

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Martha Yearick is employed at the Eutaw House, Potters Mills.

Mrs. W. P. Simpkins, who is now living in the heart of Philadelphia, is in Centre Hall among friends.

Miss Grace Smith began the enumeration of school children in the Centre Hall school district, a few days ago.

Postmaster R. M. Smith is further beautifying his home by having it painted. The work is being done by John M. Coldron.

Mrs. L. W. Ruble, who came here at the time of the death of her brother, H. C. Shirk, returned to her home in Cleveland, Ohio.

A Williamsport auto party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. Emily Stryken, Mr. Swartz and Miss Margaret Heller were callers at the Mrs. Margaret Smith home.

The Center Chapter of the Eastern Star will hold their annual picnic on Grange Park, Friday of this week. This organization has been growing in membership and has been prospering otherwise.

The three State forester surveyors who are working in the Seven Mountains on the reservation under the management of Ranger W. F. McKinney, are Capt. Moore, T. O. Bliesch, of Harrisburg, and John Monsell, of Millin county.

The Ford truck purchased recently by Clyde E. Dutrow is being used by his son, Claude, to haul milk for the Western Maryland Creamery company, Bellefonte. The territory covered at present is between Centre Hall and Linden Hall.

A Nash touring car was purchased by J. W. Raymond from the Wion agency in Bellefonte. It was a demonstration car used by Mr. Wion. The car was driven home by Fred Raymond, on Tuesday, and he thinks the old Ford a plaything compared to the critter.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hendrickson and baby daughter, Mrs. Carrie Horner, son Ralph Horner, and wife, formed an auto party which drove here from Youngsville to attend the Fleisher reunion in Potter township, on Saturday. They spent several days visiting relatives in the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger T. Bayard, of Tyrone, were brought to Centre Hall on Sunday by John D. Meyer to spend the day with the Mrs. Margaret Smith family. Mr. and Mrs. Bayard brought with them Marcella Newman, a little girl from the Scottdale Orphans' Home, who are giving her several weeks outing. The child was sent to them by Miss Carrie Bayard, a sister of Mr. Bayard, who is a matron at the home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCormick, of Columbia, South Carolina, arrived in Centre Hall a few days ago and are guests at the home of Mrs. McCormick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer. They made the trip in a Cunningham 8-cylinder touring car in remarkably good time notwithstanding the numerous miserable detours they were compelled to pass over. They will remain in the North for some little time. Yesterday (Wednesday) they went to Tyrone to visit John D. Meyer.

A car carrying a Nebraska license tag induced the writer to interview the occupants of the car, who proved to be Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Moyer, of Crawford, Nebraska. The couple went west about thirty-five years ago from the Milton section. Mr. Moyer is a garage man. They left home Monday a week, but were detained for a day or two in Indiana, where a horse mounted the radiator of the machine and did some slight damage. The country along the way, the tourists stated, looked prosperous. They were on their way to Milton to visit relatives.

There is more than the usual interest manifested in the approaching Penns Valley Lutheran charge picnic to be held in Georges Valley the last Saturday in this month. The Loysville Orphan band of forty-one pieces will be at the gathering and remain over for a concert that evening to be given to the front of the Vocational School building, at Spring Mills. This band is unusual other than being a boys' band. It is unusual for the high class music it renders and its perfection in rendering, due to the great effort of the instructor and response of the youths. A general invitation is extended to everyone to attend both the picnic and evening concert.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Stoughton, of Williamsport, Mrs. (Dr.) Cregar and son John, of Plainfield, New Jersey, and Mrs. Henry Meyer, of Lewisburg, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hill and daughter Miss Rebecca, are guests at the Eutaw House, Potters Mills. The former has a long acquaintance throughout Penns Valley, he having been the first passenger railway conductor to run on the local branch when the terminus was Spring Mills, and later became supervisor of the branch. Today he is on the retired list. The three ladies—Mrs. Cregar, Mrs. Meyer and Mrs. Hill—are his daughters. The latter's husband is a son of former County Superintendent Henry Meyer, of Rebersburg, and now holds a professorship at Bucknell, Lewisburg.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Evangelist Adena E. Behrent will be at Colyer to-night (Thursday). Go to hear her.

Rev. Fred Crossland, of Snydertown, with his wife and son, are spending a few days with Rev. M. C. Drumm.

The Fleisher family reunion was held on Saturday at Fruittown, Potter township. A number of people from a distance were in attendance.

We all want the laws enforced, but the only reason they are not is because the most of us are afraid of our own skins.

Mrs. L. W. S. Person and Mrs. Howard Shreever, of Trenton, N. J., were arrivals in Centre Hall on Tuesday. The latter part of this week Mr. Person and Mr. Shreever are expected here.

A movement is on foot to consolidate the State College Trust Company and the First National Bank, in that place. Combined the institution would have a capital stock of $125,000 and a surplus of the same amount.

The State College High School Scholarship, awarded annually to a member of the graduating class of the High school, has this year been awarded to Miles Hubler, son of Jeff Hubler. The scholarship is for a term of four years.

A. C. Boyer, ticket agent at Sunbury, was a pleasing caller at this office last Wednesday. He and Mrs. Boyer visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee, at Centre Hill, and her sister, Mrs. J. C. Goodhart, in Centre Hall.

Messrs. H. Muth and J. J. Ritter, of New York City, are thoroughly enjoying a vacation in the country, and are guests of the former's niece, Mrs. W. W. Kerlin, in Centre Hall. Both gentlemen are engaged in the butcher business in New York City.

All the former pastors of the Penns Valley Lutheran charge have been invited to attend the picnic of the charge to be held the last Saturday in this month in Georges Valley. Word has been received that Dr. W. E. Fischer, Shamokin; Rev. J. M. Rensick, Elk Lick; and Rev. B. F. Bieber, of Muncy, would be present.

While at Penns Cave a few days ago the writer had the pleasure to meet John Phillips, president of the First National Bank of Huntingdon, who was at the cavern with a party of friends. Mr. Phillips is quite reserved in speaking of business with which he is personally interested, but from the Huntingdon Monitor it is learned that his bank carries deposits in the sum of $2,000,000, a surplus of $450,000, and just voted to add $50,000 to the surplus fund. The bank is preparing to erect a new home devoted exclusively to banking business, the cost of which will be approximately $75,000.

Charter for New Bank.

Several weeks ago the Reporter gave an account of the fact that State College citizens were about to establish a second National bank at that place and that a charter had been applied for. Just a few days ago the applicants received notice that their request would be granted and that they could proceed accordingly. The bank will be known as the Peoples' National Bank.

The application for the charter was signed by Frank Armstrong, Williamsburg; David Meek, B. F. Homan, W. H. Baird, Harry Behrer, Howard Musser, Dr. J. V. Foster, Dr. P. H. Dale, Marion Meyer, Harry Sowers, Lynn Daugherty, Martin H. Knutsen, of State College, and A. J. Hazel, Boalsburg.

It is understood that David Meek, who has had considerable banking experience, will be the cashier of the institution. No other officers have yet been named. The program for the taking over of the Meek block, announced in the Reporter some time ago, is to go through.

The new postmaster at Reedsville will be James Young, his appointment having been recommended. The office is the same grade as that of Centre Hall. Messrs. Len Shilling, Clyde Ramer and Mrs. Jack Rhinehart were also applicants for the position.

Six Lambs Stolen.

Six lambs were stolen from a flock of sheep belonging to Wallace Igen, east of Centre Hall, a few nights ago. Mrs. Igen was awakened by some one racing the sheep and a car standing nearby. During the time she spent in awakening Mr. Igen the man or men and car disappeared, going down the road from the buildings. Next morning six lambs were missing and it is presumed they were carried off in the car.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Arney, of Millinburg, were guests of Mr. Arney's parents in Centre Hall, over Sunday. The couple had just been married and made their first trip to Centre Hall. They are planning to begin housekeeping within a few weeks.

As a friendly warning to the boys about town, the Reporter makes the statement that it is high time to entirely cut out the gambling on the sidewalks and door steps. There will be no argument on this question in the future. You have had your warning.

Frank Minnick, of Clearfield, is a mong friends in Centre Hall. He was a boy here when Centre Hall was in its infancy and with his parents lived where the P. M. Fisher residence is now located. The elder Minnick conducted a refreshment stand, selling soft drinks, made on the place, and cake.

We are to have the big show in Philadelphia in 1926, the idea of postponing it to 1927 having been dropped. Edward W. Bok has been named as president of the Sesquicentennial association.
