

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

J. E. Noll, of near Spring Mills, retired miller and at present farmer, was a caller at this office on Tuesday.

If the vote is out in Centre county, Snyder will go to Washington, and Betts and Meek to Harrisburg.

Hoover Noll, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Noll, on Wednesday went on duty as fireman at the Bradford & Co. flouring mill.

The Penn State football team will visit Pasadena, California, on New Year's day, to participate in the big inter-sectional game at that place.

D. W. Bradford and Postmaster R. M. Smith, on Sunday made an auto-trip through Snyder county; then to Sunbury, Milton, Williamsport and home by way of Lock Haven.

Joseph Deitz, right hand man on the John Delaney farm since last spring is now being employed by Lewis Beightol, on the Fisher farm, near Penn Hall.

Mrs. Samuel Kline and Mrs. Edwir Wood, of Williamsport, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon P. Hennigh, Jr. at Centre Hall, for several days last week. Mrs. Wood is a niece of Mrs. Hennigh.

The one important thing for Democratic success is to get out the vote in every district in Centre county. Let each Democrat interest himself in seeing that his district has no stay-at-homes.

On Saturday L. L. Smith, of Centre Hall, accompanied Sheriff Dukeman to Pittsburgh, being an assistant in taking six convicts from Rockview and two from the Centre county jail to the Pittsburgh pen.

Monday and Tuesday a car load of hand-picked winter apples were shipped from the Centre Hall station by the Centre Hall Evaporating Company. Most of the fruit was of the Baldwin variety, that variety leading all others in bearing this season.

The Reporter has reliable information that John Luse and family and Mrs. Luse's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Carter, expect to locate elsewhere in the near future. Except as to the fact that they will leave town no other information is being given out.

Mrs. Thomas V. Barber and three children, of Millersburg, are spending a few days at the Reformed parsonage at Aaronsburg. Mr. R. W. Barber, of Millifinburg, and Thomas V. Barber father and brother of Mrs. Hollenbach were also Sunday callers at the Hollenbach home.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Williams are living at East Rodman, New York, instead of Watertown, that state, as indicated in the marriage notice of Mr. Williams and Mrs. L. A. Goodhart in last week's issue of this paper. The trip to their new home was made by auto over the route leading through Williamsport, Ithaca and Syracuse.

The Ladies' Civic Club, of Millheim, has undertaken to finance the cost of the foundation walls of the proposed municipal building, and if possible will do the work this fall. The work is to be done under the supervision of A. E. Bartges. The contract for the erection of the building proper is to be let by the council and work on it to be commenced next spring.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ebricht, accompanied by their son, Nestor, of Millifintown, were guests of their son, H. L. Ebricht, cashier of the First National Bank in Centre Hall, Saturday and Sunday. The elder Ebricht is a lumberman, but now is practically living retired. It was their first trip to Centre Hall, and they were very favorably impressed with the town and Penna Valley.

Mrs. Catharine Smith, of Penn Hall, became suddenly and seriously ill at her home late Sunday afternoon. She fell to the floor and became unconscious. It is thought by some that she sustained a paralytic stroke, while some of her children concluded the illness was due to overwork and strain. Monday morning her condition was better, so reported by her son, C. M. Smith, of Centre Hall.

Misses Ethel and Verna Rowe and Miss Nancy McWilliams when crossing the Seven Mountains the other night, spied two fawns crossing the road as they reached the vicinity of the Garity road. To get a better view of the fleet-footed car was stopped and backed up, and while looking at the young deer a stately buck and a doe tripped over the road ahead of them. They were more than a little pleased over the sight afforded them.

An office building is being erected on the Grand View Poultry Farm by the Keelins. The structure is 22x26 feet, two stories high. The first story is built of red brick, and the upper portion of stained shingles. The design is handsome in appearance and adds dignity to the surroundings. The lower floor will be devoted entirely to office, and will be equipped with modern office furniture. The second floor will be a store room for the catalogues, pamphlets, etc., prior to mailing out.

DEATH RECORD

Does This Mean YOU!

Subscribers who are in arrears are unconsciously working a hardship on the proprietors of their paper. Beginning this month, the price on the paper used in printing the Reporter was boosted on us, and we cannot get it without meeting bills monthly. Every subscriber who is in arrears forces us to pay real money every month for the paper which he receives weekly throughout the year and which he neglects paying for—some a year, others two, three, and even longer. In many cases it is plain oversight, for we sincerely believe there is no attempt to avoid payment, but this attitude will not pay bills, and we must expect all subscribers to pay promptly so that we can pay our creditors promptly. Probably YOU are one of several hundred who should make a remittance; if so, please do so at once. Your habit tells plainly the month and year to which you are paid.

The disarmament conference was pronounced a great success, but to date no measures have been taken to carry out the program adopted by it.

For State Senate:
WILLIAM I. BETTS

The people have made real sacrifices for their Government and they will not be controlled any longer by a set of Political Bosses. This Political Campaign is a battle for the freedom of the Government away from the control by Political rings. The old order has passed away and now they are going to exercise their free and untrammelled rights guaranteed to them under the constitution. The issues at stake are clean cut and the voters will decide for themselves the kind of Government they desire to live under, and not the kind of Government that the Political Boss has been giving the People of Pennsylvania.

ECONOMY, EFFICIENCY, REFORM AND WELFARE LEGISLATION is what the people are demanding and to rid themselves of a Political System which has grown up in this State, utterly disregarding the rights and welfare of all the people. Public Opinion is looking for the greatest possible service from all departments of our Government and to see our Commonwealth returned to the control of the people. The people want a Government that will really serve in the highest sense of the word. The people of Pennsylvania desire a clean Government and clean Politics. They are opposed to Political trickery and underhand methods. They believe Politics should be as clean as their churches, their homes and the kindred organizations to which they belong.
