

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Osman, of Glen Iron, visited recently among friends in Penns Valley.

Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the local Presbyterian charge, began his summer vacation on Monday.

The children's service rendered in the United Evangelical church, Sunday evening, was a most delightful one.

Mrs. J. Frank Ross and pretty little daughter, of Pittsburgh, are at the home of the former's brother, Edwin Ritter, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. (Rev.) David J. Wolfe, of Homestead, and Mrs. S. M. Goodhart, of Johnstown, are guests at the home of their father, Alfred Durst.

There will be no preaching services in the Presbyterian churches at Centre Hall, Lemont or Pine Grove Mills until August 6.

Insurance was carried by the late R. D. Foreman in the Modern Woodmen in the sum of $2,000, and between $300 and $500 in the P. O. S. of A.

Mrs. J. D. P. Smithgall, son Drew and daughter Helen, of Franklin, are at the home of Mrs. Susanna Spangler for their annual summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Arney, of Centre Hall, attended the wedding of their son, William E. Arney, at Mifflinburg, Saturday evening, a brief account of which appears in this issue.

The delay in oiling the state highway between Old Fort and Millheim is working much detriment to that stretch of road. Six weeks ago that road was in fine condition for receiving a dressing of oil and stones. Today it is full of holes and almost the entire oiled surface has disappeared.

Miss Blanche Rowe, a stenographer in the Forestry Department, at Harrisburg, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rowe, Boalsburg, for her summer vacation. On Friday she was joined by a friend, Miss Martha Dunlap, who holds a similar position in the Forestry Department.

Mr. and Mrs. John Auman, of Centre Hall, returned last Friday from a very pleasant trip to Philadelphia. Being a baseball enthusiast, Mr. Auman spent much of his time out at Shibe Park where he witnessed the Athletics-Yankees series, and saw Babe Ruth pole out three home runs in one day.

Rev. B. F. Bieber, accompanied by Mrs. Bieber and daughter, Miss Francis, of Muncy, and Mrs. Bieber's sister, and the latter's step-son, were in town on Saturday. While the former conducted the funeral services over the remains of R. D. Foreman, the party visited Penns Cave and other points of interest.

Maurice P. Breen and son, Perry H. Breen, of Newport News, Virginia, attended the funeral of the former's uncle, R. D. Foreman, last Saturday. Mr. Breen, his friends hereabouts will be pleased to learn, has patented and placed on the market an ingenious device for removing huge pneumatic tires from trucks with great ease. With this device it is possible to remove a giant tire in a few minutes, compared to hours of laborious operation under the old method. Several demonstrations in New York City proved that the machine filled a long-felt want, and the demand for it has already become country-wide. The Reporter is pleased to note Mr. Breen's success in the line of invention.

Jesse C. McClenahan, of Potters Mills, who is employed at State road building between Millertown and Liverpool, has about decided to remove his family to the former place. Mr. McClenahan recently purchased another White truck and now has two of these splendid machines working for him in stone hauling for road building. Mr. McClenahan, besides himself, has three men from Potters Mills manning his trucks, namely, Warren McClellan, George Auman and Clarence Confer. Day and night shifts are worked, and an idea of the volume of work done by these big machines may be gained when it is said that an average of eighty gallons of gasoline are consumed every twenty-four hours. His two trucks represent an investment of close to $10,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Phillimore, of New York City, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. W. S. Fowler, of the same city, made an auto trip through Central Pennsylvania during the latter part of June and for two or three days stopped in Centre Hall, the former home of Mrs. Phillimore, who before marriage was Miss Mary Krumbine. Mr. Phillimore came to Centre Hall about thirty-one years ago, at which time he placed the pews in the Presbyterian church and it was during that time he became acquainted with his wife. Mr. Phillimore is superintendent of repairs for the Maintenance Company, Incorporated, electricians and elevator engineers. He was located in Atlanta, Georgia, for a number of years, but later came north. Their son, Walter M., Jr., is in Indianapolis, Indiana, with the Marmon Auto Company.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. L. Ray Morgan, of Homestead, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. S. W. Smith.

Miss Anna Garis and gentleman friend, Mr. Auman, spent the Fourth in Altoona.

A Bellefonte Hospital benefit picnic will be held at Hecla Park Thursday, July 27th. More particulars next week.

Since Thursday of last week the weather has been ideal for haymaking, and how the farmers did make use of it!

W. H. Baird, of State College, was a visitor in town last Thursday, having come to look after the rodding of his barn on his farm, west of Old Fort.

Mrs. R. D. Foreman takes this method of thanking kind friends and neighbors for their kindness during the recent illness and subsequent death of Mr. Foreman.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, of Sierra Madre, Calif., will spend July and August in Long Beach, California, having taken quarters in the Panama Apartment, 41 Chestnut Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Gormley and son William, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Yohe and family, of Butler, New Jersey, drove to Centre Hall in cars on Tuesday and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lambert.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geary and daughter, Miss Agnes, in their new Chevrolet sedan, the latter part of last week motored to Newport for a few days stay among relatives. Mr. Geary put in part of the time along the streams in that region fishing for bass.

The Garbrick "Yellow Kid" was pretty badly smashed up Tuesday morning when it left the road at the school house and ran into a tree. The car was being driven by Mr. Garbrick's youngest son, Fern, who was returning home from delivering milk to the local Dewart milk station.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Fisher and children, of Danville, are guests of the former's mother, Mrs. A. E. Fisher, in Boalsburg. Mr. Fisher is engaged in the manufacture of bricks, being connected with a company doing manufacturing on a large scale. He is also a director in Danville's most substantial National Bank.

Since the filing of a statement in the U. S. Federal Court at Scranton by Cashier Shugarts and his request to compel similar statements by the remaining stockholders of the defunct Centre County bank, there have been no further developments. The court, up to Tuesday night, had taken no action on the Shugarts petition.

Miss Ruth Bingman, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Bingman, of Centre Hall, was operated on for appendicitis in the Bellefonte hospital last week. Her condition was found to be exceedingly bad upon examination by the operating surgeon. Reports coming from the hospital at this time are encouraging for her recovery.

Rev. M. C. Drumm, pastor of the Penns Valley Lutheran charge, on Friday evening was taken to Lewistown by Merchant C. M. Smith, and from there went by train to Columbus, Ohio, to hold services the following Sunday. His appointments on his field were filled by Rev. Stover, of Aaronsburg, a retired Lutheran minister.

Friends and relatives from out of town who attended the funeral of R. D. Foreman, on Saturday, were these: Maurice P. Breen and son, Newport News, Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Foreman and son Jay, State College; Mr. and Mrs. David R. Foreman, son and daughter, Paul and Lois, Bellefonte; John F. Foreman, Cresson; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond, Sumbury.

A company is about to be formed by H. E. Shadle, the West Virginia lumberman, to take over an exceptionally valuable tract of timber in that state at something like $75,000, that bids fair for large profits when cut into lumber. Among the local men interested in the deal is W. F. Bradford, who has been associated with Mr. Shadle in the lumber business for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Long and five children, of Washington, D. C., arrived in Centre Hall, last week, making the trip in a car. Mr. Long, who has long held a position in the patent office in the national capital, returned to work on Monday, while Mrs. Long and the children will remain here for several weeks with grandpa and grandma. Mr. and Mrs. D. Geisse Wagner, and other relatives and friends.

After holding a clerkship in the county Recorder's office for a period of about ten years, W. C. Armstrong resigned his duties a few days ago. He first entered the office under W. H. Brown, the present recorder. Mr. Armstrong has been exceptionally efficient and a courteous clerk, making his voluntary retirement a matter of general regret among the many persons who find business to transact at the office of the recorder.

off pitcher Hosterman, who was then replaced by Stover, a rather snappy pitcher, who held his opponents down to good playing, although was hit pretty hard on several occasions. A swat into the timothy patch helped the visitors to swell their score. Some of the sure hitters off Keller, at Boalsburg, failed to connect with the Stover shoots. The game was fairly interesting after the first two innings, a triple play by the visitors being a feature.

GUM-DIPPED CORDS -and Their High Mileage Records

The high mileage records of Firestone Cords continue to emphasize the fact that Firestone methods are different and better. These records, steadily increasing in number and in mileage totals, justify the Firestone contention that there is one best way to build tires.

Among the primary sources of Firestone extra mileage is double gum-dipping—the saturation of the cord plies in a vat of liquid gum—thus coating each cord and virtually eliminating internal heat and friction.

Another is Firestone air bag curing, with its 200 pound pressure, which places every cord accurately and equalizes the tension.

By blending the rubbers of different plantations, and types, and by tempering it before mixing, Firestone men add still more mileage.

Many cord tires are good—a few are better—Firestone users say one is best.

Those who have already experienced Firestone mileage, have stopped shopping and experimenting—they have made these cords standard equipment. Investigate your friends' success with Firestone Cords—and buy your next tire accordingly. Come in and get your share of extra mileage.
