MILLHEIM.

(From the Journal.)
C. A. Weaver, of Bethlehem, was an arrival at Apronsburg Tuesday evening and is a guest of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Weaver. Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Weiser and children, of Huntingdon, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Breen and child, of Altoona, were guests of Mrs. Clara Weiser for several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brungart and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Royer, of Millheim, and Charles Miller and Miss Emma Baker, of Lewisburg, were entertained at the G. E. Miller home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yearick, of Altoona, spent several days last week with Millheim friends, guests of Miss Lizzie Keen. Mrs. Yearick was formerly Miss Maude Woomer and spent her girlhood days in Millheim.

C. H. Yearick, of Erie, who at one time lived in North Millheim with his parents, was one of a party of motor tourists who stopped in Millheim Friday and spent the night at the National hotel. It was 62 years since Mr. Yearick left Millheim and this was his first visit since, and he naturally noticed many changes. On Saturday the party motored to Lebanon, where Mr. Yearick was born.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Confer and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Hubler on Saturday morning started on a motor trip in the former's Ford sedan for Gettysburg and Petersburg, Va. The young men are both ex-service men and were desirous of seeing the action of the country at Petersburg, where they received their preliminary soldier training before they were sent overseas. They returned home on Tuesday.

Why Some Strike.

Eight-hour day, national agreement, shop rules, recognition of the union, sympathy are only ripples on the surface. Deep down in the unseen cause is the wage system itself, fundamentally wrong. B. M. Jewell, spokesman for the striking shopcrafts, declared that to support his family properly a man must earn over $2500 per year. He put it too strong; yet my own family of seven costs more. In 12 years of single manhood my wages averaged $800 per year and board; yet I saved up $4700, the foundation for my present moderate fortune. The claim has been made that even at the 1921 wage, bituminous miners did not average $600 per year. On the other hand, increased wages increase prices of product; and the increased cost of living leaves us no better off. Any one except a fool should know that wages enough for one will not support seven. Such folly is the wage system based on equal pay for equal work.

When a father of five wants to be honest and can't pay his bills, or cannot afford the doctor for his sick wife, he is ready to strike from sheer desperation. And his unmarried comrade who in one day at the same wage earns enough to keep him four, can afford to lay off and help the strike along. God bless the young men and women who undertake matrimony. The women who become mothers are the noblest of God's creation. Shall we continue to punish them with grinding toil, poverty, privation and distress, or is not the pain of childbirth and the anxious care over health and morals enough for their share?

Employers should pay fair wages for the single; nation, state and township should aid mothers and children. If the supply of children stops, the nation perishes, and America becomes a wilderness.

I, the watchman, have sounded an alarm.

If you send me to congress I'll do all I can to influence the other congressmen toward remedying this evil; and as a congressman, I can reach the public much better. Give me a boost. Send self-addressed envelope for my leaflet about the Laborer's Plight. Clip this article.

"I knew him when he was a boy."

What one is there of us that has not felt the glow of satisfaction over the outstanding success of a life-long friend? Often a surprise—seemingly "all of a sudden." Yet neither surprising nor sudden, when you stop to think back over each step of his progress.

THE United States Rubber Company—makers of U. S. Royal Cord Tires—were first to conceive, make and announce the balanced tire. A tire in which there is such complete unity of action in tread and carcass that neither will give way before the other.

First to conceive, make and announce a complete line of tires—a tire for every need of price and use under one standard of quality.

First to tell the public about the good and bad in tire-retailing. (You remember the phrase "Go to a legitimate dealer and get a legitimate tire.")

First also to arouse industrial and trade minds to the need of a new kind of tire competition. (Competition for better and better values. Greater and greater public confidence.)

THESE high spots along the U. S. road to leadership indicate the intent—the will to win by the quality route in a price market.

Now that so many car-owners have given their verdict for quality tires in general, and U. S. Tires in particular—a number of dealers and car-owners whose vision has been clouded by "discounts," "sales" and what not, are beginning to remember that they "knew him when he was a boy."
