

Try these Bakers' Raisin Pies —save baking at home

THERE are luscious raisin pies just around the corner, at your grocer's or a bake shop.

Baked to a turn—a flaky crust filled with tender, tempting raisins, the rich juice forming a delicious sauce.

Once try these pies that master bakers bake fresh daily in your city and you'll never take the trouble afterwards to make raisin pies at home.

Get a pie now and let your men folks taste it.

Made with tender, thin-skinned, meaty, seeded Sun-Maid Raisins.

Raisins furnish 1560 calories of energizing nutriment per pound in practically predigested form.

Also a fine content of food-iron—good food for the blood. Use raisins frequently, therefore, which are both good and good for you, in puddings, cakes, cookies, etc.

You may be offered other brands that you know less well than Sun-Maid's, but the kind you want is the kind you know is good. Insist, therefore, on Sun-Maid brand. They cost no more than ordinary raisins.

GOING ABROAD

"This fair stage person got half a million dollars out of her latest matrimonial venture."
"Court attaches said she had a far-away look in her eyes when the decision was rendered."
"That's the usual symptoms in such cases."
"Eh?"
"Monte Carlo was calling her."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

YIELDING TO FORCE

Her Mother: Nonsense! How could Jack Huggins compel you to kiss him?
Cora Coington: Why, he held me in his arms and kissed me till I just had to kiss him back in self defense.

One Point of Agreement

Held a conference every day. Had important things to say. Each one ended up in turn With a motion to adjourn.

A Matter of Spelling

Mr. Exc—I don't approve of that suitor of Helen's. He seems to be a man without principle.
Mrs. Exc—Why, 'ohn, he has a principal of $500,000, and it brings him eight per cent annually.

Speedy

Registrar—Mr. Brown, you have overcut French. Why do you go to New York so often?
Stude—Why—I er—go to see my grandmother.

Registrar—Do you mean the one I saw you with last Saturday? Wonderful how these old women get around nowadays!—Yale Record.

Clear as Mud

Englishman—What do you mean by "giving a man the air?"
American—Tying a can to him, putting the skids under him, giving him the gate or checking him out. Understand?
Englishman—Oh, perfectly. But what do all those things mean?

A Place for Reflection

Visitor from London—Do you mean to say you do nothing but lean on that fence all day? Why, I should go mad in a week!

Native of Rural Village—Aye! Some would. But it's all right for a chap who can do a bit of thinking for 'isself.

Vicious Amusement

"Don't laugh at me, boy," said the sensitive golfer who had fozzled.
"I wasn't, sir," replied the caddy. "I was laughin' at another man."
"And what's funny about him?"
"He plays golf awfully lik' you, sir."

Obedient Orders

"Did you desert your wife?" asked the Tottenham magistrate of a defendant.
"She told me to go, and I always do as I am told," was the reply.—London Tit-Bits.

Father Was in Error

Suitor—Mr. Simkins, I have courted your daughter for 15 years.
Mr. S.—Well, what do you want?
Suitor—To marry her.
Mr. S.—Well, I'm hanged! I thought you wanted a pension, or something.—London Tit-Bits.

His Status

"Paw," asked little Letser Livermore, who has an inquiring mind. "What is an honest yeoman?"
"That, my son," replied the astute sire, "is merely a polite name for a man who can be worked."

Unpleasant News for Suitor

Young Man (to messenger boy)—What did Miss Brown say when you gave her the flowers?
Boy—She asked the fellow who was sitting with her if he would like one for a buttonhole.

Not in the Inventory

"Did Jobson's purchase include also the good will of the business?"
"There wasn't any good will. It was a coal dealer Jobson bought out."

One View of an Optimist

Mr. Cheerio—Why worry over what you owe? Cheer up. Be an optimist.
Mr. Bloobody—My good fellow, an optimist is a man who hasn't enough credit to borrow trouble.—London Answers.

Flights

"How do you feel when you are soaring in flights of oratory?"
"Same as a regular aviator," said Senator Sorghum. "The soaring part is easy. What you worry about is where you are going to land."

Rev. B. M. Bridges Gives Facts in His Case

It is doubtful if there has ever been a medicine endorsed by so many ministers of the Gospel as has Tanlac. Indeed, there is scarcely a faith, creed or denomination in all the land in which one, or more, of the clergymen has not publicly expressed their indebtedness to the Premier Preparation for the benefits they have derived from its use.

One of the latest to speak out in this connection is Rev. B. M. Bridges, a widely known and beloved Baptist preacher, residing at Mooresboro, N. C., whose statement follows:
"Tanlac has given me a good appetite, toned up my system and renewed my strength in such a gratifying way that I am glad to recommend it to anyone who is in a run-down condition. For ten years past I have had such a severe case of indigestion that I could not find anything to eat that agreed with me. Finally I became very nervous and could get but very little sleep or rest."
"It seems that I took nearly everything trying to get myself right, but nothing helped me until I ran across Tanlac. My nerves are so much better now that my sleep is sound and refreshing. I enjoy my meals and have also gained weight. I can say from experience that Tanlac is a splendid medicine and tonic, for it has built me up wonderfully."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Advertisement.

Hawaiian Forests

The magnificent forests of ohia-lehua which abound on the mountain side of Hawaii carry their grayish splendor skyward for eighty or more feet, while giant tree-ferns reaching to a height of twenty-four feet give off fronds that tower still a dozen feet above. So rich is the soil in which these forests are embedded that frequently the ferns—uprooted by wild pigs which are plentiful here—continue their growth while prostrate in the dense undergrowth. Mile upon mile of trail intersecting these forests, frequently between the close, ragged lava walls, are flanked by a jungle growth of ferns and creepers.—Exchange.

The Harder Job

"Whatever became of that Prof. Richard Garner who went to Africa to study monkey language?" asked Bilkins.
"He's probably 'ramped down in New York among the cake eaters and flappers trying to decipher their talk," replied Jinks.

A reckless chauffeur is a sort of automaniac.

It is natural for a cannibal to love his fellow man.

10 Cents Gives Charming New Shade to Old Lingerie

PUTNAM FADELESS DYES—dyes or tints as you wish

First He'd Heard of It

Some years ago I was a clerk in a small country post office and did little favors for the patrons. I was asked by an old soldier to write a letter to our congressman asking why things were moving so slowly regarding his pension. I wrote an exceedingly pathetic letter. A few days later I was confronted by the postmaster with this letter, to which, from force of habit, I had signed the postmaster's name, and asked in no uncertain terms, "How come?"—Exchange.

Hooked at Last

Nora—"Yes, she dropped him a line and he came around." Dori—"I see. Landed him at last."

A minute's carelessness can undo a whole day's work.

Special Up to Date

To keep up with progress the messenger boy on the blue special delivery stamp hereafter will be seen riding a motorcycle instead of his familiar old "bike."

He has been a faithful boy, year in and year out. Who is so phlegmatic that he does not thrill and have a quickened pulse at sight of the blue rider on an important piece of mail? Yes, even though there have been times when he might more appropriately be mounted on a turtle.—Chicago Evening Post.

The Helpful Waiter

"I recommend the fish."
"Is the steak so bad?"
"No, it's out."

It is better to be happy and rich than neither.

The End

He had fifteen minutes to live. Were there no last words? Was there no one he wanted to see? Had he no parting request to make? Yes! Rising from his bed of sickness, he staggered to the phone. Was it his mother to whom he wished to bid farewell? No, it was his wife. He called her.
"Listen, Mabel, have a good steak for dinner tonight. That death scene always makes me feel tired."
"That's all; good-by!" And he rushed back to take his place again as the camera operator started taking him in his last moments.

The Marriage Ceremony

"I hear they have voted to drop the word obey." "Might as well. It didn't mean anything."

Are you among these thousands?

THOUSANDS of people keep on trying, year after year, to build health from food that has been robbed of certain elements required for perfect nutrition.

If your food doesn't contain the mineral properties that go to build up nerve, tooth and bone structure, there is no other means by which you can get these vital elements.

This is one reason why so many well-informed people eat Grape-Nuts

Get a package of Grape-Nuts from your grocer today, and give the family a help to health.

Grape-Nuts
