

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Drop in to Kessler's to look over the new fall lines.

Capt. G. M. Bohl is visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Meyer, in Reedsville.

Miss Jeanne Kessler, just returned from New York, bringing with her a complete new line of goods for women and children. Shown at Kessler's Millheim.

Brisbin and Booser have purchased an electric motor which will be installed at the cider mill, at the Centre Hall station, and Wednesday of next week the mill will be in operation.

One of the blue ribbons awarded at the recent Grange fair at Centre Hall was attached to the pen of Rhode Island Reds put on display by Rev. John S. Hollenbach, of Aaronburg.

The account of the McSparran meeting, on Grange Park, that appeared in the Philadelphia Republican papers, was written by reporters who were not on the ground when the meeting was held. The account, of course, was very incorrect.

Miss Grace Ishler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ishler, of Centre Hall, will enter the Central State Normal School, Lock Haven, next week. Miss Ishler has been teaching school for several years and it is her purpose to further fit herself for that profession.

Among the Reporter's business callers on Tuesday was S. M. Campbell, undertaker and furniture dealer, of Millheim. He states Millheim is gradually extending its borders and that business men have no complaint of the business conditions in that section.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith and daughter, of Dover, Delaware, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Smith and daughter Mary, of Reedsville, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks, west of Centre Hall, for a few days. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mrs. J. H. Breon, of this place.

D. J. Nieman, the Millheim clothier, was a business visitor in town on Wednesday and paid his respects to the Reporter, whose columns he constantly uses to bring before the people of Penns Valley his offerings of dependable merchandise. Mr. Nieman is an optimistic business man.

George L. Horner, who suffered the loss of his house, on Nittany Mountain, by fire a short time ago, informed the Reporter on a recent visit here that he expects to build a small house this fall and enlarge it next summer. In the meantime the family is living in a tent. Mr. Horner advertises Jersey Red pigs, eligible to registry, for sale.

Mrs. Culla J. Vayniger, of Upland, Indiana, director of Americanization Department National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will speak in the Methodist church, Centre Hall, Sunday morning, at 10:30 o'clock. A most cordial invitation is extended to all to come to hear her. She came into the county to attend the county convention now being held in Philipsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Benner entertained during the week of the Encampment and Fair: Mrs. O. D. Eberts and daughter, of Martha; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Chromister and two children, of Wilkinsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Walter McKinney, of Tyrone; the Misses Millie and Bethel Smith, of Wilkinsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Eliek, of Port Matilda. On last Sunday they entertained Mrs. A. Mann, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, of Mackeyville. Newton Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Crawford, of Centre Hall, beginning of this week entered the Bellefonte academy as a student.

The writer attended a Smith reunion at River Side Park, along the river above Milton, Saturday. There were some fifty present, most of whom were descendants of Ezekiel Smith, a branch of the family of John Smith, of Lycoming county. There are probably seventy descendants of this branch, but strange as it may seem, there is but one male Smith living, that Smith being William Smith, head of the Penn Furniture Factory, Montgomery, a great grandson of John Smith. The writer, who was one of the two male Smiths at the gathering, is a grandson of John Smith, and son of the branch of the family headed by Dr. Peter Smith.

County W. C. T. U. Convention.
The Centre County W. C. T. U. convention opened in Philipsburg this (Thursday) forenoon and will continue over Friday. The principal speakers are Mrs. Culla J. Vayniger, Upland, Indiana, and Major Roy A. Haynes, Washington, D. C. Federal Prohibition Commissioner. The former will speak at various times during the sessions and on Friday evening will make her set address. Major Haynes will be the speaker for Thursday evening.

THE DEATH RECORD.

MUSSER.—Durbin Henry Musser, of Aaronburg, was born Dec. 29, 1877, and died on Saturday morning, Sept. 9, as the result of tuberculosis. He was aged 44 years, 8 months and 10 days. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Charlotte Musser (nee Stover), six children, his mother, Mrs. Amanda Musser, two sisters, Misses Arilla and Charlotte Musser, all of Aaronburg. The funeral was held Wednesday morning of this week, at the house and in the Reformed church at Aaronburg, of which Mr. Musser and family were members. The services were conducted by Rev. John S. Hollenbach.

BOALSBURG.
The garage of H. G. Zerby has been sold to William Rockey and is being run by his son Willard.

Charles Isenberg has sold his Cadillac automobile and bought a Ford touring car.

The Bohl and Corl bus line has been busy carrying students from Lewis town to State College.

We are looking forward to a beautiful and impressive memorial service on Sunday evening in the Reformed church, at 7:30. This service is in memory of the departed companions of Bearmeadow Commandery No. 416 Knights of Malta. A number of companions from Williamsport will be here and have charge of the service. This meeting is open to the public.

The public schools opened Monday with the following teachers and enrollment:

High school, Prof. W. E. Kauffman; 24 scholars.

Elth grade, H. M. Hosterman; 13 scholars.

Grammar grade, Miss Emily Warlick; 42 scholars.

Primary, Miss Margaret Ferrée; 36 scholars.

Salaries, $150, $130, $100, and $85, respectively.

SPRING MILLS

The township schools started Monday; Vocational School will start the 18th inst.; grammar, intermediate and primary will not start for some time as their rooms are not finished.

William Hanna, of Renovo, spent Sunday at the C. E. Royer home.

Mr. Bloom's parents have moved in the Alken home.

Mrs. T. M. Gramley, who is a patient in the Geisinger hospital at Danville, is improving.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Snavely a son, on September 6th.

Mr. Kustaborder, of Bellwood, was a visitor here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bartges, of Millheim, spent a short time here on Sunday.

Mr. Spotts moved from the Ivy Bartges home to Prof. Reitz's home.

TUSSEYVILLE.

School opened Monday with an enrollment of thirty scholars; Miss Catharine Rearick, teacher.

Charles Miller will have his cider mill in operation every Tuesday and Thursday of each week.

Floyd Jordan left Monday morning for Reading, where he will be a student in Schuylkill Seminary, taking a course in music and other subjects.

Miss Mary Wert left Tuesday morning for State College where she will enter college as a freshman.

The Reporter wishes to call attention to the very favorable conditions prevailing on Sunday on Grange Park. Orders had been issued forbidding the sale during the entire day of all wares and eatables, except such as come under the line of food and recognized as necessities. The sale of these necessities was limited to periods of an hour each in the morning, noon and evening. This regulation was well adhered to by all who held privileges.

The Sunday services, conducted by Rev. W. C. Dunlap, were largely attended. The seating capacity of the large auditorium was all utilized, and close attention was given to the minister throughout the entire discourse. The service in reality was what it pretended to be—religious—and the conduct on the ground in keeping with it.

The W. C. T. U. will meet in regular session at the home of Mrs. T. L. Moore, Saturday evening.

INDIANS ALL OF SAME RACE

Differences in Type No Greater Than Among the Whites, According to Scientist.

The American aborigines from the Hudson bay and Alaska to the southern tip of the continent are all members of the same race, according to Dr. Frederick Mosen of New York and Pasadena, said to be more familiar with the American Indian than any other white man.

Doctor Mosen declared the differences in type found in Indians of the various parts of the continent are becoming manifest among us today. He recognizes people from Maine as typical of that section of the country, and says a southerner or westerner can be easily distinguished by one familiar with the types of American people.

"The aborigines of America are all red men," Doctor Mosen said. "The Eskimos have flatter noses and oily skins, due to their diet and the climate."

He found corresponding differences among the Indians of the Eastern coast, the West, Mexico and other parts of the country, but other indications prove the distinguishing characteristics were the product of food, environment and methods of living.

Mentioning the treatment the red men have received from the whites, Doctor Mosen said: "The Pilgrims debarked on Plymouth rock and fell upon their knees. Then they fell upon the aborigines and we've been falling on them ever since."

RULER HAD PRACTICAL MIND

Like Our Own Politicians, Sultan Preferred Any Eventuality to Being Forgotten.

At Trengganu (Malay Peninsula) the native sultan welcomed me and I spent several days with him, telling him what was happening in the world and discussing his problems. The problems were largely financial. He owed some money, and, knowing that he had something in the treasury, I asked why he did not pay his debts.

He thought for a time and then replied: "Well, I'll tell you. If I pay those people, they will forget about the sultan of Trengganu. If I don't pay them, they'll never forget me."

The conversation turned to the subject of prisoners. On my way to the palace I had passed the cages where the prisoners were kept. Many of them were starving to death, for unless their friends or family cared for them they got no food.

"Why don't you 'feed them'?" I asked.

"Why should I?" he replied. "If I feed them, my whole country will want to go to jail."—Asia Magazine.

Point of Honor.

Samuel Untermyer, the brilliant New York lawyer, who probed the building question, said in a discussion about honor:

"Business men are honorable; or they don't get on. Even big business men are honorable. Of course, few business men are as punctilious about a point of honor, though, as Honest John Jones was.

"Honest John Jones, you know, once stole on tiptoe, fountain pen in hand, into the empty waiting room of his hotel. He stepped stealthily up to an inkwell, advanced his fountain pen towards the ink, then drew back with a start.

"No!" he groaned, striking his brow with his palm. "No, I cannot fill my fountain pen with the hotel's ink—it would not be honorable."

War of Science on Diseases.

Of the diseases of men and animals known to be infectious, Dr. Walter E. King counts up 38 having organisms not yet discovered that are believed to be so small as to pass through the customary filters. These include chicken-pox, rabies, dengue fever, small-pox, trachoma, measles, poliomyelitis, scarlet fever, typhus and mumps, and yellow fever was in the list until Doctor Noguchi's recent discovery of the organism. As in the case of tuberculosis, knowledge of the organism does not always bring a direct remedy. On the other hand, steps toward eradicating yellow fever, through the destruction of the germ-carrying mosquito, were made possible while the disease organism was still unknown.

Wireless Waves Fire Oil Wells.

In recent years there have been a number of oil well fires the origin of which has never been explained. The fires started at such times when the sites were deserted and could not have been done through any human agency, and in this connection R. M. McLain of Desdemona, Tex., has come to the fore with a remarkable theory that the firing is done by wireless waves gathered by the metal entering into the construction of the derricks. This gentleman has observed a number of oil well fires which could be explained in no other way.

Reassurance.

"Look here," demanded the new patron of the Dizzy Hour lunchroom. "When do I get that order?"

"Control yourself," snapped Romeo the waiter. "The cooks are on a strike, but I think they'll come to an agreement most any hour now."—American Legion Weekly.

Probably Not Overdressed.

"But that woman in the box seems to have no clothes on at all!"

"Ah, yes; she's the best-dressed woman in Paris—Le Journal Amusant (Paris)."

Last day to pay tax to qualify for the November election, October 7.

Making 20 Years of Racing Serve Car Owners Today

IN the early days of automobile contests, Barney Oldfield—out to win every race—studied tires. His consistent success led other drivers to ask for tires constructed to his specifications.

Twenty years of road and track victories—with a steady and increasing demand for tires as he built them—convinced Barney Oldfield that these speed tests pointed the way to a better tire for everyday use.

The enthusiastic reception of Oldfield Cords by the public proved he was right. Scores of the most prominent dealers in the country—and many thousands of car owners, experienced in the use of tires—bear witness by their decided preference that Oldfield is doing a bigger and better job of tire making.

This volume, handled in an effective way in every phase of manufacture and distribution, has resulted in price quotations far below what you'd expect on tires known to be better built and more enduring.

Practically every important race event for three years has been won on Oldfields. The Wichita Test Run in which an entire set of Oldfield Cords covered 34,525 miles on rough roads proves the mettle of the Most Trustworthy Tires Built in everyday driving.

The Master Driver and Tire Builder has given the public a new standard of tire wear and tire cost—a true economy that every car owner should know about.

Your Oldfield dealer has these facts—talk to him.
