

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Ephraim Harter, of near Tusseyville, is said to be very ill.

This is the third day of August. Summer is well spent.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Spyrer, in Centre Hall, early Tuesday morning.

Mrs. R. R. Finkle, of Millburg, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Emery, in Centre Hall.

Dr. H. H. Longwell purchased a radiophone and is having it installed at his home in Centre Hall. It is the first to be placed in Centre Hall proper.

J. H. Rishel, president of the Spring Mills First National Bank, a hopeful, prosperous business man, was in Centre Hall on Tuesday, and favored the Reporter with his presence.

Mrs. William H. Baird, of State College, is on a two weeks' visit with her son, Prof. L. E. Baird, who is supervising principal of the New Albany, Bradford county, public schools.

Paul Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Smith, will leave on Sunday for Elberston, which is near Philadelphia, where he will visit his aunt, Mrs. C. Shellenberger. He expects to be gone about two weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. Moody and little daughter, of Benton, Columbia county, came to Centre Hall Monday, and for a day were guests of S. P. Henrich, an uncle of Mrs. Moody. On Tuesday they went to Lemont where they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Glenn.

Mrs. Samuel Baney, now of near Thompston, who underwent an operation in a Harrisburg hospital some time ago, has almost completely recovered. Mr. and Mrs. Baney are now living in Juniata county because of the fact that Mr. Baney is on a lumber job there. Their home is north of Penn Hall.

So few people were on hand Saturday evening at the Grange hall to hear Warner R. Gault, Keith vaudeville $299-a-week tenor, in his song recital, that it was decided not to give the entertainment. When it was attempted to ascertain the cause for the light turnout it was discovered that four festivals and a band concert within a short radius were occupying the attention of many people.

Thursday of next week the Elks will hold their annual picnic on Hecla Park. At this time they will entertain several hundred "kiddies," ranging in age from six to fourteen years, who registered at the Elks club at the time announced for this work in a former issue of the Reporter. The occasion will be participated in by several "kiddies" from Centre Hall and no doubt other sections in Penns Valley.

Jasper Wagner, son Ted R. Wagner, and Charles Bartsch, all of Spring Mills, were callers at this office Friday evening, having come to town to attend installation of officers in the K. G. E. The younger Mr. Wagner is a substitute railway mail clerk, running from Pittsburgh to New York, and is at present employed on a call. Within a few months he will likely become a "regular," having passed a number of examinations with credit to himself.

George Reiber will leave on Thursday morning for Akron, Ohio, where he has accepted a position as bookkeeper with the Firestone Tire Company. George is a graduate of Centre Hall High school, class of 1922, and since the close of school has been giving his spare time to the study of bookkeeping through a correspondence course. He is to be commended for his efforts toward self-improvement and his friends wish him much success.

Thursday of last week Mrs. W. F. Keller, of Centre Hall, was accompanied to a private sanatorium at Devon, a suburb of Philadelphia, by her husband. She will be under the care in the Wheeler institution of Dr. M. A. Burns, a nerve specialist. Dr. Burns has been associated with Dr. Durcum, the nerve specialist who attended President Wilson when he gave way after returning from the World conference. Mrs. Keller's many friends here are quite hopeful that she will be much benefited by the treatment she is undergoing at this time.

Dr. W. E. Fischer was among friends in Centre Hall and surrounding community from Saturday until Wednesday, on which latter day he went to Weikert where a troop of Lutheran Shamokin Boy Scouts are camping, to take dinner with them. He gave the many friends of the Fischer family the glad news that Mrs. Fischer is very much improved physically and is about back to her normal self. She is now at the seashore with her daughter (Marion) Mrs. Keen, Missionary to China, who with Dr. Keen and their son and little daughter will again all for their mission field in China the beginning of September.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The trout season ended with July.

The Potter township school board asks for bids for transporting school children on two routes.

Miss Mary Lytle, of State College, visited Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Krape, in Centre Hall, for a few days.

Byron Garis and sons William and Herbert are employed at State College. Byron thinks he will soon be a graduate.

A barn owned by a Mr. Hoy, in Bald Eagle valley, was struck by lightning and burned during an electrical storm Tuesday evening.

Prof. N. L. Bartges and Thomas L. Moore, on Friday, will finish the six weeks' summer session for teachers at Pennsylvania State College. They have been going back and forth daily in Mr. Bartges' car.

Samuel Shoop has his bungalow well under way; in fact, he is ready for the plasterers. It is a one-floor house, most conveniently arranged and will make a delightful place in which to live. It is the style of house that ought to be more generally adopted locally.

Miss Ruth Bingman, daughter of Rev. J. F. Bingman, who spent a little over five weeks in the Bellefonte hospital, returned to her home in Centre Hall a few days ago. She was operated on for appendicitis and is now able to walk out and is recovering strength rapidly.

From the Muncy correspondent to the Williamsport Sun: Rev. B. F. Bieber, pastor of the Lutheran church, and his family will enjoy their vacation during this month. They will attend the Chautauqua at Lewisburg this week and visit their relatives at Milton and vicinity part of the time.

J. M. Kilne, of Beavertown, who advertises public sale of his saw mill equipment, in Decker Valley, east of the State Forestry House, in Seven Mountains, on Saturday, August 12th, has engaged the Beavertown band to be present and furnish music. This is an innovation in the holding of public sales and will doubtless help to swell the crowd.

Aaron Harter attended the Penns Valley Lutheran charge picnic, it being his first visit to the valley in several years. Mr. Harter was a resident of Centre Hall for a number of years, but for a long time has been located in Harrisburg, first being employed in the city electric light plant. He is now chief in the light plant in the capitol building.

Ammon R. Burkholder, of Phillipsburg, N. J., was in Centre Hall from Sunday until Wednesday. He is a Penns conductor, running from Philadelphia to Stroudsburg, and he found it no easy matter to have granted him at this time the few days vacation he enjoyed with relatives and friends in Centre Hall. He was accompanied home Wednesday morning by Mrs. Burkholder and their daughter.

One morning last week when farmer Harry Musser, near Penns Cave, went to his barn he discovered one of his horses was missing. He was in great need of the animal on that day and set to telephoning and scouting the country with an auto, but could find no trace of the animal. At noon William Weaver, who lives about two miles distant, called over the wire to make inquiry whether Mr. Musser was shy a horse, and upon being told he was the neighbor said the animal was lying at a pair of bars dead. The animal was subject to colic and it is presumed that while suffering from an attack of it he tore loose and wandered away, the result being as noted above.

Notice.

I have purchased the grain house of the late R. D. Foreman, at Centre Hall Station, and am ready to do business. Grain, coal, feed, cement, etc., will be handled. Your patronage and good will is most earnestly solicited. I shall endeavor to treat you right at all times.

WILLIAM McCLENAHAN.

Bids Wanted.

The Potter Township School Board will receive bids up to and including August 15th, 1922, for the transporting of school children on the Egg Hill Route and also the "Loop" Route. Address all bids to Frank P. Floray, Secretary, Centre Hall, Pa., R. D. 1.

Rishel Reunion.

The annual Rishel reunion will be held on Brook Park, also known as the Union county fair grounds, on Wednesday, August 23. All the Rishel connections in Centre county are most cordially invited to attend.

LEGEND IN NEW CLOTHING

Story of Samson and Delilah as it Might Have Been, but Undoubtedly Was Not.

"Now, Sammy," began Delilah, coaxingly, as she advanced toward him with her hands behind her holding a pair of scissors. "Just look up that tree—see the little birdie?"

And she coquettishly displayed the gold fillings in her five front teeth. Samson could never refuse Delilah anything when she flashed all that gold on him.

Delilah gently took hold of a lock of Samson's hair with her left hand, but before she could snip it off with her right, there was a thunderous knock on the door.

"Twas a man on horseback. 'Away! Away!' cried this ancient Paul Revere. 'The flood is coming down Mount Dingus. Flee thee hence!'"

"Oh, Sammy!" wailed Delilah, dropping the scissors. "And I just paid off the mortgage on the house this very week. Now all that money is wasted. Oh, Sammy!"

Samson thought hard for a moment. Then Delilah flashed her teeth once more.

"Up! Go up in the attic!" commanded Samson. Then he planted a kiss on Delilah's eyebrow and she flew.

Samson dashed out the door and lifted up the house in both hands and tied the doghouse around his neck.

And thus stood he, with Delilah high and dry, while the flood rushed down Mount Dingus and by.

"Gosh!" said Delilah to herself, after it was all over. "I'm glad I didn't cut his hair off before the flood!"—Detroit Free Press.

FREEDOM MUST BE BOUGHT

And the Price to Be Paid is Complete Mastery of All Passions and Appetites.

Freedom is not a gift, but an attainment. It does not characterize the state of nature, but flows from the growth of personality and civilization.

Action issues from character, and there is inner discord and the feeling of restraint until the individual is happy and satisfied in his act and attitude.

A divided will marks incomplete personality, and it is not a free will. Every man must win his own freedom. He must desire it enough to pay its price, and its price is the mastery of passions and appetites.

As a man gains mastery over his own powers and desires he is free. Resolutions are good, because they witness to the sense of incomplete self-mastery and to the vision of greater self-control and freedom that are possible.—Minneapolis Journal.

Original Galoshes.
The fashionable galoshes that are now fapping about the ankles of pretty girls were first introduced in America about 1830 in Boston. The galoshes or boots were as ugly and clumsy as they are today, but were even more popular. They required peculiar care, as the manufacturers had little knowledge of the use of rubber gum.

In winter they froze hard and stiff, and had to be thawed out before they could be worn, and care had to be taken not to thaw them too well, or they would run into a sticky mass. In the summer they got sticky and shapeless unless kept on ice and taken out during a rain-storm only. No one who was anyone thought his or her toilet complete without a pair. They had to be watched carefully, for once they started to rot the smell was terrible, and it was necessary to take them out and bury them.

Plan War on Hair Seals.
Hunting hair seals by airplane and destroying them by machine-gun fire has been seriously proposed to the Canadian fisheries department by fishermen, says a report from Vancouver, B. C. The scheme proposed and tried last spring of trapping the salmon-destroying hair seals at the mouth of the Fraser river by means of set lines and short laterals armed with strong hooks brought a measure of success, but was not entirely a victory, over the wise mammalia of the ocean. The new proposal is to come down on them from the unsuspected heights, as they bark on the sandbars in thousands, and pour a stream of bullets into them.

Unable to Choose National Tree.
American foresters are so rich with infinite variety that President Wilson is unable to name a choice for a national tree, he wrote to the American Forestry association, which is compiling a national referendum as to what tree best represents America. "Speaking for myself," said the President, "I find that I am quite unable to choose amongst the infinite variety and richness of American forests."

ELISHA KENT KANE.
For Congress—23rd District.

Intending to run for Congress this Fall, I make this preliminary greeting: I hope you will inquire about me and find that I am qualified to serve. I am not a lawyer nor a minister, but I know law and gospel. I am not a laborer; but, living among them, I know their problems. My success in forty active years as an engineer, producer, lumberman, merchant, manufacturer and railroad has been due to that knowledge.

My party is small; but in Pennsylvania it has grown five times as fast as the others. 375 per cent in 10 years. It has no newspaper, and I must economize hired space. By agitation it secured its first two issues, Prohibition and Woman's Rights. Its program now includes International and Industrial Peace based on justice, and Protection for Home, Mother and Children.

I FAVOR—

- The Volstead Act.
- Peace with All the World.
- Less Armies, Navies and Taxes.
- Working People's Rights Protected by Law and by Elected Courts.
- Aid for Mothers and Children at Home.
- Government Work for Hard Times.
- Mining made a Public Utility in Interstate Commerce.

Send self-addressed envelope with inquiry as to my position on any of these issues. Reply will be prompt, clear and trustworthy.

If elected, I shall be free to act independent of any caucus, party or boss. No special interest will control me. I hope thus to be more influential in securing moderate, progressive and permanent legislation than if I belonged to either of the contending parties. I aim to work harmoniously with both Republicans and Democrats. I'm tired of having our public business held up by their perpetual scrapping: Aren't you?

Tomato Green Olive Rice

This is an inexpensive but delicious delicacy originating in the middle west. It is well worth trying out and repeating frequently. The food value is high.

Put one-half cup rice on to boil. Make a tomato sauce as follows: 2 tbsp. butter, 2 tbsp. flour, 1 tsp. sugar, 1 cup strained tomato juice or tomato pulp. Melt butter; add flour, then to-mato pulp and sugar. Boil two or three minutes, stirring constantly. Then grate one-half cup cheese. Cut one-half cup Spanish green olives into slices. When rice is cooked, drain it. Put into a serving dish. Pour over it the hot tomato sauce and sprinkle the grated cheese and sliced green olives over the top. Serve.
