

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Grace Weaver, of Nittany, is visiting her friend, Edwina Jodon, west of Centre Hall, this week.

Mrs. Roy Dutrow, of Williamsport, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Spayd, in Centre Hall, and will remain for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Homan and children, of State College, are at the home of Mrs. Homan's mother, Mrs. Henry E. Homan, in Centre Hall.

Laura Bitner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bitner, of Youngstown, is at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bitner, at Tusseyville.

A new Ford coupe is being driven daily to and from Millheim by Miss Ethel Rowe, who holds a position in the Farmers' National Bank in that thriving town.

During a rain and wind storm one day last week, a portion of the roof and two ventilators on the barn belonging to Lloyd Smith, at Centre Hill, were blown off.

Mrs. J. S. Getchell and children, of Uniontown, and Mrs. Thomas Keefer and children, of Youngwood, are at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Brungart, in this place.

Claud K. Stahl, of Philadelphia, was a recent arrival at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Stahl. He is in the offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad company in the Quaker City.

A birthday party was given Friday evening for Reuben Zettle, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Zettle, at their home. The affair was well attended by quite a number of the young man's associates.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Smith, of Pittsburgh, are in Centre Hall. Mr. Smith, an overseas man, is taking a course in an educational institution in one of the various lines provided for by the government.

On Tuesday a trip by auto to Lancaster and Philadelphia was begun by Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Keller and sons James and Harold, and daughter, Miss Lottie. They will return the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burris and daughter, of South Williamsport, were guests of the former's brother, Lanson Burris, west of Centre Hall. Mr. Burris is employed in an ice cream factory at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zeigler, of Mont Alto, Franklin county, for a day were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer, in Centre Hall. Mr. Zeigler is the head of the Forestry school at Mont Alto, which institution is one of the leading schools of its kind.

Miss Nellie Smith, daughter of J. Frank Smith, of Bellefonte, visited friends in Centre Hall. She is now an instructor in Columbia Hospital, Wilkesburg. She graduated as a nurse in a Philadelphia hospital and for one of her ago has had large experience in work of her line.

Mrs. Samuel Kremer and daughter, Miss Rebecca, were arrivals in Centre Hall Friday of last week from their home in Lewistown. They were guests for a few days at the H. W. Kremer home, having come here from Altoona where they spent some time with the former's brother, John Scholl.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Smith and daughter, Miss Ruth, last week made a trip in their car to Johnstown, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Luse. On their return home they brought with them Mrs. Luse who will be their guest, but will visit other friends before returning home.

Prof. H. E. Winner, wife and baby, stopped with Prof. L. O. Packer and family, in Centre Hall, on their return trip through the New England States of over two thousand miles. Prof. Winner is principal of the South Hills High School, Pittsburgh, and is an exceptionally strong school teacher.

Thomas Snyder and Fred Englemeyer, of Sunbury, were guests of Bruce D. Rowe, at the J. S. Rowe home in Centre Hall, last Friday. The former is private secretary to Judge Witmer and the latter is a state game protector. The young men were enjoying an outing at Judge Witmer's camp at Cherry Run.

Frank A. Long and Charles A. Berry and family, of Washington, D. C., arrived in Centre Hall a short time ago where the family of the former summered. On reaching here the two families opened camp on Sand Mountain, in the Regulars' hunting quarters, in Seven Mountains, and after enjoying real mountain life broke camp to return to the National capital on Wednesday. Mr. Long has been connected with the Patent office and Mr. Berry is a city mail carrier in Washington.

The general behavior of the ball players on the local field this season has been altogether commendable, but at no time was as good a spirit shown as on Friday of last week when the Lemont team and locals crossed bats. The cigarette the old pipe and stogie were not visible and the language clean, with possibly one minor infraction, one of the ball players themselves passing the word not to further indulge. This is a good sign and indicates that discipline is being exercised in the right direction.

Upon attaining her eighty-third birthday, Mrs. Maria Wagner, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. William Bitner, near Tusseyville, was given a picnic dinner at the old homestead now owned by Prof. W. O. Heckman, whose wife is a granddaughter, just north of Tussey Sink school house, Thursday of last week. At this gathering were assembled her children, Mrs. M. F. Roseman, Mrs. W. W. Bitner, of Tusseyville; Samuel J. Wagner, of Boalsburg; and William A. Wagner, of Juniata; also a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mrs. Wagner is a remarkable woman for one of her age. She is quite active in mind and body and enjoyed the gathering as thoroughly as anyone present.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Carl A. Auman, employed by Arnour & Co., at Wheeling, W. Va., is spending a short vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Auman, in Centre Hall.

Rev. M. C. Drumm was accompanied by Dr. G. I. Yearick, where he had his tonsils removed, Dr. Reed being the operating surgeon.

On Monday Miss Elizabeth Boozer came to Centre Hall for her summer vacation. She was met in Bellefonte by her father, D. A. Boozer. Miss Boozer is a graduate nurse and is located in Pittsburgh.

The radiophone installed by Dr. H. H. Longwell is being successfully manipulated by him. Beside the musical programs given out anywhere within a radius of from six to eight hundred miles, much other information is picked up every evening.

Mrs. Augustus Foote, widow of Geo. W. Foote, died at her home in Millinburg. Mrs. Foote was well known in the lower section of Pennsylvania Valley, where her husband many years ago was editor of the Centre Believer. Later he published the Times at Millinburg.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Musser, of near Centre Hall, are looking forward to a visit by their daughter, Mrs. J. Edward Bohn, of Akron, Ohio, who will remain with them for several weeks. Mr. Bohn, who is a bookkeeper for W. E. Writes & Co., wholesalers, will come along later and accompany his wife home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith and two sons, Harold and Robert, of State College, motored to Pittsburgh and spent a few days with Mr. Smith's brother, J. Elliott Smith, and on their return home they brought with them Mr. and Mrs. J. Elliott Smith, who will spend their summer vacation at their parental homes in Centre Hall.

Aside from the business, the Reporter was pleased to have a call from Paul Smith, the ice and ice cream manufacturer at State College. Mr. Smith is just a young man but is building up a nice trade in "cold" goods. His ice and ice cream plant are altogether modern and the product high class. In an advertisement in this issue he invites you to become a customer.

J. A. Brown and family, of Claysburg, were guests of Merchant and Mrs. C. M. Smith, the ladies being sisters. Mr. Brown is now a general merchant in Claysburg, Blair county. Before taking up the mercantile business he was engaged in fruit growing on a large scale. His orchard contained about 600 apple trees, also a large number of peach and cherry trees, all in bearing.

Notice.

I have purchased the grain house of the late R. D. Foreman, at Centre Hall Station, and am ready to do business. Grain, coal, feed, cement, etc., will be handled. Your patronage and good will is most earnestly solicited. I shall endeavor to treat you right at all times.

WILLIAM McCLLENAHAN.
