

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lambert are contemplating taking an auto trip to Tennessee.

Shannon Boozer and several others, on Tuesday, left for Detroit and will drive back a number of Dodge automobiles.

J. H. Weber has charge of the general store of C. M. Smith during Mr. Smith's absence on a trip to the middle west.

Monday morning A. H. Spayd left Scranton to attend the sessions of the U. S. Federal court now being held there. He is there in the capacity of a juror.

Mrs. Ellen Stuart and Miss Margaret Leitzel, of State College, were over-Sunday guests of Mrs. Lizzi Jacobs, in Centre Hall. The ladies first mentioned are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. David Raymond, of Sunbury, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Kerstetter, of Port Carbon, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Mary Ritter, in this place, on Saturday.

Guy W. Jacobs attended a convention of ice manufacturers in Chicago, Ill., and returned to his home at Stuebville, Ohio, via Detroit, to see the "flivver" factory, as he puts it.

If you have any suspicion of having a leaking water pipe or hydrant, just keep in mind that if the repair is made before the ground freezes you will be saved much labor and expense.

Miss Miriam Huyett returned from the Geisinger hospital, at Danville, very much improved. She underwent two operations, one for appendicitis and another for the removal of tonsils.

Penn State cleaned up Lebanon Valley in a game of football, Saturday, on State's gridiron, by the score of 32-6. "State" thus far proved the victor against every eleven confronting them.

George Spayd, of Bellevue, Ohio, visited his brother, A. H. Spayd, in Centre Hall last week. The Ohioan is a farmer. Mrs. Catharine Mark, of Johnstown, is now a guest at the Spayd home.

Mrs. Orvis P. Weaver, in writing to the Reporter from her new home at Salona, R. F. D., under date of October 14th, says: "The cherry trees are in blossom over here, and a plum tree is in blossom, too."

Miss Catharine Bradford, of Centre Hall, a recent graduate of the nurses' training school of the Bellefonte hospital, on Wednesday went to Philadelphia to take the examination before the State Board, in the Philadelphia General Hospital.

A class of five young people were received into the Lutheran church at Spring Mills, Sunday afternoon, and two adults by letter. At Centre Hall, on Sunday evening, a class of three young people and two adults, the latter two by letter, were received into the Lutheran church.

Mrs. H. E. Grove, of Centre Hall, who some time ago had a portion of a goiter removed by an operation at the Geisinger hospital, returned to that institution recently to have the remainder of the growth removed, but upon examination it was determined that she was at this time not physically capable of bearing it.

When you cross the Seven Mountains keep a watch for the camp site opened at a point long known as "Locusts," at the second concrete bridge above Pottery Mills. Forester McKinney has erected a nobby little lean-to and a large fire-place to the front of it. If you have your lunch with you you will hardly be able to pass without taking advantage of the accommodations afforded by this resting place.

Edward Foust, of the Centre Hall High school, and pitcher on the baseball team, is the proud owner of an autographed baseball used in the recent world's series between the Giants and Yankees. The ball was used in the game in which the Giants won 3 to 0, and bears the signatures of manager J. J. McGraw and Christy Mathewson. Ed. received the ball from a young Stotten, a cousin of Christy Mathewson, whose friendship Ed. gained when Stotten was a guest at the Eutaw House, at Pottery Mills, last summer. Needless to say, Ed. prizes the stitched horseshide.

The Democratic rally in Bellefonte, Friday night, as reported to the writer, made one think we had slipped back to the good old Democratic meetings held years ago, where there was real enthusiasm and the candidates were thoroughly representative of the party principles. The meeting referred to is said to have been the best held in Bellefonte in many years, and that there were present a goodly number of Republicans who had too much respect for themselves to be the followers of a candidate who beat the constitution to it for a three thousand dollar increase in salary. The Democratic candidates, from Miss Meek up to McSparran, left a most favorable impression on every one present. If this meeting is an index, and it undoubtedly is, to what is going to happen early in November, say the 7th, there is a surprise back for the moss-makers in Harrisburg.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

It was to inspect an exhibit of harness, etc., that D. A. Boozer went to Harrisburg on Wednesday.

The band concert, on top of Nittany Mountain, above Centre Hall, Sunday afternoon, drew quite a large crowd of people from all sections. Y. M. C. A. leaders from Bellefonte were present and conducted religious services.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lucas, of Atlantic City, N. J., have been spending the past week with Mr. Lucas' brothers near Centre Hall. On Saturday, Mr. Lucas, in company with J. H. Knarr, drove to State College and enjoyed the football game.

One of the unique features that has developed in the Pennsylvania State College campaign for a $2,000,000 emergency building fund, is the formation of a "Thousand Dollar Club." The only qualification for membership is an initiation fee of $1000 to be turned over to the college fund, and obviously there are no club dues.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rickert and son Russell, of Woolrich, are spending a week with friends at this place.

William Ripka and family, of State College, spent Sunday at the home of S. E. Jordan.

William Bitner lost a heifer one day last week, and John Royer lost a valuable cow last week—the best one he owned.

Mr. Runkle, of Orangeville, Ill., was through here last Saturday evening, giving his friends good-bye as he expected to start for his home Tuesday.

Although the apple crop is not an especially large one there has never the less been quite a good deal of cider made at the press at this place. On Thursday over 2000 gallons were made and the pressing was continued over the following day.

Mrs. S. E. Jordan is not improving any at this writing.

Bellefonte Grammar Trimmed.

The Centre Hall and Bellefonte soccer ball teams met in combat on the local field, on Saturday, the result being a victory of 1 to 0 for Centre Hall. The game was well fought by both sides. A return game is scheduled to take place at Bellefonte, Saturday afternoon.

Topo on McSparran.

In a signed article, appearing in the American Issue (the Anti-Saloon League official paper) of October 14, Homer W. Topo, a dry leader, among other things said:

"For many years the Anti-Saloon League has regarded John A. McSparran as one of the most consistent and ablest friends the Prohibition cause has had among the public men of Pennsylvania. Not many years ago he served a term on the State Executive Committee of our organization. He is widely known among our leaders and everywhere he is honored by them."

Benjamin F. Focht, who for sixteen years has been a member of congress, will be an ex-congressman after the expiration of his present term. The supreme court decided that the alleged illegal vote in Snyder county must be counted. Focht pays the cost.

The Centre Reporter, $1.50 a year.

The supervisors in five townships in Snyder county were haled into court by Judge Potter, who, upon opening of the court, declared the roads had been grossly neglected and that the supervisors were responsible.

"Faithful old Bossie—"
"She shall have the best to eat that money can buy."

YES, and she is entitled to it, too. But that is not all, if you will give her the proper material with which to make milk, she will not only give more milk but will also keep giving milk longer.

Feed PURINA COW CHOW

TWO TINY WIRES

Each Bell Telephone subscriber is connected to the local central office by wires—two tiny wires.

These wires pass through a maze of cables and coils, through delicate apparatus that must be kept in careful adjustment.

And that isn't the end of it, for there must be apparatus to connect each telephone here with any other Bell Telephone in the nation.

The job of building and maintaining this complicated equipment is done by two-fisted men—men who think in terms of never failing service.

Theirs too is the task of installing new telephones, and of maintaining them.

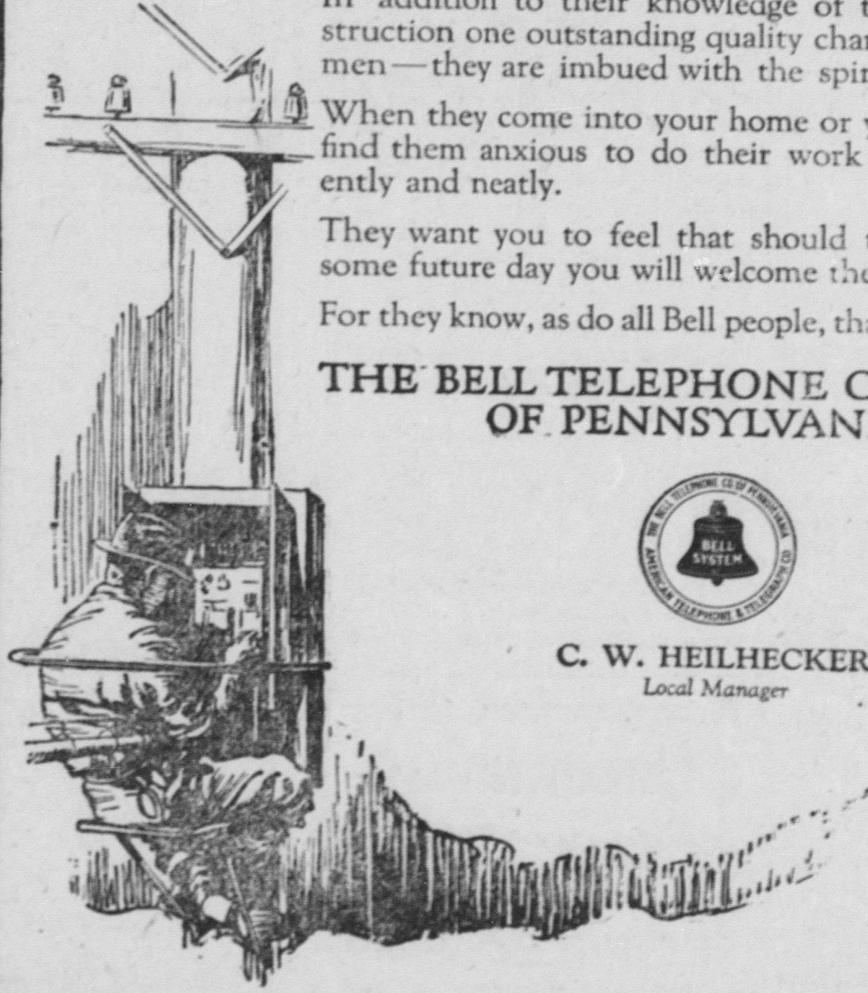

In addition to their knowledge of telephone construction one outstanding quality characterizes these men—they are imbued with the spirit of courtesy.

When they come into your home or your office you find them anxious to do their work quickly, efficiently and neatly.

They want you to feel that should they return at some future day you will welcome them.

For they know, as do all Bell people, that courtesy pays.
