High Prices for Jerseys.

What is said to be the best sale of Jersey cattle in the United States this year was that conducted on Saturday by T. S. Cooper & Son on their Linden-grove farm at Coopersburg. Sixty-one head were sold for $60,900, an average of $998 a head.

The animals disposed of were twenty-three cows, thirty heifers, one heifer calf and seven bull calves. The total, considering the fact that no bulls were offered, was remarkable. The highest priced animal knocked down was the cow Financial Pawn, medalist, bought by O. S. Widenor, of Lynwood farm, Ogontz, for $4,000, who also bought the bull calf Cid of Linden, for $3,500.

Cherries on Apple Tree.

Here is a good one from Georgetown, Delaware, and is hard to match:

A tree that produced apples last year and is filled with cherries this year, is the unusual sight on the William Bagley farm, near Onancock, where crowds have been viewing the phenomenon. The tree was one of the several purchased from a nursery, and was bought for an apple tree. In every appearance it is an apple tree. Last year it bore for the first time three fine apples. This year the tree is filled with cherries and not a sign of an apple. No one has been able to explain its strange conduct.

An auto wreck on Sunday created quite an excitement. A Mr. Harkinson in trying to pass Bright Bitner's milk truck at the corner of Long's store, ran in the ditch and crashed into Ammon Decker's fence. He was cut about the face and hands; James Zerby, who was riding with him, was shaken up pretty badly.

David McCloskey was hoeing corn at 6 o'clock last Friday, the morning of his 91st birthday, which he quietly celebrated at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Nell McDonald, in Lock Haven.

Orchards throughout Nittany valley are not unlike those of Penns Valley in regard to fruit bearing. In many orchards there will be no apples at all. It is most unusual in this section of the state to have two seasons go by without an apple crop.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

is greatly relieved by constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions.
