Keller-Clann.

At noon Wednesday the marriage of James A. Keller, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Keller, of Centre Hall, and Miss Elizabeth Clann, of Lancaster, was solemnized at the home of the bride. No further details are known. The groom, who is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College, has been elected principal of the Bethel school, near Reading. Last year he taught at Rebersburg. The bride is also a school teacher.

Clover Club Takes Outing.

The Clover Club, an organization of ladies, took an outing Tuesday afternoon and evening at "Hairy John's," in the Penns Valley Narrows, below Woodward. Members and guests numbered fifty-five as all were seated at a long table laden with a great variety of choice foods prepared especially for the occasion, ham and eggs being the substantial. The time before and after the supper was given to playing various games. The guests, and there were many of them, were entertained most royally.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Ephraim Harter, who had been quite ill for several weeks and confined to bed, is now able to be up a part of the time.

Dr. H. A. Surface, who was counted out as a candidate for State Senator by the Snyder county Republicans, will be an independent candidate.

Dorothy Odenkirk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Odenkirk, from Friday to Tuesday was a guest of Miss Verna Cooke, at Glen Iron.

The local baseball team goes to State College on Saturday to attempt to retrieve the lost game on the local diamond a short time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Spyer and family motored to Huntingdon, last week, where they are spending some time at the home of Mrs. Spyer's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lingle on Wednesday moved into their new house, construction of which was begun last spring. The new home is an exceptionally pretty one on the exterior and most conveniently arranged and prettily decorated on the interior.

Mrs. James Decker and daughter, Miss Dorothy, of Philadelphia, are at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. John S. Auman, at Centre Hall, and will remain until the latter and family move to Philadelphia, which will be about the first of September.

On Friday C. A. Krape and Jay Riden, of Spring Mills, and Helen Odenkirk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Odenkirk, of Centre Hall, drove to Selinsgrove. Returning on Saturday they brought with them Miss Delia Morris, who attended the summer school at Susquehanna University.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Mrs. Bessie Dunap, who had been ill, is now convalescing.
Col. J. R. Lemon, who recently suffered a partial stroke of paralysis, is convalescing nicely.

Miss Anna Mary Thompson, who is holding down a clerical position at Penn State, spent Sunday at home.
Mrs. Ella Carl accompanied her little daughter Esther to Harrisburg for medical treatment.

Prof. A. L. Bowersox, wife and two daughters visited relatives in Snyder county last week.

Will Kuhn, formerly of Shingletown, has tired of Dixieland and will take up his abode at Boalsburg for the winter.
George W. Rossman, of Rock Springs on Saturday evening submitted to a second surgical operation at his home and is in a critical condition.

Thomas Glenn was taken to the Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia, last week; thus far he has not undergone an operation.

The venerable Daniel I. Johnson, about 85 years of age, suffered a paralytic stroke Sunday morning at his home at Pine Hall and is seriously ill.

Jacob Keplar and chum, Ed. Davis, of Johnstown, motored over Saturday for the picnic, and on their return on Sunday took with them Mrs. J. W. Keplar.

Col. Isaiah Buck, a Civil War veteran, who had been in the Altoona hospital for treatment, returned to his home last week very much improved.

While watching a ball game on the Baileyville field recently, John Martin, a World War veteran, was hit by a ball and is now a patient in the Bellefonte hospital. Latest reports say he is getting along nicely.

Elliott Ward and wife, of Washington, Ed. Bowersox and wife, of Philadelphia, Samuel Boop of Lock Haven, John M. Ward and wife, of Akron, O., were among the picnickers at Baileyville Saturday.

Saturday all roads led to Baileyville picnic grounds. Although the weather looked threatening in the early morning hours Old Sol finally peeped out and by noon the usual happy crowd assembled on the old site. The a. m. hours were spent greeting old friends and making new ones who came from all quarters to witness the ball game between Baileyville and Fairbrook, which resulted in a score of 5 to 4 in favor of the former. It was past 12 when dinner was called; acres of good eats were spread under the towering oaks; all enjoyed the feast of good things; the choicest the farm and market could produce. It was 2 o'clock when the Pine Grove and Baileyville teams crossed bats. The closing score found Pine Grove Mills a winner by the score of 14 to 4.

Attention—Veterans' Rally.

Once again, on Grange Park, the 49th annual reunion of the Centre County Veterans' Club association will be held in conjunction with the Encampment and Fair, on Wednesday, September 6th, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the auditorium. The Citizen's band of Ferguson township will furnish music. Prominent speakers will address the meeting. All veterans, including those of the World War, are invited to be present. All soldiers will be admitted to the grounds free of charge on that day. The public is cordially invited to join with the boys who wore the blue from 1861-65, and whose ranks are depleting rapidly.

W. H. Fry, Sec'y. Samuel B. Miller, President.

BOALSBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyer were at Pleasant Gap with their daughter, Mrs. Lee Brooks, over Sunday.

Peter Weber and wife, of Huntingdon, came to town Saturday and will spend ten days among relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Heath and son and daughter, of Sandy Ridge, were the guests of M. W. Goheen Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Heath was before marriage Kate Wilson.

The Sunday-schools of Boalsburg will hold a community picnic on Wednesday, August 30, in McFarlane's grove. This picnic is for all and all are urged to attend and enjoy a day together. Free coffee and lemonade on the ground. Amusements for the day will be band music, baseball, races and contests of various kinds.

On Wednesday of last week Wm. H. Stuart's farm house was totally destroyed by fire. About 10:30 o'clock, a young lady drove by the house and saw fire at the rear. She told the family their house was afire. Only the women folks were at home, but the lady at once made the alarm in town and soon help was on the scene but too late to save the house or get anything out; all the furniture and clothing burned. The other buildings about the place were saved by the use of the garden hose and buckets of water carried from the spring nearby. Mr. Stuart carried insurance of about $1600. The house will be rebuilt at once. Friends of the family gave them a shower to replace some household necessities on Monday evening.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Mrs. William Rockey returned home Saturday after spending several days with her son in Altoona.

Joseph Ramer spent two weeks with his aunt, Mrs. Robert Brock, in Jersey Shore.

John Botort and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brock, of Jersey Shore, spent the week end among friends and were accompanied home by Mrs. C. P. Ramer and son Charles.

A dinner was given last Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Heckman in honor of Mrs. Heckman's grandmother, Mrs. Maria Wagner, who attained the age of 84 years. All her children and their families were present.

E. T. Jordan and family returned home Thursday evening after spending about four weeks in the west, visiting relatives and friends in Michigan, Illinois and Iowa. The rest of the party will remain for several weeks on account of John Jordan's illness, who was improving rapidly when they left. A report of the trip will appear next week.

THIS WEEK

is the best time to arrange for your Safe Deposit Box at this bank. Place your deeds, fire insurance policies, Liberty bonds, and other valuable papers in it and then you can enjoy a full week at the Grange Encampment without carrying them on your person with the constant fear of losing them, or the fear of fire or robbery if left at home. The cost of replacing a deed would be many times more than the small yearly rental charged for a box. Two size boxes—$1.50 and $2.50 a year.
