated Saturday evening, when they had a hundred dollar house, and many were turned away, the edifice being full and standing room being at a premium. The stage has recently been refitted with new curtains, and new scenery which added splendor to the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson are happy over the arrival of a sweet little girl last Wednesday. Both mother and babe are doing nicely.

Farmer I. O. Campbell of Fairbrook was rushed to the Bellefonte hospital last week when he submitted to an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Osman and two boys, in their new Maxwell, motored down Penna Valley to spend Sunday at the former's parental home.

David W. Miller is rebuilding on the old burned site. The building will be 24x24 with four rooms on the first floor and a porch 8x24.

Robert E. Reed is building a new addition to his residence, with bath. Charles Burkett has the contract.

Miss Corl, who submitted to an operation for appendicitis last week in the Glenn sanitarium at State College, is convalescing nicely.

Samuel Krumbine and wife, of Nanty-Glo, attended the funeral of Mrs. Margaret Osman, on Saturday.

Memorial services will begin Sunday May 28, at 7:30 p. m., by attending divine services in the Presbyterian church here. At that time Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick will preach the annual Memorial sermon to the G. A. R., to which Civil, Spanish-American and World War veterans are invited.

Memorial services will begin on May 30th at 2 p. m., when the parade will form at the town hall, led by the Citizens' band, civic organizations and Sunday-schools, G. A. R.; march to the several cemeteries and strew flowers on the graves of fellow-comrades gone before. Rev. J. O. C. McCracken, of Altoona, will be the orator of the day. Pennsylvania Furnace will be held. Graysville at 10:30 a. m.; Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick will deliver the address. Pine Hall at 6:00 p. m.; J. Kennedy Johnson of Bellefonte, will deliver the address. The Reformed Sunday-school will hold a festival and serve lunch at the close of the exercises. Meek's, Tadpole, Rock Springs, and the Branch will be decorated by a detail of G. A. R. members.

REBERSBURG.

Some of our "afternoon" farmers have some corn to plant yet.

Mrs. Elias has again returned to the Lock Haven hospital where she had previously been a patient.

Adam Wolf, who for the past two weeks had been a patient in the Bellefonte hospital, has returned home.

Mr. Swartz and family, of Centre Hall, were Sunday visitors at the Adam Wolf home.

John Spangler, of State College, last week bought a building lot in this place from J. R. Brungart with the intention of building a house and moving here.

Mrs. Amanda Evans is at Tylersville nursing her sick sister, Mrs. John Ruhl.

The remains of Clair Gramley, who died at Danville, were brought to this place for burial in the Evangelical cemetery.

Lester Minnick, who is employed at Millinburg, spent Sunday with his family in this place.

E. J. Hair is having his farm buildings at Smulton painted. They are being made red in color and the appearance is fine.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

is greatly relieved by constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions. Circulars free. All Druggists. ECSTASY IN THE SALESROOM

Goaded "Prospect" Finally Forced, in Self-Defense, to Rise to the Occasion Herself.

"But this is such a sweet little model, honey. Perfect on you. Look at the quality of this dainty, dearie. Now, honey, did you ever see such lines?"

There may have been heroes of grand opera who could make love with the fluency and intensity of a sales-girl drawing near to a sale, but no expert exists whose ardor can thus flame when the actual moment of decision between the higher and the lower comes, writes Marian Storm in the New York Evening Post.

"Lots of little girls that buy these little suits just leave off their little blouses and wear them like little one-piece dresses. Now, this little style, dearie, was made for you. Look, honey, not a wrinkle in back. Isn't it lovely on her?"—appeals to another enraptured creature—"Isn't she just the little girl to wear this little model? Of course, not every one can wear this little suit, dearie. It takes a figure, honey, just like you've got. I wear the same suit myself.

"Dearie, in two weeks you couldn't buy this little suit for half the price again. Isn't it lovely on her? I said, honey, when you came in: 'There's the girl that can wear that little special we got today.' Now turn around, dear. You won't have to do a thing to it. Length—just, right, honey. Sleeves—just right, honey.

"Sweetness," she urged, at passionate climax, "don't let a little chance like this go by! Dearie, if you only

"But, oh, my beloved," returned the goaded customer half fiercely. "The price! The price!"

A MISREPRESENTED RACE.

The Filipino people are a much misrepresented race. The frequent publication of pictures of semi-naked Mindanao Moros and Igorotes has caused a great many Americans to believe they are typical of the inhabitants of the Philippines. Such is far from the case, however. Of 11,000,000 inhabitants of the islands, 10,500,000 are a Christian, civilized people with a culture and refinement that will compare very favorably with that of other nations. The Filipino women are exceptionally modest. A street flirtation in Manila, so far as a Filipino woman is concerned, is something that is almost unknown, as any American that has visited Manila will testify.

Thoughtless Dealers.

"You didn't park within four inches of the curb," thundered the police official.

"It's a new car," explained Mr. Chuggine, humbly; "and the dealers didn't put a tape measure in the out-

BOOSTER STORES'

DOLLAR DAY!

Next Wednesday, May 31

Altoona and vicinity are going to celebrate next Wednesday, May 31st, with a special merchandising event—the eleventh Booster Stores' Dollar Day. Special attention has been paid by the merchants to the quality of merchandise for the price and your savings will more than pay your carfare and leave plenty for a good meal in the restaurant or take in a show where you see the emblem displayed.

Read the names of the members of the Altoona Booster Association—they have made Booster Stores' Dollar Day popular because on this day they gave real values in order to make new friends for Altoona—your District Shopping Centre.

Every Booster member will have a special border around his advertisement in the Altoona Mirror next Tuesday and the Altoona Tribune next Wednesday, and among the avalanche of specials you will find many that will appeal to you.

Be sure you pick out Booster members when you buy, when you eat, or when you want entertainment. Their names are all here and each displays the Altoona Booster Association's guarantee—the glass emblem of "Community Service."

WHEN—Next Wednesday—May 31st.

WHERE—Altoona

WHY—Booster Stores' Dollar Day.

KESSLER'S

IT ISN'T a difficult thing to appreciate fully just why we are all worked up about the New SPRING MERCHANDISE now on view in our store.

There have been few seasons when either the fabrics or models were as attractive as these. In fact we do not see how it would be possible to give more in style or value than we give in this collection. There are novelties, quite natural, and staples for quiet wear.

IN SHOES have every wanted perforation, stitching or finish. Some people want a shoe that is distinctive in looks; some like them severely plain. But all want them to be comfortable always. We can fit you properly, and at a price that you will approve.

Come in and see—no obligation implied—we are glad to see you.
