The Pealer store room and residence, at Spring Mills, was sold on Saturday by the executor, J. N. Litzell, to Harvey D. Rossman, who now occupies the place, for the sum of $2900. The building was erected in 1903 by William Pealer to take the place of the one destroyed by fire on the same site on December 23, 1902. Mr. Rossman began business in the burned building in 1897, and when the present building was finished he occupied it at once and has done so ever since. It is very much like home to him and consequently decided to buy it when the opportunity came.

THE DEATH RECORD.
SHIRK.—Harry C. Shirk, an esteemed citizen of Centre Hall, passed away on Saturday morning after an illness of a week from pleuro pneumonia. Interment was made Wednesday morning at Sprucetown, in the family lot in which lie the remains of a son and a daughter. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. F. Bingman, pastor of the United Evangelical church, of which Mr. Shirk was a member, and the Masonic lodge.

Mr. Shirk was born on the farm now occupied by Thomas Delaney, at Old Fort, in 1852, his father then being a tenant of General James Irvin. When he was about a year old his parents moved to the Shirk homestead, now owned by William R. Neff, near Tusseyville, where he grew to manhood, and upon the death of the elder Shirk began farming, having in the meantime married Miss Elizabeth Royer. Later Mr. and Mrs. Shirk purchased the "Big Spring" farm above Boalsburg, to which place they moved, and on disposing of it moved to Centre Hall to where the death occurred. During his residence in Centre Hall he was engaged in the sale of farming implements.

The deceased was the son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Benner) Shirk, and is survived by a twin sister, Mrs. Linnie L. Ruble, of Cleveland, Ohio. His wife, named above, also survives. Had he lived until September he would have attained his seventieth year.

JACKSON.—Mrs. Mary C. Jackson, wife of Geo. C. Jackson, of State College, died from Bright's disease. She was a daughter of James and Sarah Fulton Stephens and was born at State College on April 20, 1873. Her husband, her parents, one son, Walter, and several brothers and sisters survive. Funeral services were held Friday. Rev. Martin, of the Presbyterian church, conducted the services. Burial was made in Pine Hall cemetery.

HOOVER.—John Henry Hoover died at his home near Woodward, aged 66 years, 4 months and 29 days.

On the 28th of April Mr. Hoover was cutting wood on the mountain and accidentally cut a gash in his right leg. Gangrene developed and caused his death, after much suffering.

He is survived by his wife and the following children: Mrs. Fred Bookler, of San Francisco, Cal.; Herbert, of Genoa, Ill.; Mrs. William Lingie and Roy, of Buchanna, Mich.; Mrs. John Eisenhuth, of near Woodward, and Brooks, of Somonauh, Ill.

Funeral services were held at the home last Thursday morning and interment made in the Woodward cemetery.

BIBLE.—Frank E. Bible, brother of Prof. George P. Bible, of Bellefonte, died in All Souls Hospital, Morristown, N. J., on the night of May 29th, after a serious operation. The body was sent to Bellefonte, his place of birth, and laid to rest beside that of his wife in the Union cemetery.

His two sons, Rev. Frank William Bible, for some years a missionary of the Presbyterian church at Hang Chow, China, and Guy P. Bible, a member of the firm of Horace T. Potts & Co., of Philadelphia, and his only daughter, Alice May Bible, High School Librarian at Westfield, N. J., accompanied the remains to Bellefonte. The funeral took place from his brother's residence on East Curtin street, the Rev. David R. Evans, assisted by the Rev. Malcolm D. Maynard, officiating.

ROSS.—Mrs. Sarah E. Ross, wife of Charles H. Ross, died at her home in Altoona following an illness of several years with sarcoma. She was a daughter of Peter and Susan Rearick and was born in Millheim on September 11th, 1860, hence was 61 years, 8 months and 3 days old. Two Cars Wrecked.
Two wrecked cars lying along the state highway at the spring on Long mountain, in the Seven Mountains, Sunday afternoon, were curiously gazed upon by the hundreds of automobilists who passed that way before the wreckage was cleaned up. No one was hurt, but it was a near miracle that several were not killed. George Zeigler, one of the firm of Zeigler Brothers, of Reedsville, who have been doing considerable work in Centre Hall during the past six months, accompanied by his wife, son and a lady, were going toward Millroy and on reaching the spring the child asked that the car be stopped so that he could get a drink. The car was parked against a rock and one by one the occupants got out and shortly thereafter a large touring car came dashing down the mountain, struck the little Ford truck and then turned sidewise over the embankment. All the wheels on the Ford were crushed, and the touring car was a mass of wreckage.

Bitner—Leister.
At the Evangelical parsonage, in Centre Hall, on Saturday morning, Rev. J. F. Bingman joined in marriage Samuel H. Bitner, of Tusseyville, and Miss Gladys D. Leister, of Potter's Mills. The bride and groom are well and favorably known in their respective communities. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leister, and is a handsome young woman, and the groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bitner, an industrious and wide awake young man. The Reporter extends congratulations.

Fire At Millheim.
Saturday morning about four o'clock the A. Kessler clothing store, at Millheim, was discovered to be on fire and it was with much difficulty that the flames were subdued before the handsome building and large stock of clothing were destroyed. The fire, it appears, started in the walls of the building, necessitating cutting through them to reach the flames. Almost the entire damage to the stock was done by the great volume of water played into the wall openings.

Mr. Kessler, the proprietor of the store, and Mrs. Kessler were in Indiana this state, where Mrs. Kessler became ill, but it was their intention of returning a few days later. The store was in charge of Miss Kessler, who frequently conducted the business during her father's absence.

The Prosperity Train.
Flying pennants proclaiming it "The Prosperity Special," the largest and perhaps the most remarkable single train of locomotives ever hauled across the country left the Edystone plant of the Baldwin Locomotive works, at Philadelphia, shortly after noon on Saturday for East St. Louis, Ill., and passed Lewistown Junction later in the day and was watched with interest by a number of Penna Valley residents. It consisted of twenty oil-burning engines of the Santa Fe type, each, with its tender, nearly 100 feet long and weighing 621,000 pounds. The train was a part of an order of fifty locomotives of this type built for the Southern Pacific lines.

Urge Purchase of Forest Lands.
Bonding the state to the amount of $25,000,000 for the purchase of forest lands was favored in a resolution adopted by the executive committee of the Pennsylvania State Conservation Council, in session at State College a short time ago. This proposition with 22 others favored by the council, will be presented to all candidates for state offices at the general election in November.

Dean R. L. Watts, of the Pennsylvania State College agricultural school and president of the state conservation council, was in charge of the meeting of the executive committee.

Children's Day services will be observed in the Presbyterian church, Sunday, June 4th, at 10 a. m.

For Ten Dollars and Ninety Cents—This 30 x 3½ Usco

THE 30 x 3½ tire situation today is just this—
The man who buys an USCO at $10.90 is justified in believing that his money is going farther in tire value than it ever has gone or could go before.
Naturally he appreciates the quality of USCO. That was established long ago.
It is still fresh in his mind that USCO led the national market into the $10.90 price range.

The makers of U.S. Tires always intended the 30 x 3½ USCO to be the highest value in its field.
At $10.90 it creates a new classification of money's worth.
