Pinchot, in the governor's chair, will be a second Pennypacker. He will be making the pretenses and the boys will be gathering up the lucre. Of course, if there is a really good chance to get some of the dough by a round about route, Pinchot will be equal to the occasion. He is now getting $3000 more per year for salary than any honest man would accept.

When President Harding announced his intentions to seize the railroads and coal mines he evidently had not consulted those who control most of his acts, for after doing so he decided not to seize them. About the only thing the president decides for himself is the vacation period, which in itself is a pretty big job.

How can the people of Pennsylvania think well of a candidate for governor who, although a millionaire, beat the constitution to it to have his salary increased by $3000 each year? This was done by Pinchot. Can such a man be trusted in the larger affairs of the State? No. A millionaire who will circumvent the constitution of the State for his personal benefit will not hesitate to reach deep in the pot.

The most vital thing to real success in business or one's personal career, is good credit. Consequently the most trifling thing that affects one's credit is important. Unless a man is punctual in paying his own bills and insistent upon the same conduct on the part of his creditors, he is doomed for failure sooner or later. Integrity is one of man's best assets.

STRUCK AND KILLED BY AUTO.

David L. Dennis, Pine Grove Mills' Most Aged Citizen, Loses Life Sunday Evening on Returning from Church.

An exceedingly sad accident occurred at Pine Grove Mills, Sunday evening, when the life of David L. Dennis, Pine Grove Mills' most aged citizen, was crushed out while he was returning from church to his home. Mr. Dennis, who was a great Bible student and for many years a member of the Lutheran church, and was repeatedly honored by office in it, was walking on the street near his cozy home, when two automobiles coming in opposite directions approached him. In his effort to avoid one of the cars, he got into the path of the other and was violently struck and dragged a distance of sixty feet, resulting in his skull being crushed and otherwise mangleing the body. Death was instantaneous.

The burial took place at Pine Grove Mills Wednesday afternoon.

"Pappy" Dennis, as he was affectionately known by everyone, was a son of John and Susan Bloom, a pioneer settler of Potter township, where he was born in 1838. When a mere lad he moved with his parents to near Pine Grove Mills. Up to 1911 his life was spent on the farm, but at that time he moved to the present Dennis home. Politically Mr. Dennis was a Democrat and never failed to exercise the franchise privilege.

Lemont Turns the Tables.

In a weird exhibition of the great national game, Centre Hall lost to the Lemont baseball team on Grange Park, Saturday afternoon, the score being 11 to 6. The local team played listlessly and showed a decided reversal of the form displayed a few days previous in the Linden Hall game. The game was a dragged-out affair and was anything but interesting to the spectators.

Penn State Opens Next Week.

The 68th year at the Pennsylvania State College will start Wednesday morning, September 13. The largest enrollment in the history of the college is expected. The number of men and women students will probably exceed the 3300 mark.

THE DEATH RECORD.

ROSS.—James M. Ross was found dead in bed early Sunday morning at his home in Boalsburg. He had been in his usual health the day previous, and although delicate on account of his advanced age, no one suspected death lurking so nearby. Death was due to heart trouble.

Interment was made Tuesday at Boalsburg, Rev. S. C. Stover, pastor of the Reformed church, of which the deceased was a member, having been the officiating minister.

Mr. Ross was a son of David Ross and was born and reared on the Ross farm near Linden Hall, and upon the death of his father inherited a portion of the farm and built for himself a splendid home there. He followed his chosen occupation until about ten years ago, when he erected a home in Boalsburg and with his wife moved there. Mrs. Ross passed to the beyond several years ago. The surviving children are Lillian, wife of P. Bliss Meyer, of Farmville, Va., and Mrs. Anna Harter, of Boalsburg.

The deceased was the last surviving member of the David Ross family and was aged some eighty years.

ULRICH.—Samuel Ulrich, a well known citizen of Gregg township, died at his home in Penn Hall Monday morning. Several years ago he received a paralytic stroke from which he never fully recovered. About a week prior to his death it is thought he was again stricken and between that time and his death he was confined to bed.

Mr. Ulrich was a farmer by occupation and, for many years lived on the Allison farm, north of Spring Mills. Four or five years ago he purchased the Fisher homestead at Penn Hall and has since lived there. His wife, who before marriage was Miss Harriet Burritt, survives him, as do also four children, namely, Mrs. John Eckles and Harry, Bellefonte; Mrs. Charles Clemens, Philadelphia; and Mary, at home. Two brothers, F. H. Ulrich, Spring Mills, and William Ulrich, of Greenville, South Carolina; and Mrs. Lew Gettig, of Bellefonte, a sister, also survive.

Next December Mr. Ulrich, had he lived, would have attained his sixty-fourth year. Interment will be made Friday forenoon in the Heckman cemetery.

AUMAN.—William A. Auman, a native of Penn township, was found dead in bed in a lumber camp near Orange, Va. He was subject to epileptic fits for more than thirty years and one of these spells caused his death. He was aged nearly 57 years. He followed lumbering for many years and was employed on the Virginia job for several years.

He was married but his wife died about nine years ago. He is survived by a son and a daughter—Frank, of Woodward, and Mrs. Harry Auman, of Gleasonton—and the following brothers and sisters: J. C. A. L., and Andrew C., of Coburn; O. J., of Aaronsburg; Mrs. Mary J. Marple, of Salycoy, Cal., and Mrs. Harry Byrod, of Sunbury. His mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Auman, also survives.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon of last week, conducted by Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck. Interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery at Aaronsburg.

SCHLEIFFER.—J. Meade Schlieffer died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Rebecca Schlieffer, in Millheim following an illness of about eleven years, aged 51 years, 4 months and 13 days. He was born in Green township, Clinton county, but most of his life was spent in Millheim. He received hospital treatment at three different times but his ailments would not respond to treatment. Besides his mother he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ammon Decker, of Spring Mills, and two brothers and a sister—Fred of Kaneville, Ill.; Charles, of Mexico, and Miss Minnie, of Millheim. Interment was made in Millheim, Rev. C. F. Catherman officiating.

BOALSBURG.

On Sunday evening, Sept. 17, at 7:30 the memorial service of the Knights of Malta order will be observed, in the Reformed church. This service will be conducted by twenty-five members of Knights of Malta of Williamsport Commandery. The will have an orchestra and furnish some good music. Old hymns will be sung and all the congregation join in the singing. The public is invited.

The teachers' training class will have their second test on Sunday evening, conducted by Rev. Wagner.

Reformed S. S. and church service on Sunday afternoon. Rev. Stover is holding communion service at Houserville in the morning.

Miss Blanche Rowe was home from Harrisburg over Sunday.

S. E. Weber and J. J. Tressler spent last week at the Ohio State fair and report having had a nice time.

The officers of the Knights of Malta were installed on Friday evening by District Grand Commander Bell, of Tyrone. After the installation refreshments were served—pumpkin pie and ice cream.

Mrs. Nannie Coxe is having her home fitted out with a bath. P. M. Charles is doing the work.
