ATLAS PORTLAND CEMENT
The log-cabin, snake-fenced, corn-shocked farm of the pioneer has been replaced by farming on a more permanent, more profitable basis. Wall-appointed homes, concrete fence posts and concrete barns and silos spell prosperity and comfort.

Bankers today acknowledge the financial assets in proper farm buildings.

Your building material dealer has largely influenced this change. He can advise you wisely on your future building, can give you plans and help that mean greater prosperity. His years of experience are part of the materials he sells you.

For over a quarter century he has known Atlas Portland Cement, "the Standard by which all other makes are measured."

HIS STOPPING POINT
"Paid your tailor's bill yet?" asked a friend.
"Can't," replied the young man.
"Paid the florist?"
"Quite impos."
"What about your motoring bill?"
"They're still sending it in."
"If you can't pay for your own living," exclaimed his friend, in disgust, "why don't you be decent enough to die?"
"And then run up an undertaker's bill?" retorted the young man. "My dear chap, there's a limit!"

He Was, Though.
"Nora," said Mrs. Deadbeat, from the top of the stairs, "tell the man who is ringing the 'ell that I am not receiving today!"
The servant girl went to the door and said something to the man; then she stepped into the hall and called upstairs:
"I told him you were not receiving today, ma'am, but he says he ain't deliverin', he's collectin'!"

A WISE LOCATION
Customer: I don't want this fish, it don't smell good.
C. Food: Pardon me lady! It's the cheese on the next counter, isn't it terrible?

At Last.

The Best to Be Hoped For.
"You appear to be universally popular in your district."
"There's no such thing as universal popularity," answered Senator Sorghum. "But I do pride myself on the fact that I have been able to limit my unpopularity to an influential minority."—Washington Star.

Time to Economize.
"A thousand dollar loan will put me on my feet," said the citizen in distress.
"Get on your feet first and I'll talk to you," replied the banker.
"Eh?"
"You have a brand new sport car parked out in front."

Indiscretion.
"Did you encourage Mrs. Peckton to seek political honors?"
"Yes," said Mr. Peckton. "I told her a woman's place was in the home and in less than 48 hours she had announced her candidacy."

A Voice Connoisseur.
"It's very nice of you, Jack, dear, to praise my singing, but you know I haven't any range."
"Never mind about the range, my dear, when we are married, I'll buy one."

GOOD COMPANY
"George says if I refuse him, he'll go to the dogs."
"That's the place for a puppy like him."

They're All Right.
Oh, let the flappers flap. We know they cannot cook; But we don't care a rap. We like the way they look.

Anything Goes.
"You'll have to entertain the guests. Exert yourself."
"I know an Irish joke."
"Is it fit for mixed company?"
"It's fit for mixed company nowa-days."

Showing Claws.
"It seems that there has been little snubbing among the students at the Naval academy."
"Yes," replied Miss Cayenne; "I am afraid a few of the boys are training themselves to become not sea dogs but sea cats."

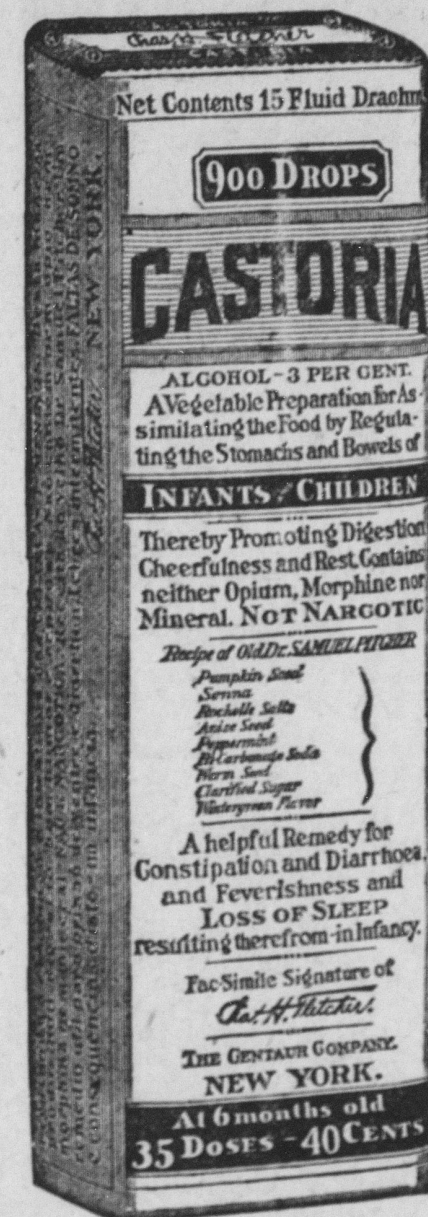

Fair Quotes.
"That fellow quotes Shakespeare ceaselessly."
"Well, if he knows his own line of talk is trivial it isn't a bad idea to use the stuff of a better man."

Shame on Them.

PERHAPS there are a few mothers who do not know the virtues of Fletcher's Castoria. Perhaps there are a few who know that there are imitations on the market, and knowing this demand Fletcher's. It is to ALL motherhood, then, that we call attention to the numerous imitations and counterfeits that may be set before them.

It is to all motherhood everywhere that we ring out the warning to beware of the "Just-as-good". For over thirty years Fletcher's Castoria has been an aid in the upbuilding of our population; an aid in the saving of babies.

And yet there are those who would ask you to try something new. Try this. Try that. Even try the same remedy for the tiny, scarcely breathing, babe that you in all your robust womanhood would use for yourself. Shame on them.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Your Friend, the Physician.

The history of all medicines carries with it the story of battles against popular beliefs: fights against prejudice: even differences of opinion among scientists and men devoting their lives to research work; laboring always for the betterment of mankind. This information is at the hand of all physicians. He is with you at a moment's call be the trouble trifling or great. He is your friend, your household counselor. He is the one to whom you can always look for advice even though it might not be a case of sickness. He is not just a doctor. He is a student to his last and final call. His patients are his family and to lose one is little less than losing one of his own flesh and blood.

Believe him when he tells you—as he will—that Fletcher's Castoria has never harmed the slightest babe, and that it is a good thing to keep in the house. He knows.

Bells Made of Porcelain.
In a few weeks the cathedral of Metz will possess the famous chimes of 60 porcelain bells of which so much has been said. It is said that the tone of these bells leaves nothing to be desired. As to their solidity, they seem to be of the first order.
Until now no such use has been made of porcelain, a fact which will make of the chimes of Metz an unequalled curiosity. It is recalled, however, that at Missen, where the manufacture of the so-called "Dresden" china was carried on from 1710 to 1863, there is a house constructed of that material.
His good health, says a vegetarian, is the result of eating no meat and chewing it well.

SOCIAL DUTIES TOO ARDUOUS

Old-Fashioned Farmer Realizes He Could Never Keep Up With the Procession Today.

"What kind of farming experience did you have?" asked the reporter.
"Well, son," replied the philosopher, "I only had a light attack. When I lived on a farm all you had to do was plant, cultivate, mend fence, hoe weeds, milk cows, slaughter pigs, doctor sick chickens, fix windmills, go to town after the mail, argy with lightning' rod agents, attend the county fair once a year, cut wheat an' have it thrashed, shuck corn, churn butter, dig potatoes, buy fertilizer, mend the broken plow with a piece o' wire, break colts, wash the wool and do things like that. It was hard enough life then, but just think what it is now, havin' to be a farmer and keep up with the radio, fox trottin', silk shirts and at least two cars! Son, even at my age I might go back and do old-fashioned farmin', but I'd never be able to keep up with a modern farmer's social duties."—Indianapolis News.

REALIZED HIS BAD REPUTE

Untrustworthy Man Had Good Reason for Wanting His Wife to Give Alarm for Fire.

William Skaggs was known as the most untrustworthy man in Klinkerville. He had never been caught in a malicious lie or in circulating even an unkind fact, only it seemed an impossibility for him to distinguish between fact and fiction, once his tongue was loosed. He was humbly aware of this shortcoming.
Once a small outbuilding caught fire. He hurried for the water bucket, and called to his wife, "Run out to the road and holler fire!"
"Holler yourself!" she shouted back, while she ran with another pail.
"Me?" he returned. "Who'd come if I hollered fire, I'd like to know? If they did, they'd bring matches and kindling!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Busy Wife.

Kriss—Why don't you get your wife to sew that button on your coat?
Kross—She is too busy. She is working on four picture puzzles, reading two continued stories, and following up five serial pictures in the movies.—Judge.

Clear Your Complexion with This Old Reliable Remedy—HANCOCK SULPHUR COMPOUND

For pimples, black-heads, freckles, blotches, and tan, as well as for more serious face, scalp and body eruptions, hives, eczema, etc., use this scientific compound of sulphur. As a lotion, it soothes and heals; taken internally—a few drops in a glass of water—it gets at the root of the trouble and purifies the blood. Physicians agree that sulphur is one of the most effective blood purifiers known. Remember, a good complexion isn't skin deep—it's health deep.

Be sure to ask for HANCOCK SULPHUR COMPOUND. It has been used with satisfactory results for over 25 years.
