ELKS TO ERECT HOME.

Action Taken at State Convention in Scranton—Five Thousand Members of the Order March in Parade.

The Elks of Pennsylvania marched in colorful pageant Thursday of last week in Scranton, as the crowning feature of the sixteenth annual convention of the state organization. More than 5,000 Elks were in the procession and a large crowd thronged the streets.

The Bellefonte lodge of Elks was represented by G. Oscar Gray as delegate, and Edward Gehret and Alfred Rishel as alternate delegates.

The threatening skies and occasional showers failed to dampen the spirit of the marching herds. The Philadelphia lodge with its mounted patrol, big band and natty drill team was a hit. The Erie delegation, 250 strong, with a band and white squadron also won favor.

At the closing business session, Geo. J. Post, of Mahony City, was installed as the new president of the state organization, succeeding Charles H. Grakelov, of Philadelphia. Other newly elected officers took the oath of office.

A resolution was passed providing for the erection of a home in Pennsylvania for widows and orphans of Elks, and for aged and disabled Elks. The president of the state organization is to appoint a committee of seven, including himself, together with the trustees of the organization to work on the project. Former State Senator Edward F. Blewitt, Scranton, presented the resolution. He stated that he expected to have Charles M. Schwab and other prominent Pennsylvania Elks serve on the committee. Start on the home will probably be made this year.

Defeated at State College.

The local baseball team lost a hard fought game at State College on Saturday afternoon, the score being 5 to 4. Although the locals outhit the State College boys by 11 to 7, they were unable to turn hits into runs in the same proportion as the college town team. The game was lost in the 8th inning when the winners scored three runs on a few bunched hits and loose playing on the part of the locals. No box score is available, but following is the score by innings:

Centre Hall.....0 0 1 0 0 0 1 1 1—4
State College.....0 0 0 0 2 0 0 3 x—5
Batteries—Centre Hall, Gross and Foust; State College, Fixter and Spicer. Umpire, Lonbarger and Reese.

50 tons No. 1 soft coal for sale—P. Long, Spring Mills, Pa.

Barlett—Graden.

On Saturday evening, about 7:30, Miss Mary I. Graden, daughter of W. L. Graden, of Spring Mills, became the bride of Harry L. Barlett, son of W. R. Barlett, of Bellefonte. The bride has been employed in the shirt factory in Bellefonte. The groom is employed by the Bellefonte Central Railroad. They expect to make their home in Bellefonte. Both bride and groom are unassuming and congenial. We bespeak for them a happy and prosperous life.

The ceremony, in which a nicely engraved ring played its proper role, was performed at the Reformed parsonage, Aaronsburg, by Rev. John S. Hollenbach, in the presence of the father of the bride, Miss Gaden, sister of the bride, Mrs. Braucher, of Spring Mills, Mrs. R. W. Barber, of Millinburg, Mrs. George Weaver and Mrs. Hollenbach of Aaronsburg.

Royer—Young.

On August 23, in the presence of a few immediate friends at the home of Albert Kersetter, State College, John P. Royer, of State College, and Miss Rae E. Young, of Boalsburg, were quietly married by Rev. S. C. Stover, of Boalsburg. Immediately after congratulations the guests were ushered into the dining room where a bounteous dinner was served by Mrs. Kersetter, which was greatly enjoyed by all. We extend our congratulations and wish them a bon voyage through life.

BOTH sizes of DURANT and the STAR cars are made by W. C. Durant, famous builder of the Cadillac, Buick, Oldsmobile and Chevrolet; who was one of Ford's first mechanics, and who has designed other standard cars now on the market. His lifetime of motor experience is expressed in the DURANT—a real good car.

Both the REO and HAYNES are old stand-bys and have stood the test. They need no boosting here.
