Borough Fire Alarm.

In case of fire in the borough of Centre Hall, the Bradford & Co. mill whistle will sound:

One long and two short blasts when fire is north of Reformed church;
One long and five short blasts when fire is south of Reformed church.

The Ford plants in Detroit closed Saturday night, as Mr. Ford said they would, on account of the coal and steel interests' policy of gouging. In Detroit alone 100,000 men are idle.

South Williamsport school board has given instructions to its tax collector to resort to prosecutions for the collection of school taxes. Some of the women in that district have become obstinate, and it is intended to inform them of the law.

McSparran is not aiming to lower the standard of the schools in Pennsylvania, and in speaking of salaries for present day school teachers, at Stroudsburg, he said: "I would rather many times over take the money Finegan is using for overhead and useless employees and give it to the school teachers in the shape of salaries."

DEATH RECORD.

HOY—As a result of a fall a week previous, Hezekiah Hoy died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. E. Royer, in Bellefonte, on Sunday. Interment was made Wednesday morning in Bellefonte.

Mr. Hoy was a son of John Hoy and was reared on the Hoy homestead now occupied by a son, Sisle Hoy, west of Bellefonte, and was long prominently connected with the affairs of the district in which he lived. Both the deceased and Mrs. Hoy had passed the eighty-seventh year of their lives, and had Mr. Hoy lived until November they would have celebrated their sixty-second marriage anniversary. Mrs. Hoy before marriage was Miss Mary Flahburn. The father was the first of the family to pass away. This is remarkable on account of the age of the couple and that there were eight children, who are: Mrs. (Dr.) Austin Shuey, Prospect, Ohio; Mrs. Grant Peifer, Wilkingsburg; Mrs. (Rev.) J. W. Wagner, Boalsburg; Henry, Jacob, Sisle and Mrs. C. E. Royer, Bellefonte; Mrs. (Rev.) George B. Ely, Turbotville.

Potter Township School Teachers.

All the schools in Potter township, except one—Cold Spring—in Seven Mountains—are supplied with teachers and opened some time during last week. There are so many changes from the schedule originally given out by the directors, that the list is reprinted and is as follows:
Pine Stump—Anna Bartges.
Plum Grove—Frederic Moore.
Manor Hill—Ralph Sweeney.
Earlstown—Anna Rearick.
Centre Hill—Boise Brown.
Colyer—Russel Reish.
Dauberman—Decker.
Potters Mills—Grammar, Edgar Miller; primary, Mildred Brown.
Tussey Sink school has been closed. The pupils will be conveyed to Manor Hill.

Fork Tine Penetrates Arm.

Frank Dashem, farmer of near Potters Mills, met with a serious accident Saturday of last week. He was just beginning to load a wagon with second crop hay, when in some manner he fell from the wagon, striking the fork he had in his hands in such a manner that one of its lines penetrated the left arm between the wrist and elbow. The time was thrust its full length through the arm. A physician was called at once and has since dressed the wound several times. Mr. Dashem's condition at present is very favorable.

Hospital Patient Improving.

The Reporter is pleased to announce that Foster W. Frazier, of near Spring Mills, now at the Bellefonte hospital, is improving. He was taken to that institution Sunday a week, suffering in a manner indicating appendicitis and later it was decided that the suspicions were true. On Tuesday Mrs. Frazier informed the Reporter that her husband was improving and that an operation would not be necessary, but that she was unable to say how long he would be obliged to remain at the hospital.

Talk about state officials being rotten, and a mess to be cleaned up at Harrisburg! Well, compared to some of the stuff pulled off locally, but not in public affairs, makes the Harrisburg stench smell like a powder puff box compared to it.

The nation will rejoice with the President's family that the crisis in the illness of Mrs. Harding has seemingly passed and the first lady of the land is now from all indications back on the road to recovered health. During her critical illness she was much in the thought and prayers of a sympathetic nation.

In his Easton speech last Saturday Gifford Pinchot remarked: "The voters have not been taking enough part, in my judgment, in the government of the State." That is undoubtedly true. If the voters were taking a proper interest in the affairs of the State they would never countenance a flagrant violation of the Constitution brought about by a confessed conspiracy. In short, they would never stand for Gifford Pinchot in the Governor's chair.

Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation Army in America, a few days ago received a radio message from Bramwell Booth, commander-in-chief of the organization, notifying her that her retirement as commander had been definitely decided upon, to take effect at a date to be announced later.

Prof. H. A. Surface is no longer an independent candidate for the legislature in Snyder county. Pinchot and his party "took him over." He withdrew his candidacy just at the closing hours of the withdrawal period and at the time Pinchot and his party were touring Snyder county. Prof. Surface was a former State Zoologist and he prefers again to be on the state's payroll rather than on the Susquehanna University faculty.

Bonus Bill Vetted.

President Harding vetted the soldiers' bonus bill, on Tuesday, informing Congress in a written message that while he was in accord with "the avowed purpose" of the measure he did not subscribe to its provisions.

GEORGES VALLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reeder spent Sunday at the home of Jacob Sharer, near Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bressler were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gobble.

Mrs. H. M. Lingle and Mrs. F. M. Ackerman spent last Tuesday with Mrs. W. P. Lingle.

Mrs. S. W. Ripka and family, of Pleasant Gap, were Sunday visitors at the F. W. Zettle home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bailey, of Coburn, spent Sunday with Mrs. Lydia Lingle.

Mrs. D. C. Lingle, of Lewisburg, spent last week with friends here and at Potters Mills.

John Vonada had his home beautified by having it newly painted, and J. B. Ripka is making the same improvement on his home. The work is being done by F. M. Ackerman.

C. L. Gramley and Wife Surprised.

Last Friday evening when C. L. Gramley and wife, of Rebersburg, returned to their home from a meeting at the church they were surprised to find the large porch to their home filled with friends and relatives, that being the seventieth birthday of both Mr. and Mrs. Gramley. Needless to say, they were very agreeably surprised and the occasion was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Those present were Mrs. Naomi Heckman, of Ridgway; C. H. Gramley and wife and son, Ralph, of Rebersburg; Chas. Gramley and wife and two daughters, of Lock Haven; W. T. Hubler and wife, Samuel L. Hubler and wife, of Rebersburg; T. M. Gramley, and Miss Orpha L. Gramley, of Spring Mills; S. W. Gramley, wife and daughter, Lucille, and Mrs. June Walter, of Millheim; Sidney Krumrine and wife, Mrs. Della Shaffer, Mrs. Chestie Wert, Mrs. Hannah Fulmer, Mrs. Alice Doebler, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Royer, of Rebersburg—Millheim Journal.

"You Know Me, Al"

Ring Lardner, the famous humorist, springs a brand NEW idea in comics. The adventures of Jack Keefe, a serial story better than that ran in the Saturday Evening Post, told as a daily comic strip. Every day a laugh in a new chapter. Here's what he writes:

Friend Al: Well Al I got a big piece of news for you, they are going to put my picture in the paper every day in a cartoon called You Know Me Al, and everything I do they will draw a picture of same and put it in the cartoon, so all as you will have to do to find out how I am getting along is pick up the paper and look at the cartoon. How is that for a piece of news Al, and the paper which my cartoon will be in it is the Daily N. Y. American. adv.

Millinburg is all aglee because Postmaster General Work has written a letter to President Harding advocating that the Government build post office buildings instead of renting them. The accomplishment is a very long way off. It has been shown that the interest on building cost, not counting the items of heat, light, wear and tear and general depreciation, would be much more than the rentals paid now.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Most of the corn is on shock.

A fairly good crop of clover seed is reported in the valley.

Mrs. Oscar Gilliland was taken to the hospital Friday to go under the knife.

Mrs. Jacob Reish and Mrs. A. F. Louck are among the sick.

Dr. Frank Bowersox and wife, of Millheim, were Sunday visitors with Prof. A. L. Bowersox.

George R. Dunlap spent the early part of the week with his wife in the Bellefonte hospital.

Nelson Gummo and lady friend, of Williamsport, spent the Sabbath with his uncle, J. W. Sunday.

Samuel Markle, of State College, spent Sunday with his son, W. S., in the Gades.

J. H. Williams, wife and two sons, Fred and Ray, and their families, motored to Crystal Springs on Sunday for a pleasant outing.

J. B. Gohsen spent Saturday with his good friend, Thos. A. Frank, who is quite feeble with a complication of diseases.

G. W. Rossman and Ira Harpster, both surgical patients in the Bellefonte hospital, were discharged last week, and are improving nicely at their homes.

James Johnson, who held a good position in Philadelphia during the summer, returned home to resume his studies in the State College High school.

J. C. Baker, of Yager, Pa., was a caller at the W. E. Reed home on Sunday, and took time to greet other folks of his acquaintance. A jolly good fellow is he.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kianhans, of Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Altoona, were visitors at the J. R. Smith home the early part of the week.

Mrs. Robert Stam and daughter Miriam ended their stay here on Friday and left for Altoona where they will be joined by Mr. Stam who will accompany them home to Chicago.

Rev. English, pastor of the Lutheran church here, spent Sunday among his former parishioners, and in his absence Rev. Dr. Thomas Houts, of Susquehanna University, filled the pulpit.

Grandmother Rachel Wilson was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Wood, to the Methodist Episcopal hospital, Philadelphia, for the removal of cataract from both eyes. The operation proved successful.

Dr. Stork was very liberal with his product last week, leaving a baby boy at the Russell Barto home at Fairbrook; a little girl at the Wm. K. Goss home, and a dear little girl at the Paul Sunday home at Fairbrook.

Samuel M. Hess and wife have received an invitation to attend the marriage of Claude Gill Atkins, at Harrisburg, this coming Saturday at 6 P. M. After a brief wedding trip the couple will take up their residence at State College.

MILLHEIM.

(From the Journal.)
Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Stover and C. O. Musser motored to Philadelphia Monday, to attend the funeral of J. W. Musser, who died Sunday.

Philip Irey, of Danville, who spent some months at the home of his uncle, Dr. C. S. Musser, at Aaronsburg, on Tuesday returned to his home.

Rev. John Winkleblich, of Hartleton, was a guest of Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Daubenspeck at the Lutheran parsonage at Aaronsburg on Saturday. The reverend gentlemen were classmates at college.

S. J. and W. J. McMullin, the hustling local millers, were in Harrisburg last Thursday and Friday in attendance at the forty-fifth annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Millers association, the sessions being held in the Penn Harris hotel.

On Tuesday Ed. W. Fehl, of Aaronsburg, sold his home in the eastern part of that town to Charles W. Zimmerman, of Haines township, who will quit farming in the spring. Zimmerman recently bought a lot expecting to build, but he has now given up the idea of building. Mr. Fehl expects to make sale in the spring and move to Bellevue, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Weaver, of Millheim, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kerstetter, of Coburn, one day last week returned from their motor trip to Buffalo, N. Y., and Toronto, Canada where they spent several days at the great fair. After leaving the fair they motored to Detroit, Mich., and thence to Charlotte, Mich., where they spent several days pleasantly with Mrs. Kerstetter's uncle, A. R. Alexander.

According to Pinchot's ideas public officers can steal all they can in Harrisburg, provided they turn it over to some official who does not receive as much salary as he thinks he ought to have. That is what Pinchot would have us believe he is doing with the $5000 extra salary he got for several years in violation of the constitution. That is a great idea and one that the herd of Republican office holders will gladly imitate. One thing certain, there will be takers for all the good money that can be stolen out of the state treasury.
