Community Picnic.

Fair skies smiled upon a big gathering at the annual community picnic on Grange Park on Saturday. The crowd came early and remained until late. The Siglerville band was present and rendered several delightful concerts.

Speakers for the occasion were Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick and Rev. F. W. Barry, the latter of Baltimore, Md.

Races and contests by the younger folks were engaged in for a hour preceding the noon time. The events and the winners are here given. In each instance the winner received a prize.

100-yard dash, for boys 12 to 15 years—Paul Lingle.

50-yard dash, for girls 12 to 16 years—Edith Long.

50-yard dash, for boys 5 to 8 years—Philip Smith.

Barn Burned.

Last week brief mention was made in the Reporter of the burning of the Hoy barn in Bald Eagle Valley. The barn was struck by lightning. The tenant on the place was Luther Brobeck, who moved there when he left the Ross place east of Centre Hall. He managed to save all his stock and some of his farm implements, but all of this year's crops of hay and wheat were burned. The oats were not yet in the barn. The Misses Hoy carried $2000 insurance on the barn but none on the crops. So far as could be learned Mr. Brobeck had no insurance on his implements. Just about two years ago the house on the same farm was burned to the ground as the result of a stroke of lightning.

To My Customers:

It is rather warm to talk of taking orders for winter hosiery, but I will be with you next week—beginning August 14—and will have samples of light weight and heavy; also silk and wool, for all members of the family.

Very truly yours,
MRS. C. E. ROYER.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Beginning of this week, C. M. Smith was on a business trip to Stroudsburg.

Lost—Overland auto car crank, between Boalsburg and Centre Hall. Finder will please notify C. S. Musser, Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Lucas and little daughter, of Lewistown, were guests of relatives and friends for a few days last week.

Miss Nancy McWilliams, clerk in the local First National Bank, and Miss Elizabeth Goheen, of Pennsylvania Furnace, Wednesday afternoon drove to Mexico, Pa., where they will visit Mrs. H. Leigh Ebricht for several days at her cottage at Island Grove Park.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of Mrs. R. P. Campbell, Penns Cave, Saturday at 5 o'clock p. m. Each member is earnestly requested to take a box lunch; also those with autos to take a member who could not attend otherwise.—Secretary.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Stuart Runkle, of Philadelphia, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters on the doctor's farm, tenanted by his brother, John H. Runkle, east of Centre Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Runkle enjoy their vacation in the country very much and are never ready to return until professional duties present insistent demands.

"Col." Bob S. Seeds, the lecturer, died at his home in Tyroffe. He was on the platform for over twenty years, and will be recalled by many of the readers as one of the farmers' institute lecturers some years ago. He was born at Water Street, and began life as an implement dealer; later he took up farming and then lecturing. He was aged seventy years.

A Ford sedan was recently purchased by J. Roy Schaeffer and is now being driven by him. Mr. Schaeffer last spring purchased the John Kuhn property, at Old Fort, and since moving there has very much improved it. He is now building a large storage house, the frame work being up. He is giving practically all his time to huckstering to the Lewistown district.

Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick and family have returned from a trip to Shirleysburg, Three Springs, Spring Run, Dry Run, Chambersburg, Gettysburg, Lancaster, Philadelphia, Ocean Grove, Princeton, Trenton, and Asbury Park. D. Lacey Kirkpatrick, of Philadelphia, was one of the group on the trip as far as Philadelphia where she remained to take up her work as teacher in Girard College.

Misses Edna and Eva Bailey, who were spending their vacation at their home in Centre Hall, motored with their uncle, Arthur Kline, and family, to Altoona, Sunday. They also spent a few days with their uncle, Paul Bailey, at Martinsburg, and William Neal's family at Hoffdaysburg. From there they will go to Pittsburgh to attend a three weeks Bible conference at the Bible Institute.

The Men's Organized Bible Class of the Lutheran Sunday-school held its monthly meeting on Tuesday evening. The evening was most delightfully and profitably spent. Rev. F. W. Barry, a former pastor, made an address characteristic of him. Every sentence he spoke had a thought in it that could be generally applied to everyday life. Wm. Houtz, of Sunbury, who was a guest, as were also E. M. Huyett and A. W. Alexander, made brief and fitting remarks. A 100 per cent. meeting is booked for next month.

The large barn belonging to the estate of the late Col. D. B. Jenkins, along the east bank of the Juniata river, at Lewistown, was destroyed by fire a short time ago. The loss was about $20,000, with little insurance. Fifteen hundred bushels of wheat, 1921 crop, burned. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Rishel Reunion.

The annual Rishel reunion will be held on Brook Park, also known as the Union county fair grounds, on Wednesday, August 23. All the Rishel connections in Centre county are most cordially invited to attend.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

MARKEL.—After an illness of many weeks Miss Mary Markel passed away last Saturday of disease incident to old age, she being 75 years old. For more than forty years she lived with the L. Mothersbaugh family at Boalsburg. She was a grand old lady and devoted her life in the interest of others. She was a member of the Reformed church and was faithful to the end. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning, and burial made in the Boalsburg cemetery, Rev. S. C. Stover officiating.

Mrs. Christ Houtz is suffering an attack of flu.

Miss Alice Magoffin, of Boalsburg, is spending a week at the home of her brother, Dr. G. H. Woods, in town.

Prof. S. C. Miller and family, of Chester, are spending their vacation on the home farm where the professor is superintending some repairing.

Boyd Osman and wife, of Philadelphia, are visiting Centre county relatives and a few days ago were royally entertained at the Frank Osman home near Centre Hall where a family reunion was held.

Dr. Stork visited the George Rudy home at White Hall, Friday evening, leaving a baby girl, No. 19 of that family; also a bright little daughter at the S. M. Hess home, which carries the name of Phyllis Emaline.

On Monday evening the barn of Wm. H. Knarr on Eden Hill was struck by lightning and burned to the ground, together with all the seasons' crops. One horse was struck and killed, and the blaze quickly spread over the entire building. He carried $2,000 insurance.

BOALSBURG.

The open air service on Sunday evening was well attended. Services again in two weeks; Rev. Kirkpatrick will preach.

Mrs. O. F. Smith and children returned home Friday from a six weeks' visit with Mrs. Smith's parents in Maine.

Mrs. Jacob Meyer had the pleasure of having with her her cousin, Mrs. Wise, of Texas, and her aunt, Mrs. Geary, from Centre Hall, a few days last week.

The life of Miss Mary Markel passed into the beyond on Saturday noon. She had her home with L. Mothersbaugh for thirty-six years and was as one of the family. She had been in poor health for several years but was confined to bed for only a few weeks. She was past 75 years of age.

Charles Segner and family extended invitations to a number of their associates to an evening picnic at Camp Boal on Saturday evening. At 6 o'clock the baskets were opened and the good things were spread on a large table and after being well arranged by the ladies the call for supper was sounded. Seventy-five persons surrounded the table and enjoyed the feast.

George N. Fisher gave a grand surprise to his wife on Thursday evening, on the occasion of her birthday anniversary. While Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher and others, making an auto load, were taking in the movies at State College, neighbors and friends gathered at the Fisher home to the number of 115. When the auto party returned, Mrs. Fisher was forced to confess that she knew nothing of it. The evening was spent in a social way and refreshments were served. Mrs. Fisher received many nice presents.
