...DEATH RECORD.

NOLL. James Lee Noll, son of W. H. Noll, of Pleasant Gap, died suddenly at his home in Roanoke, Illinois, on July 10th, of heart disease, aged 33 years. He left Pleasant Gap twenty years ago for Valparaiso, Ind., where he completed a commercial course in the university at that place. For five years he was bookkeeper for the Gary Steel Corporation, and later became salesman for the Roanoke Coal company, which position he held at the time of his death. Five years ago he married Miss Iva Bryant, an Illinois lady, who survives with no children. Burial was made at Roanoke, Ill., on Friday, and the funeral was said to have been one of the largest ever held in that place.

WOODWARD. Col. John A. Woodward, one of the most widely known of Howard's citizens, died at his home after an illness of about one year. He had been a patient in the Bellefonte hospital but returned to his home about two weeks prior to his death. Mr. Woodward was past 81 years of age and had remarkable health and vigor until recently. He married the oldest daughter of Ex-Governor Packard and to them three children were born: William, who died last July; Miss Harriet, at home; and Charles A., in Philadelphia. Two sisters survive: Miss M. Dewing, of Miami, Florida, and Miss Mary F., of Williamsport. Funeral services were held last Friday morning and burial was made in Williamsport.

Entaw House Register.

D. S. Peachy, L. R. Strop, Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Yeager, Johnstown; Mrs. Charles T. Manning, John D. S. Manning, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Laura Lee, Mrs. Minnie Richard, Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Braucht, Fairfax, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Marquardt and baby, P. A. Daniels, State College; Howard Leeper and family, C. H. Price, wife and son, Burnham; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Stoughton, Williamsport; Mrs. (Dr.) Cregar and son John, Plainfield, N. J.; Mrs. Henry Meyer, Lewisburg; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hill, Scranton; Capt. Moore, Harrisburg; O. T. Betsch, Harrisburg; John Monsell, Mifflin county.

Plenle for Benefit Bellefonte Hospital. Citizens in Bellefonte are undertaking something entirely new to provide needed funds for the hospital. They will have an old-fashioned county picnic at Hecla Park on July 27. Committees have been named and are at work on arrangements and entertainment.

All towns in Centre county and all persons who have any interest in the hospital are urged to go to Hecla Park on this day and enjoy the occasion. There will be eats for sale but those who desire to take baskets with them may do so. Entertainment includes dancing, ball games, races, paddle wheels, stands, novelties, flappers events, boating, bathing, and a general good time meeting old friends.

A war claim payment of a sum equal to $12,000,000 in American money was paid a few days ago by Germany to France.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Prof. and Mrs. W. Vernon Godshall and family, who had been located in Madison, Wisconsin, are now in their summer home in Centre Hall.

Richard Brooks, farmer west of Centre Hall, had the misfortune to fall from a load of hay a few days ago and sustained several fractured ribs.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bradford, of Pittsburg, have been among friends in and about Centre Hall during the past week. Mr. Bradford is a plaster contractor and is getting along fine.

Mrs. A. R. Burkholder, daughter Margaret, and niece Beulah Person, of Phillipsburg, New Jersey, arrived in Centre Hall on Friday for a short visit at the Mrs. M. E. Strohm home. Mr. Burkholder is expected to arrive within a few days.

Mrs. H. F. Grove returned from the Geisinger hospital at Danville, last Thursday, where she underwent an operation for the removal of a goiter. She is much improved in health, which is gratifying to her family as well as to her many friends.

William B. Shutt made his first appearance in Centre Hall, the latter part of last week, after an absence of fourteen years. The plant he is working in closed for a period and he took advantage of the opportunity to accompany his grandmother to the east from Wellington, Ohio.

Corn in Penns. Brush and Nitany valleys never looked better at this time of the year. Many fields are beginning to show tassels and not a few are in full tassel. The potato crop in the same districts also look promising, there being no signs of the dreaded potato-blight visible as yet.

Some of the bus drivers running between Bellefonte and State College are pronounced road hogs. It is said some are this type of hog, because the driver has definite evidence, while it might be true that they are all road hogs. It would appear that one driving a vehicle of this character over the public roads continuously ought to be at least half square.

Last week Mrs. D. A. Booser and son Shannon Booser started on a trip to Chicago, where they will be guests of Ralph C. Booser. Later Mr. Booser left for the same city and will join his wife and sons. On Sunday L. L. Smith started for Detroit, Michigan, and there will meet Shannon Booser. The two gentlemen will drive Dodge cars home from that city.

Miss Ruth Bingham, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Bingham, who about three weeks ago underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Bellefonte hospital, without the use of an anesthetic, is improving nicely. Miss Ruth, who is but in the beginning of her teens, is standing up bravely and her many young friends are anxious for a speedy complete recovery.

The festival at Millheim, on Saturday, conducted by the GMA Fellows of that town, was attended by an immense crowd. Members of the organization and friends of it from all sections of Penns. and Brush valleys were there to lend their support. The young people especially enjoyed the occasion. The principal attraction of amusement was the music rendered by the I. O. O. F. Orphans' Home band, at Sunbury.

With the exception of the light rain fall on Monday night, farmers in the immediate vicinity of Centre Hall had an uninterrupted period of sunshine since the 6th inst., during which time great quantities of hay were made, wheat cut and garnered. The weather, although hot, was ideal for the season work. In some districts throughout the valley there was a heavy rain on Thursday of last week, and one or two light showers at other times during the period covered in the sentence above.

Judge Quigley is in Philadelphia investigating the "Izzie" Guisberg case. It appears Guisberg plead guilty to legal possession and sale of drugs and was sentenced by Judge Quigley, who was holding court for Judge John M. Patterson, to three years in the House of Correction. Two weeks ago Judge Quigley, on the recommendation of Judge Thompson, paroled Guisberg and since there have been charges by high officials reflecting in one way or another on the judges interested. To ascertain the truth or falsity of these charges is the mission of the Centre county Judge.

One of the most highly amusing incidents to take place on a ball field was witnessed by a few spectators during the game on Saturday between Centre Hall and the Silk mill teams on the Hughes field, Bellefonte, when the umpire, the coach of the Bellefonte Academy team, left his place back of the catcher to go midway to first base to resent a remark made by the second baseman of the visiting team. The chesty umpire expected his little man to evaporate, but instead he dodged the big man's thrust and they patted him on the jaw. And that wasn't all. He gave more punches than he took, and backed his man to beyond the catcher's position before a big friend got between. The scrap had the appearance of a contest between a bantam and a fattened dominique, the bantam going at it in the spirit of the colored gentleman's mule that "just didn't give a d—."

Elks' Kiddies' Day

The Bellefonte Lodge of Elks will hold its "Kiddies' Day Picnic" at Hecla Park, Thursday, August 10, where all children of Bellefonte and vicinity, between the ages of 6 and 14 years, will be entertained from 9 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Transportation has been arranged for and busses will leave the Diamond at 9 a. m., returning from the Park at 5 p. m. Ample facilities will be provided for the care and entertainment of the children, and parents need not hesitate in allowing their children to take advantage of this day's outing under the supervision of "The Big Brothers."

So that there may be no lack of sufficient provisions for transportation and entertainment of the kiddies, the committee requests that all children who expect to attend this picnic, register their names at the Elks Club on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 31, August 1 and 2. G. W. Reese will be in charge of the registration, and if not convenient to call in person, names may be sent by mail to Mr. Reese.

The famous I. O. O. F. band will be at the park all day and all kinds of amusements will be furnished the children, including an up to date vaudeville show, boating, swimming and athletic contests.

In conjunction with Kiddies' Day, will be held a basket picnic for Elks and their friends.

BOALSBURG.

Harry Ishler and wife entertained two auto loads of friends on Sunday—Frank Tharp, of Lemont, and S. D. Gettler, of Bellefonte. They all went to the mountain for supper.

Urson, out-door services on Sunday at 7:00 o'clock. All are invited.

Threshermen John Wright and Alvie Johnstonbaugh have started out with their machines and are now busy among the farmers.

Mrs. Shultz, of Millville, a little town near Danville, is keeping house for John Charles since the death of his wife.

Houses about town are being beautified with paint. Among them are those of William Brouse, Frank Ream, James Reed, William Stover, Nora Miller, Jacob Meyer and George E. Meyer.

Charles Cost, Mr. and Mrs. Close and son motored to Spring Mills Sunday and spent the day with John Meyers, the butcher.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

(From last week.)
On July 2nd our mutual friend and veteran mail carrier in his usual quiet way celebrated the 72nd milestone in life's journey at his home at Rock Springs where most of the family gathered to spend the day.

George C. Meyers spent a day in town on a business mission relating to the erection of a new sawmill near the ice plant at State College.

Ernest Johnson, who holds a good position with the state highway department, located at Philadelphia, spent a few days at his parental home here.

B. P. Homan and wife, of State College, started last week in their car for a cross-country tour to visit their two sons in Ohio, and expect to be gone a month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams motored to Centre Hall where they were callers at the home of the old Civil war veteran, William Tate.

Dr. Stork for the third time visited the Samuel A. Homan home, leaving a chubby little boy, on the 2nd inst.

Miss Ella Kellar and her mother are spending a month among relatives in Pittsburgh and Allegheny.

A fierce electric storm passed over this section Sunday, 2nd inst., badly washing fields and roads and carrying away small buildings and destroying gardens. The barn on the Ewing farm near Penna. Furnace was struck and burned to the ground. Forty tons of hay and some farm machinery were among the things consumed.

About the same time a bolt of lightning struck the brick house on the N. E. Hess farm on the Branch, passing down the chimney and through a bedroom, filling the house with ashes and sutt. The James Kellar barn was also struck but did not burn.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Mrs. Arthur Holderman and son George spent several days in Lewisburg last week.

Miss Anna Harter, of State College, spent Sunday with her brother, George Harter, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robb, of Altoona, and Miss Helen Robb, of Bellefonte, took supper at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Thomas Swartz.

Mrs. Carrie Palmer and children, of Potters Mills, spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. C. P. Ramer.
