"Shuffle Along" at Opera House.
The manager of the Bellefonte Opera House has announced that he has secured the Musical Comedy Extravaganza "Shuffle Along" company to open the show season in Bellefonte this season.

"Shuffle Along" will appear one night only—Wednesday, October 4th.

This attraction carries 51 of the greatest colored talent in the country, and is absolutely one of the best shows of the season. "Shuffle Along" just finished its two-year run at the 63rd St. theatre in New York, and the people in this section will have an opportunity to see the original cast and chorus. Some of the many features of the show are the syncopated 10-piece orchestra, a knockout quartet and Edgar Conners and his pal, John Vaughner, the comedians. Conners stands 6 feet 6 inches and appears a big brother to Vaughner, who lacks a few inches of 4 feet in height. Vaughner's song, "If you've never been vamped by a Brownskin" is a hit of the show. The dialogue of this team is a riot, especially when Conners becomes the mayor of Jim Town and makes his friend Vaughner the chief of police.

The prices for this attraction will be .50, $1.00, $1.50 and a few choice seats at $2.00.

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health.
