

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Don't forget the Apollo Entertainers, in Grange hall, Saturday evening, 8:00 o'clock.

Shannon Booser dealt his Ford coupe to W. L. Jacobs for the latter's roadster and a cash consideration.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Runkle, near Tusseyville, early Sunday morning. Dr. Yearick states the baby is big and healthy.

"Bobby," a rat terrier, belonging to Catharine Smith, daughter of Merchant C. M. Smith, was suffocated by smoke during the fire which partially burned the store building in which he has slept since a pup.

From the Orangeville Courier, published at Orangeville, Illinois, it is learned that Mrs. Margaret Strohm and daughter, Mrs. A. E. Person, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Goodhart, in their Orangeville home.

Jerome Wilkins, who formerly worked in the Oak Hall stone quarries and lived in the Wieland store room building at Linden Hall, recently moved in the tenement house on the F. V. Jodon farm, west of Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. William Homan started on the western trip mentioned of which was previously made in these columns, the latter part of last week. They are traveling on the railroad, preferring that mode of travel to the automobile.

Mrs. Maria Rice and Miss Eliza Moore were brought to Centre Hall from State College, a few days ago, by Ambrose Rice, a son of the former, in a new Studebaker car. Miss Moore had been a guest at the Rice home for several weeks.

The Reporter would not give a secret away for less than more than half the world, but it does not consider it a breach of friendship to say that "it is reported" that one of Gregg township's female school teachers is to be married "sometime."

Clayton Homan was an arrival from Cleveland, Ohio, on Saturday afternoon, to join his family at the H. G. Strohmier home. After their visit here they will return to their home in East Cleveland, where Mr. Homan is engaged with C. G. Spring Co. of Ohio.

Charles Stump had the misfortune to fall on descending the steps in his apartments, early Sunday morning, and getting a pretty good shaking up. The alarm of fire aroused him and the sight of the blaze not over a hundred feet from him no doubt unsteadied him.

Ethel McClenahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClenahan, of near Centre Hall, brought to this office a shoot from a tame red raspberry bush well laden with ripe berries. The stalk and leaves have the appearance of spring growth and the fruit is highly flavored.

Farmers P. H. Luse and Wm. F. Rishel attended the McMahon sale of pure-bred hog stock, held at Altoona, on Saturday, the former purchasing three and the latter two fine type Berkshires. Accompanying the gentlemen home was J. E. Frost, editor of the "Berkshire World," who spent the space of a day at the Rishel and Luse homes.

The weather conditions for farm work as well as all other kinds of outdoor work, during September and October, have been ideal, and advantage has been taken of it by most, if not all persons who had work to do. Of course, work on the farm, as well as other classes of work, never becomes all else there would be too many seasons of idleness.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer were guests of their son in his apartment in the First National Bank, Tyrone, last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCormick of Columbia, South Carolina, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Meyer, of Reedsville, were also guests at the same place at the same time. The McCormicks had been at a national convention of undertakers in one of the western states prior to coming to Tyrone.

Dr. McCluney Radcliffe and Mrs. Radcliffe, of Philadelphia, made a pleasure trip to Harrisburg, Lewistown, Centre Hall and State College, passing through here Monday. While in Centre Hall they called on Capt. G. M. Boal and daughter, Mrs. D. A. Booser, and the Doctor paid his respects to the Reporter. They were accompanied by Mr. Bloom and Miss Robinson, of Lewistown. Dr. Radcliffe is an eye and ear specialist and has long been connected in a most prominent way with the Willis Eye and Ear hospital, Philadelphia.

Jacob Sharer, Jr., aged twenty years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sharer, farmers east of Centre Hall, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital, Thursday of last week, and on that day was operated on for appendicitis. His condition from prior to Sunday was quite critical, but since then has been favorable. The young man, who is robust, worked all day Wednesday but complained of pains. The family physician was summoned who pronounced the disease appendicitis and he was accordingly rushed to the hospital. The disease had already reached an advanced stage.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. F. V. Goodhart and Mrs. (Dr.) G. I. Yearick, on Tuesday, went to Altoona to attend a missionary convention of the Presbyterian church.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 14th, at 12:30 p. m., 1 mile east of Old Fort, W. F. Colyer will sell farm stock, implements, etc. Clean-up sale.

Roy Schaeffer, of Old Fort, who is devoting all his time to huckstering, has come into possession of a new Reo truck, received from the Breen agency, Millheim.

The body of Willis W. Rishel was brought from Binghamton, New York, where it lay in a vault since his death several months ago, and was interred at Spring Mills by the side of his wife.

One hundred and fifty tons of crushed stones are being hauled on the mountain road between the borough line and the point where the state aid road terminates. A light coat of gravel is first to be applied to the road.

Miss Catharine Bradford has accepted a position in the Glenn Sanitarium, State College, and has entered upon her duties there. She is a graduate of the Bellefonte hospital and later did work at other hospitals and also passed the state examination for registered nurses.

The Goodhart sale, near Spring Mills, Wednesday of last week, is termed as having been a very fair one, everything of value having brought a good price. Cows sold well compared to prices received at other sales during the past six months. The total proceeds of the sale was almost $3000.

While crossing the Seven Mountains on Monday, Frank M. Fisher in company with his wife and daughter, observed a buck and two doe deer standing quietly in the bushes close to the road. The only maneuver made by any of the trio was a bit of sniffing of the air by the stately buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ralston and son Hayes, attended the York fair and on the way acted the good Samaritan on finding a car lying in a ditch. The party was very much pleased with the fair, and laid special stress on the quality of fruit exhibited there.

Theodore Davis Boal is taking possession of the various Hess and other properties purchased at Linden Hall. The coal yards and grain house formerly operated by F. E. Wieland are being improved and will be opened for business under a new management. It is also stated that a hardware store will be opened.

An escaped convict, Frank Smith, appeared at the home of Arthur Thomas, at Waddie, and asked for food. He was recognized by Mrs. Thomas and while preparation for a meal was being made a telephone call was sent to the pen. Guards arrived in time to capture him. He had but forty-eight days of a six years sentence to serve.

Frank M. Crawford, of Bellefonte, attended the convention of the United Lutheran church in America in its ten days' session at Buffalo. Mr. Crawford is one of four delegates elected by the Central Pennsylvania Synod to be present at the assembly, which will be attended by Lutheran ministers and laymen from virtually every State in the union and from Canada and Nova Scotia.

Kids Win Soccer Game.

A spirited game of soccer ball was played on Beaver field, Bellefonte, Saturday afternoon, by the junior teams of that town and Centre Hall, a victory falling to the latter of 2 to 1. The game was quite scrappy during every quarter, and fully seventy-five per cent of it was played near to the goal of the defeated team, although the Bellefonte team was considerably heavier and older. Boodie Knarr was the mignon, but feared nothing, and defended the goal in fine form. From the remarks on the side lines made by the spectators interested in Bellefonte's success, their players, excepting the heavyweight Shope, were timid and fearful, and their tactics not as good as their foes. The game passed off nicely, and was devoid of vocal windstorm.

Dr. Maynard had the Bellefonte boys in charge and encouraged them throughout the game. Dr. Maynard is a Godsend to the youths entrusted to him. He was with them in victory and defeat—always encouraging.

The players: Centre Hall—Frank Gross, Paul Fetterolf, Ralph Martz, George Lutz, Joseph Rubie, Franklin Rubie, Byers Ripka, Russel Goodhart (substitute Albert Emery), Howard Ripky, Curtis Reiber, Bruce Knarr (substitute Wm. Slick), Bellefonte—Hoag, V. Emei, J. Shope, D. Mallory, G. Shope, D. Geiss, V. Watson, P. Watson, P. Wion, L. Shultz, C. Gray.

An amendment that you can vote "No" on is No. 4A. This amendment, if it carries, will permit the re-election of the sheriff and treasurer in Centre county. It was always considered a good idea to have these officers limited so they could not succeed themselves in office. It is just as good now.

DEATH RECORD

ROMIG.—Charles F. Romig died at his home at Snydertown and was buried at that place Tuesday morning. Mr. Romig had been confined to bed for a year or more from rheumatism and for more than six months was helpless. He was a veteran of the Civil War and was almost eighty years of age. He is survived by a wife, who before marriage was Miss Mary Beck, and two children—William and Mrs. Anna Frain—the latter at home. Some twenty-five or thirty years ago Mr. Romig and family lived in Centre Hall.

There also survive one granddaughter, Mrs. Edw. R. Bartley; one great-grandson, Arthur Bartley; one foster daughter, Mrs. Irwin Albright; also one brother, Robert, of Lake City, Minn., and one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth McAuley, of Lincoln, Neb.

Andrew Curtin Post G. A. R. conducted the services at the grave.

NOLL.—B. L. Noll, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Bellefonte hospital Monday of last week, died at that institution three days later. Mr. Noll with his family moved to State College from Jacksonville about three years ago and resided on East College avenue. Surviving him are his wife and three small children.

Brief funeral services were held on Monday at his late home, and the remains were then taken to Jacksonville for interment.

LYTLE.—Miss Laura Belle Lytle died at her home at Lemont following a long illness with diabetes. She was a daughter of Griffith and Susan Foster Lytle and was born at Lemont 65 years ago. Surviving her are two brothers, Griffith Lytle of Downs, Kan., and James, of State College. Burial was made in the Branch cemetery Friday afternoon.

WILLIAM IRVIN BETTS, For State Senator.

"The Government must be brought closer to the people themselves. Their will should be reflected in every operation." The people generally are dissatisfied with the burden of Taxation and the fact that this Taxation "is without representation." That is to say, the Political Bosses and the Contractor Combine at Capitol Hill, disregard the will and the rights of the people of this Commonwealth. The people are demanding relief from the burden of Taxation and also demand that the Government of Pennsylvania should be brought up to date. Invisibly Government of the affairs of State must cease. The Public have the power to end its control. The Political Bosses have used patronage in order that a great Political machine could be built up and maintained for the exclusive benefit of themselves, disregarding the rights of the women, men and children comprising the citizenship of our State. The burden of taxation has added mill upon mill until it has become a "millstone around the necks of the people." Every Department of the State Government should be administered solely for the benefit of the people.

WILLIAM I. BETTS.

For Congress: ELISHA KENT KANE

OPPOSES TWO-PARTY SYSTEM.

Under the Many-Party System, parties rise to push great issues, win or lose, and disband. Under the Two-party System they contend for public offices on the principle that "To the victors belong the spoils!" Naturally they frame issues and make nominations to secure the changeable votes of classes and associations who put selfish interests ahead of general welfare.

The caucus is another evil fruit of the Two-party System. Congress is no mere debating society or school of speech making. Its vast work is performed through committees on all subjects of importance. The party in power gets a majority of each committee; the other gets a minority. Then instead of getting together, they caucus separately, and the lesser party has no say. The caucus, a party's members of the whole House, is still worse. To its decisions every member surrenders his freedom of action. Party bosses crack the whip and he is driven. Of course extreme measures result. Constitutional Amendment ought to make the Senate a house of proportional representation. Until then, we can help matters by electing congressmen of independent mind who will refuse to be caucus bound and will be servants of the whole people. I'll be no rubber stamp for any person, party or interest. I shall be resolute, but never quarrelsome. I have ideas of my own but my mind is open to welcome those of others. The House contains statesmen who are like great stones for nation building. Use me for cement to hold them together.

At election my name will show with the Prohibition title only. I can be impartial and free of caucus or financial control. Excepting $100 from a friendly prohibitionist, my expenses are paid by Mrs. Kane and myself. Our object is to do our share in bettering the laws and customs of the beloved nation which has made us free, safe, prosperous and happy.

KEEP THE EGG BASKET FULL

It is largely the way you feed and not so much the season that is responsible for the eggs you get. Feed for eggs when the mercury goes down and you will get eggs.

Grains furnish much material to make yolks, but not enough for an equal number of whites. Hens can't keep the egg basket full unless they are fed a balanced ration.

Purina Chows Make More Eggs

Because they make the largest possible equal number of whites and yolks.

Purina Poultry Chows when fed as directed are guaranteed to produce more eggs or money back. If you want more eggs see us.
