Methodists to Dedicate at "State."

Tax-supported colleges are necessarily limited in what they can do for religious care of students, but denominational enterprise is trying to meet the full needs of the situation. The Methodist Episcopal church at Pennsylvania State College has completed the first unit of a building to cost one hundred thousand dollars, and to be used in meeting the religious and social needs of Methodist students and others affiliated with St. Paul's church of which Rev. Robert C. Peters is the pastor and Rev. Harry F. Babcock the student pastor. The first unit, now completed, provides class rooms for religious instruction, an assembly room, a gymnasium and auditorium. It is built of native limestone to correspond with the church building which it adjoins.

Bishop William F. McDowell, of Washington, D. C.; Bishop Francis J. McConnell, of Pittsburgh; secretaries W. F. Sheldon and E. M. Conover, and President J. M. Thomas, of State College, will be the principal speakers at the dedicatory services which will be held Tuesday, October 3rd, when Methodist preachers and laymen from all over the state will gather at State College for the formal opening.

Band Concert at Halry John's.

A band concert will be given by the I. O. O. F. band of Bellefonte, at Halry John's Park, near Woodward, on Sunday, next, September 24th. A varied program of sacred, popular and classical music will be rendered. The boy soprano and his sister promises to be an interesting feature. Every one is invited to attend.

Boy Killed By Truck.

Little John Hassinger, one and one-half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Commodore Hassinger, Windy Hill, on the outskirts of Philipsburg, met with a fatal accident Wednesday afternoon of that week about 5:00 o'clock while playing in the back yard of their home. Robert Hassinger, an older brother of the unfortunate little fellow, was driving a truck and while backing up to a coal shed, it is presumed the truck struck the boy throwing him to the ground and causing injuries from which he died while being conveyed to the hospital.

The older brother had no knowledge of the presence of the little fellow, his discovery while lying on the ground having been accidental. Mrs. Hassinger has just returned from the hospital where she had undergone a serious operation about the time the accident occurred.

The Pennsylv's Fine Record.

The Pennsylvania System operated throughout the year ended May 31, 1922, without a passenger being killed in train accident, according to a report just issued to the press. In that period, 1,400,000 passenger trains were operated over more than 11,000 miles of road, while the number of passengers carried totaled 152,000,000, which represented approximately one-seventh of the passenger business of the railroads in the United States.

THE DEATH RECORD.

HARTER.—Ephraim Harter died at his home at the Red Mill, Potter township, Monday morning at 7:55, after an illness of about one year. The last month of his life he was confined to bed. The cause of his death was tuberculosis. Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon from his home, Rev. M. C. Drumm having the funeral in charge.

The deceased was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. George Harter, both deceased, and was aged fifty-five years, one day. There survive him his wife, who before marriage was Miss Anna Royer, and three children, namely, Geo. W. of near Tusseyville; Viola, married to Lewis Cole, Springville, New York; and Miss Anna Mary, State College. Mr. Harter was well known throughout Centre county, and in many respects was eccentric. He will be recalled as a kind good neighbor and did not hesitate to help those who struck his fancy. He was a man of more than ordinary means, having inherited considerable money and real estate upon the death of his father about a year ago. He was exceedingly frugal in his habits and made no pretenses whatever. He believed in education and saw to it that his children were all educated beyond that acquired in the common schools.

TATE.—After an illness of but a few days, Miss Mary Elizabeth Tate died on Saturday morning at the home of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Tate, near Potters Mills. She had been employed at State College, and on Tuesday prior to her death went there to resume her work, but the day following was brought home by her brother on account of sickness. She had been a sufferer for some time from an affection of the heart which disease finally terminated in her death. The deceased was born April 11th, 1861, and was consequently aged twenty-one years, five months and five days. She is survived by her mother, named above, and two brothers: Merritt and Richard; the father died a few years ago.

Interment was made Tuesday morning in the Union cemetery at Tusseyville, Rev. S. C. Stover, pastor of the Reformed church at Bekisburg, having been the officiating minister in the absence of a pastor of the local Reformed church, of which she was a member.

MILLER.—On reaching the age of eighty years, five months and five days, Mrs. Sarah Miller died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Bressler, near Spring Mills, early Sunday morning. The cause of her death was gangrene, from which she suffered for a period of five or six weeks.

Mrs. Miller was a daughter of Geo. and Lydia (Harter) Moyer and was at Aaronsburg. Her husband was Daniel Miller, who died at Woodward thirty-four years ago. There survive these children: William Guisevite, Aaronsburg; Mrs. William Harter, Coburn; Thomas Miller, Spring Mills; Mrs. William Bressler, Spring Mills, and with whom the mother made her home; Harry Miller, Erie; Merrill, of Lock Haven.

Interment was made Wednesday, burial being made at Aaronsburg, the pastor of the Reformed church, of which the deceased was long a member, being the officiating minister.

ARMAGOST.—The following was sent to this office of publication, having first appeared in a local paper in Seymour, Mo.:

Another one of our older and well respected citizens is claimed by death after an illness which she has suffered from all summer. Miss Sarah J. Armagost was born in Potters Mills, Pa., Jan. 14, 1845, and died in Seymour Sept. 8, 1922, at the age of 77 years, 7 months and 19 days. She was married to Reuben M. Shirk, Dec. 22, 1870. Mr. Shirk died in 1873. There were two children born to this union, both of whom survive: Mrs. J. B. Rhodes of Seymour, and Benner S. Shirk, of Enid, Oklahoma. Before coming to this community Mrs. Shirk was a member of the German Reformed church. She attended all the churches here and was usually found in one of the churches, when she was able, on Sunday morning. She was a living example of a good Christian mother, friend and neighbor. The funeral was conducted by Rev. G. Fred Gilbert, pastor of the Methodist church, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rhodes. The large crowd in attendance and the beautiful floral offerings bespoke the great love and esteem that this good mother held in the community. The words of the text found in Psalms 127:2. "So he giveth His beloved sleep," are of great comfort to all. She is not dead, but sleepeth, and Christ said, "I go that I may awake them out of their sleep." The bereaved family has the sympathy of the community in their great loss. (The deceased is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Rosman, widow of Henry Rosman, of Tusseyville.)

BENNISON.—Mrs. Nancy Margaret Bennison, widow of the late Capt. S. H. Bennison, passed away at her home at Howard following an illness of several weeks with a complication of diseases. She was well known throughout Penns Valley, having been active in Grange work.

She was a daughter of Percy Wilson and Catherine Conley McDowell and was born at Milroy on May 28th, 1846, hence was past seventy-six years of age. When a child her parents moved to Clinton county and located on a farm in Lamar township, but some years later purchased a farm in Marion township, Centre county, where she grew to womanhood. In 1868 she married Capt. Samuel H. Bennison and they started housekeeping on a farm in Marion township where they lived until 1907 when they quit the farm and moved to Howard. Mr. Bennison passed away about twelve years ago, but surviving the deceased are the following children: P. M. Bennison, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Reed Worrick, of Mackeyville; R. H. Bennison, of Marion township; Mrs. John S. Holter, of Johnsonburg; Mrs. Emma McClintic, of Atlantic City; Mrs. William Torrence, of Belle Centre, Ohio; Dean Bennison, of Visalia, Cal.; and Mrs. T. B. Martin, of Lansing, Mich. Three children preceded their mother to the grave. She also leaves three sisters and one brother, namely: Mrs. J. W. Blair, of Belle Centre, Ohio; Mrs. Jas. Allison, of Soman, Ohio; Mrs. J. E. Tibbels, of Beech Creek, and Harry T. McDowell, of Howard.

Mrs. Bennison was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church and a woman of many lovable traits of character. Funeral services were held at her late home in Howard by Rev. Walter Fay Carson, of Philadelphia, a former pastor, assisted by the local minister, after which burial was made in the family plot at Jacksonville.

FORTNEY.—Miss Mabel Winifred Fortney died at her home in Tyrone following an illness of many months. She was a daughter of John and Jane Fortney and was born at Linden Hall, Centre county. She was a member of the Lutheran church and a sincere christian woman. Surviving her are the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. H. C. Greene, of Altoona; Verne C. Fortney, of Tyrone; Mrs. W. C. Williamson, of Williamsport, and Mrs. L. G. Riddle, of State College. Burial was made in the Grandview cemetery, Tyrone.

MUSSER.—James Willis Musser, a native of Millheim, died in a Philadelphia hospital, where he had been a patient for some weeks, following an illness with Bright's disease. He was born in Millheim on April 25, 1856, and was therefore aged 66 years, 4 months and 15 days.

Mr. Musser was engaged in the lumber business in Millheim for a number of years, but seventeen years ago went to Philadelphia, where he since resided and where burial was made.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. R. S. Stover, of Millheim, and three sons, Clyde, James and Ralph, all at home. The following brothers and sisters also survive: P. H. Ed. L. and Charles O. of Millheim; Mrs. George Cypher, of Wilkensburg; Mrs. W. G. Ulrich, of Greenville, S. C.; and Mrs. P. A. Weaver, of Altoona.

Careful Crossing Campaign.

In connection with the National Careful Crossing campaign to prevent highway crossing accidents, the following figures are interesting, showing the record of accidents of grade crossings in the United States during the past five years:

Year	Killed	Injured
1918	1,852	4,683
1919	1,784	4,616
1920	1,791	5,677
1921	1,705	4,583
Totals	9,101	24,008

After September 30th War Savings Certificates will advance in price. Up to that time you can buy for $20 a certificate that in five years will be worth $25; for $30 a certificate that will mature at $100 in five years, and for $500 your certificate will be worth $1000 at its maturity. After the close of this month certificates worth $25, $100 and $1000 will cost $20.50, $182.00 and $820.00 respectively.

Through the will of Rebecca E. Huber, late of Allentown, Bethany Orphan's Home, Womelsdorf, will receive $1500.

Group Quarterly Conference and Young Peoples' Conference.

A Group Quarterly Conference and Young Peoples' Conference will be held at Centre Hall M. E. church, Saturday evening, September 23, at 7:30.

Young Peoples' Conference in Lutheran church at same time.

The Methodist group consisting of Penns Valley, Pleasant Gap, State College and Bellefonte charges, will hold their Group Quarterly Conference in the Methodist church beginning at 2 P. M., September 23rd. Round table conference of pastors and officials at this meeting. In the same church in the evening at 7:30 the Quarterly Conference will open, followed by an inspirational and educational program. Rev. J. B. Stein, Rines, of Baltimore, Ely, E. C. Keboch, of Harrisburg; J. E. A. Bucke, of Sunbury, will be present.

The young people of the church will assemble in the Lutheran church for an important conference at 7:30.

Musser Farm Sold.

Clayton Musser sold his farm just east of Centre Hall to George W. Sharer, now tenant on the Keller farm adjoining. Mr. Musser purchased the farm, which contains some seventy acres, with good buildings, from Mrs. Kate Conley, in 1920, for $8500. The price paid by Mr. Sharer is not given out. He will occupy the place next spring.

Applying for 1923 Auto Licenses.

Applications for 1923 license tags already are being filed with the state automobile division offices at Harrisburg. The applicants not only are filing in order to get numbers early but with requests for certain numbers. These are termed "special requests" in state offices.

While there are applicants who seek certain numbers because of some special significance attached to the combination of figures, demands for so-called "poker hands" have been coming in and others are received for house number, lodge numbers and similar special combinations. Recently a request was made for a combination of numbers which meant something in a fraternity.

There have been enough requests for the first 1,000 numbers to make up a regiment at war strength.

Whitehill-Weaver.

Miss Bertha M. Weaver of Axemann became the bride of Claude L. Whitehill, of Oak Hall, Saturday afternoon, 9th inst. The young couple stole away quietly from their friends and were wedded at Lewistown by the Rev. A. Lawrence Miller at the parsonage of the First M. E. church, the beautiful ring ceremony being used. After the knot had been tied the couple left on their honeymoon to other eastern cities.

Gored to Death by Bull.

Mrs. Ida McGregor, of Centre Union, while driving cattle to a pasture field on Tuesday morning of last week, was attacked by a ferocious bull and gored to death.

Edwin McDivitt, a neighbor, heard the screams of Mrs. McGregor and went to her aid, but he was too late, for when he reached the field the infuriated beast had completed his deadly work. Mr. McDivitt found the body of Mrs. McGregor lying in a pool of blood, with life extinct. It was badly mangled and crushed by the animal's horns and hoofs. The huge beast had joined the rest of the herd and showed no further disposition to molest anyone.

The body was turned over to Undertakers Harry Brown & Son, who prepared it for burial. Mrs. McGregor was about 50 years of age and made her home with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Laney.

Bank and Trust Co. Merge.

The First National Bank and Farmers' Trust Company, at State College, consolidated by mutual agreement, the bank taking over the trust company interests. This will give the bank a capital stock of $125,000 and a surplus fund of the same amount, and give the institution fiduciary powers which will enable the institution to perform all the functions of a Trust company, both for private and corporate trusts.

The bank was organized in 1904 and the Trust company in 1913. Under the merger David F. Kapp will continue as cashier. The remodeled quarters will be ready for occupancy about the first of next month.

A man who is determined to make a fool of himself laughs at your advice before he does it, but you can always count on his coming around and begging your help afterward.

Court convenes Monday morning of next week.

70,000 Must Go Dry at Ford Plant.

The 70,000 men employed by the Ford Motor Company at Detroit were under orders from Henry Ford to leave all forms of liquor, wine and beer alone at all times, under penalty of losing their jobs.

Asserting that drinking among his employees recently had been the cause of accidents in the Ford plants, the manufacturer issued a statement declaring that any of his workmen whose breaths smelled of liquor, who were found to be carrying liquor or were known to have it in their homes would be dismissed at once.

"From now on it will cost a man his job, without any excuse or appeal being considered, to have the odor of beer, wine or liquor on his breath or to have any of these intoxicants on his person or in his home," Mr. Ford's notice to the employees said.

"The eighteenth amendment is a part of the fundamental law of the country. It was made to be enforced. Politics has interfered with the enforcement of this law, but so far as our organization is concerned, it is going to be enforced to the letter."

Assistant billing clerk is the position held by John Slack, of Centre Hall, in the Pennsylvania railroad office in Williamsport. He entered upon his duties Monday a week.

Reports from the registration committee of Bucknell University show a freshman enrollment of 240, nearly 70 of whom are women. The total enrollment will approximate 1000.

All of the laying pens on the Kerlin Grand View Poultry Farm, at Centre Hall, have been enlarged. A large number than ever of laying hens will be kept during the coming winter.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Claude G. Aikens, of State College and Miss Ruth Elizabeth Townsend, of Harrisburg, the wedding to take place Saturday, September 23rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Hosterman are now located at Scotland, South Dakota, at which place they found the temperature to be 112 degrees in the shade upon their arrival, and a hot wind blowing. Later cooler weather prevailed.

Much of the wheat throughout Penns Valley was sown last week. Previous to that very few farmers had sown. There seems to be a tendency to delay sowing on account of the fly. It must be kept in mind, however, that sowing too late is worse than the fly ravishes.

Prof. Lester E. Baird, of State College, who for two years served as supervising principal of the public schools at New Albany, Pa., has accepted the position as principal of the vocational school at Boiling Springs, Cumberland county, near Carlisle. Mr. Baird is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baird, formerly of near Centre Hall.

Merchant C. F. Emery has purchased a new FB Chevrolet car, of the Decker Brothers, Spring Mills, trading his Regal car in on the deal. Miss Margaret Emery is driving the new car, and had the extreme pleasure of "going round" the party from whom the car was purchased while taking Nittany Mountain on "high" on the first attempt.

J. C. Hosterman, editor of the Millheim Journal, and his right hand man, Orvis Scholl, were callers at this office last Friday to gather a little information on the workings of the Linotype machine, one of which Mr. Hosterman is about to install in the Journal office. Mr. Scholl will be the chief operator of the machine. Mr. Hosterman is to be commended for his enterprise, and the Reporter trusts that his patrons will show their appreciation in a very material form.

One of the most modern, substantial and handsome buildings in all Bald Eagle Valley will be that being erected by the First National Bank of Port Matilda, which structure is now well under way. The building stands on the south-west corner of the diamond formed by the crossing of the Bald Eagle Valley road and the thoroughfare leading from Storms town to Philipsburg. It is being built of light brick. The architecture delights the eye. Besides the bank, the building is being arranged to accommodate the Port Matilda post office.

It appears that a number of school boards throughout Centre county elected school teachers who failed to qualify under the law and now are not able to open the schools which they were supposed to teach. It does seem strange that young people assuming sufficient intelligence to teach a public school did not inform themselves of the requirements under the new school laws, or did they assume that the school laws could be set aside for their convenience as is done in many other minor organizations? From the best obtainable information Centre county has enough teachers who qualified under the state school rules to supply all the scholars in the county with teachers. In this event no teachers will be needed who neglected to properly qualify.
