

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

After the coal, the bill.
Robert Neff is teaching school at Axe Mann.

Musser Coldron is planning for a band concert on Nittany mountain in the near future.

Saturday is the date set for the sale of farm stock, etc., by Ezra Harter, at Spring Mills.

Sunday morning Rev. John H. Keller, of China Grove, North Carolina, held services in the Union church at Farmers Mills.

Clayton Musser, who sold his farm to George W. Sharer, will move to the L. R. Lingle farm at Earllystown when it is vacated next spring by H. E. Fye.

Leroy Puff is again back to Pennsylvania railroad service, which service he left to enter the World War as a volunteer. He is now in a tower, at Milesburg, but will be shifted about as occasion demands.

From Casper, Wyoming, comes the announcement that Calvin Smith, formerly of Centre Hall, is papa of a boy, who has been named John Franklin, in honor of his grandfather, J. F. Smith, former register and recorder.

A considerable number of persons from this immediate vicinity have been attending the sessions of September court, which opened Monday, in the capacity of either jurors, witnesses or spectators, if not plaintiffs of defendants in a case.

The heating plant in the Centre Reporter building is being changed from steam to the vapor system. The work is being done by a Lewisburg party. The same company installed hot water systems in the residences of W. H. Homan and L. R. Lingle.

The wheat sown during the first ten days of September is up nicely and is looking fine. That sown later is not doing quite so well, and the sowing after the 15th will need rain before much of it will sprout, except in especially well prepared seed beds.

A twig from a plum tree brought to this office by F. K. Frank has a number of healthy looking blossoms and tiny leaves on it. The tree, Mr. Frank says, has quite a number of blossoms on it. And this is proof that we have had an unusually warm September.

Miss Hazel Ripka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ripka, left on Tuesday for Virginia College, Roanoke, Virginia, where she will commence her second year in music. Miss Hazel is looking forward to completing the regular three-year course during this, her second year.

Postmaster R. M. Smith and Rural Mail Carrier William F. Keller, on Tuesday, left for Washington, D. C., to attend a postmasters' convention. They will be gone for about a week. Before returning the latter will visit Mrs. Keller at a private sanitarium at Devon, near Philadelphia.

Considerable quantities of cider are being made at the Centre Hall press being operated by the Centre Hall Evaporating Company. An electric motor has been installed and the press given a general overhauling, so that now the plant is in better running order than for some years.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Homan are contemplating an automobile trip through Illinois during the month of October. Last spring the couple retired from active farm life and moved to Centre Hall, but to date little time has been spent in idleness. The trip will be a vacation well earned long ago.

If present plans go through the Men's Bible Class in the Lutheran Sunday-school, on Sunday morning, will be taught by a Penn State student, who will be secured through the cooperation of Rev. J. F. Harkins of the State College Lutheran church. The class officers desire a full attendance.

If you want to avoid a penalty, pay your school tax before October 1st. After that date five per cent. will be added. On other taxes you will have until November 1st before the expiration of the five per cent. discount. This will be worth remembering all the more since the sky is the limit of taxes.

The Keeler company, in Williamsport, has given Harry Kuhn, of Boalsburg, employment. The company installs heating plants, and Mr. Kuhn has had some experience in plumbing. He is now boarding in Williamsport, but as soon as a house can be obtained, Mrs. Kuhn and baby will also go to that city.

Those who attended the Lewistown fair will regret to learn that their favorite in the auto races—Pay Wool—was killed in a race in Saginaw, Michigan. His Ford car ran into the fence, and the steering rod which broke, was driven through his body, killing him almost instantly. At Lewistown his Ford speedster won nearly every race and was acclaimed one of the most chance-taking drivers in the events.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Penn State won the first football game of the season, on Saturday, by a score of 54 to 0.

Wanted immediately—One cook and two girls as helpers. Write M. Mateer, Box 264, State College, of phone Bell 55.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Foss, of Altoona, spent a few days at the home of Mrs. Foss' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Emery.

Miss Stella Hosterman is back to her post in the local post office after a vacation, a part of which was spent in Johnstown.

John B. Royer, of Altoona, came to Centre Hall on Tuesday and for at least a time will make his home with his sister, Mrs. H. C. Shirk, in Centre Hall.

Col. Frank R. McCoy, of Lewistown, now in the Philippines, has been advanced to the rank of Brigadier-General. He expects to spend Christmas with his mother in Lewistown.

An extension to the home of Miss Jane Foreman is being built to better accommodate the two families living in the house. Her brother, D. R. Foreman, came here on Tuesday to help line up the work.

The sacred concert by the Bellefonte band rendered at "Haky John's," in the Penns Valley Narrows, on Sunday, attracted a large number of persons from all sections. There was heavy auto traffic in that direction for several hours.

Friends in Centre Hall of Miss Velma Simpkins, of Philadelphia, will be pleased to learn of her success in the literary field as well as in art. She has just published her first book, the title of which is, "The Little Cockalorum."

The apple crop in this region is not a big one, yet there seems to be little demand for the fruit. Many hundreds of bushels of summer and fall apples rotted under the trees from which they fell, there being no demand for them at any price.

Miss Lois Foreman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Foreman, of Bellefonte, is a student in Hood College, Frederick, Maryland. She was accompanied to that institution by her parents and brother, the latter part of last week, the trip being made in a car.

Rev. John H. Keller, who serves a Reformed charge at China Grove, N. C., is now at the home of his sister, Mrs. F. M. Fisher, in Centre Hall. He came to York to attend the Potomac Synod, and came on up the state to again visit the old home and its surroundings.

Bliss Ripka, a 1922 graduate of the Centre Hall High school, was awarded a certificate to teach in the public schools, and Wednesday opened the Cold Spring school, in the Seven Mountains. All of the schools in Potter township are now supplied with teachers and have been opened.

Mrs. Maynard Meeker, now living on Hoffer street, Centre Hall, next spring will move onto her farm, near Potters Mills, tenanted by her son-in-law, Paul Bradford. Mr. Bradford will move to the Bradford farm at Old Fort, and will succeed Roy Martz as tenant. Mr. Martz has not decided what line of work he will pursue after his sale in March.

85 Years Old Today.

The Reporter felicitates our townsman, H. W. Kreamer, on this, his 85th anniversary of his birth. Besides being the oldest man in Centre Hall, Mr. Kreamer points with pride to the fact that he is also the oldest Sunday-school member, his record for attendance being seventy-eight years.

Mr. Kreamer is enjoying remarkably good health and those not familiar with his true age would never suspect that he has passed the four score years mark. His physical appearance is that of a man at least a score of years younger. He continues to take an interest in everything that is really worth while, and has a kind word and ready smile for all.

If you meet Mr. Kreamer today (Thursday) take him by the hand and extend your felicitations.

Fire at Milesburg.

The other Saturday afternoon between the hours of two and three o'clock, the barn on the farm of William A. Thomas below Milesburg was entirely destroyed by fire. Mrs. Thomas was the only person at home at the time, the rest of the family being at a ball game at Milesburg. Neighbors seeing the smoke pouring out of the building rushed over and informed Mrs. Thomas, who immediately sent an alarm to Bellefonte and the Logan Fire Company was on the scene just as the whole barn burst into flames, making it so hot that the firemen were driven back. The livestock and implements were saved, but the entire crop of grain was destroyed, which is a heavy loss to Mr. Thomas as there was no insurance on it. The building was insured for $1,500. The fire is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. Work will be started immediately on the erection of a new barn.
