Scraps of Humor

A NATIONAL TRAIT

"At any rate, the high cost of living is no problem in the South Sea Islands."

"It would be, if seven thousand average Americans were suddenly transported to those islands and forced to live there."

"What do you mean?"
"It wouldn't be six months before somebody would corner the coconut market."

Started Early.

"You say Meddling is a born reformer?"

"Just that."
"What do you mean by a born reformer?"

"I have it on the authority of his grandmother that when he was five years old, he started a campaign in his neighborhood to abolish Mother Goose."

Careful Calculation.

"I understand you have been offered a large salary to go into motion pictures."

"I have," replied Senator Sorghum. "But I'm not going. I like to keep up with my surroundings and large as the offer seems to be it wouldn't be enough to enable me to keep the motion picture social pace."

What is Bad Luck?

"Oh, I just bust a lookin' glass. I'm going to have seven years' bad luck."

"I don't believe that, 'cause a friend of mine bust one an' she never had no seven years' bad luck. It was only three days later she was killed in an explosion—so I wouldn't worry about it."—Life.

The Noces Have It.

His addresses having been declined by a young lady, he paid court to her sister.

"How much you resemble your sister," said he, the evening of his first call. "You have the same hair, the same forehead, and the same eyes—"
"And the same noes!" added the girl quickly.—London Telegraph.

Conservative.

"These European papers are not so enterprising as ours."

"You're right. I doubt if anybody got out an extra when America was discovered."

NOT AT THAT PRICE
Teacher—With steak at 45 cents a pound what would four pounds and a half cost?
Johnny—They wouldn't come to our house.

Polite Designation.
Old Human Nature's ways are strange. In time of stress or storm. And every time he wants a change. He calls it a reform.

Nothing Else Afoot.
Post—New York is overcrowded with motors.
Parker—Yes, there's nothing afoot but plans for relief.—Judge.

Impossible.
"John," exclaimed the nervous woman, "there's a burglar trying to get into the flat."
"I'll get up and give him the fight of his life."
"Aren't you afraid?"
"Not a bit. Any burglar who thinks this flat can hold all three of us must be a little bit of a fellow."

The Big Difference.
"There's a vast difference in children."
"That's true. The other fellows are always so much easier to bring up than your own."

Relaxed Now and Then.
"Now they say that Puritans were hard drinkers."
"I never thought those old boys were as austere as tradition has tried to make out."

Effective.
Nenmes—What do you want to send alarm clocks to savages in Uganda for?
Rudler—To help them to fight against sleeping sickness!—Answers

Smart Child.
Small Girl (continuing argument as to bedtime)—But, mummy, how do you know the birds have gone to sleep?
Mother—Well, I expect they have.
Small Girl—Well, I don't. I believe the mummy bird has just gone into the nest and has hung up her wings and is reading to the eggs.—Punch.

An Altruist.
She—You know you would be just as happy if you didn't kiss me.
He—But do you suppose I am selfish enough to think only of myself?

COULD NOT HIT A LICK FOR MONTHS

Petersburg Resident Says She Had About Lost Hope of Getting Better—Now Well and Happy.

"Tanlac has been such a blessing to me I can't help singing its praises," said Mrs. T. J. Archer, highly esteemed resident of 1147 Shepard St., Petersburg, Va.

"I had indigestion so bad I couldn't eat a thing without being in misery for hours, and the pain around my heart caused by the gas seemed all I could stand. I constantly had headaches and awful spells of dizziness. Then to make matters worse rheumatism in my arms, shoulders and knees almost drove me to distraction, and for three months I couldn't do a stroke of work."

"I had just about decided it was no use to take any more medicine when my husband brought me a bottle of Tanlac. Now I never have a touch of indigestion. Headaches and dizzy spells are a thing of the past, and rheumatism has left me entirely. I never have known a medicine to equal Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. Many a man resembles a mule when it comes to putting his best foot forward.

WOMAN HAS HISTORIC PEN

Used by President Harrison When He Signed the Present American Copyright Bill.

The recent celebration by the "League of American Pen Women" of their twenty-fifth anniversary, or "Silver Jubilee," makes this story timely.

During the administration of Benjamin Harrison, the present American copyright bill was passed. William McKinley, then a member of the house of representatives, offered the bill, the data for which was supplied by Margaret Sullivan Burke, newspaper correspondent, and afterward first president of the "League of American Pen Women." She gave this league its first home and its name.

Afterward, when President Harrison signed this bill, the pen with which he signed it was presented to Mrs. Burke by Elijah Halford, his private secretary, and one of her old Indiana friends. This pen is now in the possession of her daughter, Hilda Burke.

A Tribute.

"So you played in Plunkville last night?"

"Yes."
"I hear they threw eggs instead of flowers."

"Eggs are more valuable than roses," retorted Yorick Hamm.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Feather Gluttons.

Ransom Kennicott, chief forester in the Illinois forest preserve district, says that robins eat more than other birds.

EACH IS A GENUINE GOODYEAR

Each of the two tires illustrated above is a genuine Goodyear through and through.

One is the famous reliable 30 x 3 1/2 inch Goodyear All-Weather Tread Clincher.

Its companion is the popular 30 x 3 1/2 inch Goodyear Cross Rib.

The Goodyear Cross Rib is built of the same high grade Egyptian cotton fabric that goes into the All-Weather Tread Goodyear.

It has a long-wearing but differently designed tread, and sells for less money.

More than 5,000,000 of these tires have been sold in the last five years.

Their fine performance has demonstrated the folly of buying unknown and unguaranteed tires of lower price.

Ask your Goodyear Service Station Dealer about their advantages.

Stone Implements Found in Chile and in South Dakota Found to Be Identical.

Scientists are given something to ponder over by the assertion of Richard Franklin Pettigrew of Sioux Falls, S. D., former United States senator, upon his return to the city from a four-months' trip along the west coast of South America, that stone implements representing the stone age in Chile are exactly like a number of stone hatchets, axes and other implements recently found in the hills along the Split Rock and Big Sioux rivers, ten or fifteen miles east of Sioux Falls.

Pettigrew states that a doctor who is studying prehistoric man at Santiago, Chile, gave the implements to him. "I was intensely interested in the resemblance," said Pettigrew, "though I do not pretend to account for it." The United States ambassador sent them to the United States for me and I found them on my return to Washington.

Of Course, Unintentional.
Joe—Sweets to the sweet?
Sephine—Oh, thank you; may I pass you the nuts?—Gobblin.

All Clear Now.
"Money is the root of all evil." That is the reason we all try to dig it up.—Columbia Jester.

Warning!
As a motorist, we desire to voice the indignation of all other motorists, and to say that if these pedestrians don't quit walking into our cars and bending the bumpers all up, we'll start a national movement to make it a misdemeanor to cross the street.

Personally, we haven't hit anyone yet, but we feel it coming on.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.
