

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A fine line of new Fall and Winter hats in at The Hat Shop—Mrs. Burd, Millheim, Pa.

Messrs. Harry Hile and John Zimmerman, of Pleasant Gap, are plastering the new house being erected by Samuel Shoop, in Centre Hall.

"Bennie" Goodhart, of Johnstown, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Goodhart, is enjoying an outing at the home of his grandfather, Alfred Durst, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Harry Burris, of Earlstown, while at Crystal Springs, Sunday a week, with a party of friends, had the misfortune to break one of her ankle bones.

Mrs. Ebon Bower, of Bellefonte, and Miss Nellie Smith, of the Wilkesburg hospital, were guests of Mrs. John H. Knarr, in Centre Hall, for several days last week.

A meeting of business men of Centre Hall has been called for Friday night, 8:30 o'clock, in the council room. One of the questions to be discussed is the advisability of forming a business men's association.

Twenty cans of brook were received by Forester Wm. McKinney and emptied into the trout streams in Seven Mountains at various points, among which were Potters Mills, Garry's and White Oak Flat.

The State Fair at Columbus, Ohio, is being attended by Samuel E. Weber, of Boalsburg, and J. J. Fressler, of Oak Hall Station. The gentlemen left on Tuesday morning and will return, if by schedule, on Sunday.

The Young People's Missionary Society of St. Luke's Lutheran church, on Saturday, held their annual outing in the form of a picnic at the "Saw Dust Pile," in Seven Mountains. The attendance was very good and an enjoyable time was had.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brandt, Mrs. Carrie Troutman and daughter, Miss Ernestine, of Lewistown, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Leigh Ehrig Saturday and Sunday. The party was out on an auto tour of several days and were returning from Eagles Mere park, Sullivan county.

Mrs. John Musser, son and daughter, Fred and Miss Margaret, of Wilkes Barre, are guests of Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs, in Centre Hall. Mr. Musser left home about twenty-five years ago, during which time little was heard from him. Part of this period was spent in foreign countries, but now he is located at San Francisco, Calif.

Mrs. Hulda Meyer, who has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Verna Musser, at Millburg, for some time past, is now visiting at the home of Foster W. Frazier, east of Centre Hall. She was in Centre Hall on Saturday, accompanied by Mrs. Louisa Zarfoss, of Columbia, York county, and Mrs. Ambrose Miller, of Hellam, the same county.

A Maxwell coupe that went wrong for the driver on a trip from Altoona to Millheim was let set alongside the road in the vicinity of Penns Cave, on Sunday, and on Monday when G. W. Dillen, a general merchant of Altoona, came for it, one of the wheels was found to be stripped of its tire. A coat and some other clothing left in the car was also stolen.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shoop spent a week with the latter's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Long, at Matowana, along the Juniata river, above Lewistown. Some real peaches are being grown in that section, some of which were secured by Mr. Shoop and later D. A. Booser was fortunate in getting a few bushels of the same quality at $2.00 per bushel.

Misses Eda Wolf and Verna Banks, both of Altoona, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Auman from Thursday until Monday, at which time they went to Spring Mills to visit the former's sisters, Mrs. Harvey Decker and Miss Nora Wolf, at the Robert Finkle home.

The young ladies, who are clerks in the Gable store, Altoona, returned to Centre Hall on Wednesday and will remain at the Auman home until after the Encampment and Fair.

E. M. Huyett just returned home from a trip to Reading. On Saturday there was held at Kutztown Park the fourth reunion of the Huyett clan, one hundred and forty-five being present. This clan is principally located in Pennsylvania, Virginia, Maryland and West Virginia, and has among its members several ministers, lawyers and some of other professions. Kutztown Park is located near the Keystone State Normal School where Mr. Huyett was a student during 1877 and 1878.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Weber, of Huntingdon, have been at Boalsburg the past week. Mr. Weber closed his thirty-first year's service in the Huntingdon Reformatory in various capacities. He is now in his seventy-second year, but holds to his place with no intention of quitting. Mrs. Weber made his first trip to Centre county in two years, owing to a severe attack of rheumatism. She expects to remain in Harris township and will visit her sisters living in that section and also expects to come to Centre Hall to spend a bit of time with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Weber.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

John D. Homan and family visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reish, at Boalsburg, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Robinson, Paul Kreider and sister, Ada, of Tyrone, visited Mrs. Robinson's sister, Mrs. H. E. Homan, over Sunday.

John H. Weber, of Centre Hall, was in Boalsburg over Sunday, the guest of his brother, S. E. Weber, and Miss Weber. Peter M. Weber, of Huntingdon, was also a guest at the Weber home.

John S. Auman, who has been the head miller at the Bradford & Co. flouring mill for several years, has accepted a position in a large mill in the Philadelphia district and will leave for there within a few days. Elmer Noll, who for some time has been in the McMullin mill, in Millheim, will succeed Mr. Auman by September 1st.

One of the elaborate exhibits at the Encampment and Fair next week will be the Star, Durant, Haynes and Reo cars, by H. M. Meyers, dealer, and W. B. Swartz, sales agent, of State College. The Star is a wonder car and one that will attract much attention at the fair. The delivery price is $600. See adv. in this issue and be sure to call around to see the exhibit.

For a week, Rev. E. Roy Corman of Cressona, now a guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher, in Centre Hall, was one of a party of eleven to camp along the Juniata river, in the vicinity of Crafton. Fishing for salmon, bass, etc., was the principal sport indulged in. The remainder of the campers, except one other minister, Rev. C. A. Huyett, of Tremont, were from Williamsburg.

The Geiss family, of Philadelphia, are visiting among their many friends and relatives in and about Centre Hall. The elder D. K. Geiss has been about town for a week or more and on Monday Miss Elsie Geiss and Mrs. Verna Geiss Miller and daughter, Miss Genevieve Miller, came from Bellefonte to the A. E. Kerlin home. Tuesday, together with the Kerlins, they spent the day with relatives in Boalsburg and Tusseyville. This is the first visit to the old home by Miss Elsie since leaving here eleven years ago, and is now obliged to return after a short stay owing to her being needed at the apartment house at No. 1792 Green street. Mrs. Miller will stay here for a while longer.

Mrs. Prescott Haskell, of Washington, D. C., while at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller, near Colyer, on Monday morning, had the misfortune to fall and in so doing broke both the bones in her right leg just above the ankle. The fracture was reduced by Dr. H. H. Longwell. Mrs. Haskell had her little baby in her arms and was on a porch when she fell, and it was her effort to save the baby that was largely responsible for the accident terminating so serious. Mr. and Mrs. Haskell came to the Miller home a short time ago and a few days later the former, who is a policeman, returned home, leaving Mrs. Haskell at the parental home. Immediately after the accident, Mr. Haskell was notified and on Tuesday he was by the side of his injured wife.

Livestock Judging Contest.

The usual livestock judging contest will be held at the Centre Hall fair on Wednesday, Sept. 6th, at 9:30 a. m. This contest is open to any boy or girl under nineteen years of age. Competition in this contest will make the contestant eligible to compete in the State Judging contest to be held at State College next June. Previous experience is not required. The winner will receive railroad fare to the State Farm Products Show at Harrisburg next January. Four other corresponding prizes will be awarded. Register at the Farm Bureau tent before 9:00 a. m., Wednesday, Sept. 6.

SPRING MILLS

Prof. Bruce Morris and family, of Philadelphia, are visiting at the John Myers home.

Ammon Decker and wife, and Mrs. C. E. Royer were to Bellwood for a few days.

The bank building is about completed and ready to move into.

Prof. Merrill Allison, wife and little son, are spending two weeks vacation with relatives. They live in Highland Park, Ill., but Mr. Allison teaches in a high school in Chicago, as he has done for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Zubler, Mrs. Chas. Grenoble and little daughter, spent Sunday at State College.

Quite a number of people attended the fair at Lewistown last week.

George Gentzel is improving his home by building concrete walks all about it.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

The frost is on the pumpkin but the fodder isn't in shock.

George W. Rossman is not much improved.

Alfred Crater, wife and Viola motored up from Newark, Del., the early part of the week.

Dr. Stork visited the W. R. Dale home at Dalewood Sunday morning, leaving a 12-pound baby girl. Both Touring Through Middle West. The touring party left Tusseyville Monday, July 24th, at 7:40 a. m., motoring by way of Altoona and Johnstown, camping beyond Ligonier in the Allegheny mountains, traveling a distance of 120 miles. Ford trouble interfered with the first day's trip. Starting from this place we passed through Greensburg, Pittsburgh, then northward through Ohio. At Pittsburgh the tourists were separated, due to some tire trouble. The two rear cars, containing the John Jordan and Thomas Hosterman families, were left behind. The E. T. Jordan family was then left alone.

The second night was spent in Ohio. E. T. Jordan and family motored thru Cleveland, Elyria, O., while the other two cars kept farther south, thus cutting some miles off and making the trip shorter. The third night was spent in Indiana, 60 miles from South Bend.

The first car arrived in Buchanan, Michigan, Thursday 10:30 a. m. The other two arrived in Edwardsburg, Mich. Saturday evening. That place is about 16 miles east of Buchanan. From Edwardsburg the John Jordan and Hosterman families expected to start for other points west, but could not on account of sickness. Not knowing anything of the sickness of his brother, the E. T. Jordan family left Michigan Wednesday at 4:15 for McConnell, Ill., and drove by way of Chicago Heights, Joliet, DeKalb, Rochelle, north to Rockford, Freeport, Orangeville stopping at the latter place with Bruce Goodhart and family; then went to McConnell to visit relatives there: Henry Jordan, Samuel Jordan, Frank Jordan, and Mary Fogle, staying there from Wednesday until Saturday. Then it was decided to drive on to Dubuque, Iowa, to visit Mrs. Jordan's uncle, J. K. Young, and family, Ader Young and family, and Mr. Dennis and daughter Gladys. The distance now registered 991 miles from home. After spending three days there they again returned to Illinois and made a trip to Madison, Wis., accompanied by Bruce Goodhart and family, Henry Jordan and family, Arthur Lentz and family, Clarence Jordan, Miss Stemm and Miss Splinters.

Friday morning was decided as the time for leaving Illinois for Michigan. This time going by way of Dixon into Chicago, thence to Michigan City and Buchanan, Mich. Staying over Sunday at Buchanan they left Tuesday morning 6:05 for Ft. Wayne and called on Boyd Jordan, who is attending a business college there; then to Lima, Springfield, Columbus, Janesville, Cambridge, Ohio, crossing the Ohio River to Wheeling, West Virginia; northward to Pittsburgh, and home by Bedford and Altoona, making the total distance traveled 2,466 miles. They arrived home Thursday, 5:00 p. m.

The choice is largely up to you. If your blood lacks red corpuscles, you're going to be fagged and dragged out, you're going to lack "pep," to look sallow and unhealthy, to grow old before your time.

DR. MILES' TONIC

actually increases the number of red corpuscles in the blood. It makes the cheeks plump and rosy, stimulates the digestive organs, creates a healthy appetite, and leads to increased vigor and vitality. First bottle guaranteed to help you or money refunded.
