THE DEATH RECORD.

Samuel Wilson.

From our Pine Grove Mills correspondent.

It is with sorrow that we chronicle the passing away of Samuel Wilson, one of the best known and highly respected citizens of Spruce Creek Valley, near Grayville, on Friday, 5:30 a. m. of diabetes. He had been confined to bed since Memorial Day, and his end came as a shock to his many friends. He was a son of Albert and Mary Boyer Wilson, early settlers of Frankstown, where he was born sixty years ago. In 1893 he united in marriage to Miss Ida Musser, who preceded him in death two years in September. Deceased was a successful farmer and stock raiser and the owner of one of the best kept farms in the valley. He was a most obliging neighbor and a good citizen. He was a member of the Presbyterian church. His funeral took place Sunday afternoon and was largely attended; Rev. McCracken officiated. Burial at Grayville. One daughter and four sons survive.

Bettie Elizabeth Bohn.

Bettie Elizabeth, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bohn, of near Spring Mills, died Tuesday afternoon from Bright's disease. She was born January 16, 1920. Interment will be made this (Thursday) afternoon at Boalsburg.

A little son of Daniel Keller, of State College, died beginning of the week. Interment was made at Boalsburg.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Mollie Hoffer, of State College, spent the past two weeks among friends in Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Leigh Ebricht and little daughter, Bettie, drove to their former home, Thompsonstown, Saturday evening. The former returned home Monday, while Mrs. Ebricht and Bettie remained among friends during the week.

Arrangements have been completed for the Penns Valley Lutheran charge picnic in Georges Valley, the last Saturday in this month. The appearance of the Loysville Orphan Home band of forty-one pieces will be the chief attraction. The revival of the annual gathering has created considerable enthusiasm among the Lutheran brethren and their friends and a joyous time is looked forward to. In the evening the band will give an open-air concert at Spring Mills. The invitation to attend the picnic and concert is open to all, regardless of their denominational connection.

Find Whisky and Large Stills in Raid Upon Farm.

A successful raid was staged Thursday of last week on the Florida Fruit farms, in the mountains near Loganton, Clinton county, resulting in the seizure of elaborate apparatus for the manufacture of whisky and large quantities of the finished product.

John B. Ernst, of Williamsport, group head of the enforcement officers for this district, who personally directed the raid, believes that one of the leading sources of supply for Central Pennsylvania bootleggers has been stopped and considers this raid one of the most successful staged in Pennsylvania.

Several months ago the farms were raided, but were found to be deserted. Parts of a still and small quantities of whisky were found. The owner of the farm, Prince Farrington, formerly of North Carolina, disappeared and could not be located. Others who were with him also left the scene, apparently having had warning of the impending raid.

The raiding force included Mr. Ernst, S. R. Campbell, chief of police at Jersey Shore, and the following prohibition enforcement officers: George S. Vogt, James Gibbons, Vincent Martin, W. E. Lockard, and Morton B. Reeser. The raiding party experienced all the thrills which are met by revenue officers in the "moonshine districts" of the southern mountains. They encountered shots from lookouts posted to guard against surprises and Mr. Ernst and Mr. Campbell had a running fight with two men, who escaped. One man was captured. He gave his name as Luther Self.

The raiding party found two large stills and parts of three smaller stills. They were destroyed. Barrels of whisky were found in many ingenious hiding places, in fence corners, under piles of stone or wood, or buried in the ground. Fifty barrels in all were found, as well as large quantities of bottles and labels.

Shots were fired at the officers as they searched the premises. Several rifles and shotguns and three revolvers were found in the farm house.

It is reported that the confiscated whisky and other seized articles were taken to Williamsport by motor truck.

Youth Badly Injured.

Allen Hollenbaugh, who lives with his parents on the Theodore Boal homestead, at Boalsburg, was badly injured on Friday evening. He had just acquired a motorcycle, and after riding it or a while on that evening he returned to his home about dusk, entering a shed with such speed that he was unable to stop the machine before it had dashed through a board framework on the opposite side. The young man was veritably scalped, and otherwise injured. His condition was considered very serious by the attending physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dinges take this method of thanking kind friends and neighbors for their kindness during the late illness and death of the former's mother.

F. E. Nagney Sells Business.

The furniture store and undertaking establishment, in Bellefonte, conducted by F. E. Nagney, was sold by him to O. A. Bittle, of Schuylkill Haven, who will take charge of both branches of business in the near future. Mr. Nagney located in Bellefonte thirty-five years ago, and with the exception of the first seven or eight years, did business at his present stand, which building he owns. His intentions for the future have not been announced, but judging from his financial success he will more than likely devote the major portion of his time to private affairs.

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. Nellie Bryson and Miss Helen, of Derry, are at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. (Dr.) Woods.

On Sunday evening at 7 o'clock all the churches of town united in an open-air service in front of the Reformed church. The attendance was good; the sermon was preached by Rev. Wagner, of the Lutheran church. Similar services will be held every two weeks. All are invited.

Prof. Edward H. Meyers and family, of Newark, N. J., are at their home here for the summer vacation. Prof. Meyers is principal of the High school at Newark, and it has been their custom to spend the summer at Boalsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ketcham, of Washington, D. C., motored to this place to spend a few days with Mrs. Ketcham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lucas. They returned home on Thursday and took with them Ray Lucas who expects to work with Mr. Ketcham at the plumbing trade. Mrs. Hazel Meyer also went along to visit for a week.

GOHEEN.—Miss Luertia Goheen, of Boalsburg, died Monday evening, July 10, after a sickness of some time. She was the last of three sisters who lived together their lifetime, neither one being married. Surviving are her brothers John, of Rock Springs, and William, of Boalsburg. She was a member of the Presbyterian church. Interment in the Branch cemetery on Thursday, services at the home, conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick.

CHARLES.—Mrs. Ada Charles passed into the great beyond on June 29, after an illness of long duration. She lived in Boalsburg upwards of thirty years, at which place she died. She was a member of the Lutheran church and Sunday-school and much devoted; a good neighbor. She is survived by her husband, John Charles, and two sons—Foster and Grant—both married and living in Boalsburg. Interment was made at Boalsburg on Sunday.

AARONSBURG

Mrs. Paul C. Lamb, Washington, D. C., spent a few days last week at the home of Rev. and Mrs. John S. Hollenbach.

Aaronsburg Reformed Charge—services for Sunday, July 16; Aaronsburg, 9:15 a. m.; Coburn, communion, 10:30 a. m.; St. Paul's, communion, 7:30 p. m. Come to the House of the Lord.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bannage, Mrs. John Baker, former parishioners of Rev. Hollenbach, and Prof. N. A. Danowsky, and mother, Mrs. Black, of Mazepa, dined at the Reformed parsonage on Sunday.

On Thursday evening a number of the families of the several churches of the Aaronsburg Reformed Charge assembled at the Reformed parsonage. They brought many good things to their pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. John S. Hollenbach, for which they wish to express gratitude. A very pleasant evening was spent socially. Music, instrumental and vocal, enlivened the occasion. The following were present: Salem congregation—Mrs. Bruce Rossman, Mr. and Mrs. Warren P. Stover, Millheim—Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Auman and children, Mahlon and James, Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Gutelius and children Mary and Louisa, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Leitzell and daughter Ethel, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Stover and daughter Bernice, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Fye, A. E. Bartges, Mrs. N. A. Auman, Mrs. Thos. F. Miss Jennie Bottorf went to Spring Mills last Tuesday to take care of Miss Sadie Lee, who is unable to do any work.

The Lock Haven mayor and head of the police force must not be in sympathy with prohibition raiders. One of the policemen of that city was deputized to make a raid on what is known as the Florida Fruit farm, near Loganton, and for this act he was suspended for thirty days by chief of police Beck. The policeman (Wilbur Lockard) appealed to the mayor, but no use, the penalty stood.
