Week of Prayer.

The program for the week of prayer at Centre Hall and Spring Mills is by no means complete, and the Reporter is able to give only the following schedule:

Monday night, January 1, 1923: At Centre Hall, in the Evangelical church; sermon by Rev. C. F. Catherman.

Tuesday night: At Spring Mills; sermon by Rev. Catherman. At Centre Hall, in the Evangelical church; sermon by Rev. J. F. Bingman on the subject "Thanksgiving and Confession."

Wednesday night: At Spring Mills; sermon by Rev. Bingman; subject the same as above. At Centre Hall, in the Presbyterian church; sermon by Rev. Frye on the subject "Church Universal."

Thursday night: At Spring Mills; sermon by Rev. Frye; subject same as above. At Centre Hall, in the Reformed church.

Christmas Entertainments.

A Christmas service will be given in the local Methodist church on Thursday evening, December 21st. A pleasing feature of the program will be a play entitled "Aunt Sabriny's Christmas," given by the young people. Everybody welcome.

A Christmas service entitled "A Salvation" will be rendered in the local Reformed church, Friday evening, December 22, at 7:30 o'clock.

"Great Joy" is the title of a Christmas service that will be rendered by the Reformed Sunday-school, Spring Mills, on Sunday evening, the night before Christmas.

The Lutheran church at Centre Hall will render a pageant of the nativity, entitled "The First Christmas," Sunday evening, December 24th.

Spring Mills Lutheran church will render a Christmas service entitled, "His Star," on Saturday evening, December 23rd.

George Valley Lutheran church will render a cantata, entitled "The Christmas Message," on Christmas evening—December 25th.

Habbershon, Edendale; Mary F. Craun, Sandy Ridge; Glenn R. Mitchell, Fleming; Elizabeth Fisher, Fleming.

Jackson Day Dinner.

Jackson Day will be observed by the Democrats of Centre county by a dinner, on January 8th, at the Bush House, 6:30 o'clock. No formal invitations will be issued. See your district chairman, secure a blank from him and after it has been filled out, send it and $1.25 to County Chairman Oscar Gray, Bellefonte. If you act in time, which must be before January 4th, you may be one of the privileged diners.

The speakers will be Hon. Roland S. Morris, Philadelphia; Hon. Charles J. Reilly, Williamsport; Hon. William I. Betts, Clearfield.

Threshermen Meet.

Centre County Threshermen and Farmers' Protective Association will hold their annual meeting in the Grand Jury room in the court house on Saturday, December 30th, at 10 a. m. Important business will be considered at this meeting and a full attendance is desired. A representative of the Threshermen's Insurance company will be present to report 1922 business and explain some new and valuable features of this company.

Boiler inspection and registration of traction engines will be handled. Every farmer, thresherman, saw mill man and employer of labor will learn something of interest and profit at this meeting.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

John Martz is acting in the capacity of janitor at the Grange hall and the Presbyterian church.

Messrs. J. B. Spangler and John Nef were two citizens from south Potter to call on the Reporter on Tuesday.

D. S. Baker, of Vicksburg, is assisting Station Agent W. Frank Bradford during the absence of D. Milton Bradford.

Our soldiers averaged twelve times at church in a year, according to an army report. If civilians of the country only had as good record.

The temperature on Tuesday night fell to within two degrees above zero before midnight. Toward morning the temperature was moderated very much.

Mrs. Sattie Bohn, of Coburn, presided over the Clyde Bradford household, in Centre Hall, during the time Mrs. Bradford was off on a vacation trip to Philadelphia and other points.

Peter B. Jordan and Daniel Jordan, of Colyer, were not deterred from leaving home on the coldest day to date in December, for on Tuesday they drove to town to transact business at various places here.

The mail car on the local railroad branch was manned by two mail agents during the past ten days. Two cars instead of one were devoted to handling the mail, which has been to, if not over, the usual quantity for the Christmas season.

Dr. D. K. Musser, the dentist, may again be found at his former place of business, in what is now the Rishel property, formerly the John M. Luse home, in Centre Hall. He is ready to again engage in his profession. This is a good bit of news, for the need of a dentist of Dr. Musser's type is great.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wright, of Crown Point, Indiana, are expected in Centre Hall on Saturday to remain over the Christmas season with the latter's father, Samuel Shoop, and Mrs. Shoop. This will be their first visit here in ten years. The Shoops are looking forward to their coming with much interest.

Next spring Harry C. Reish will begin gain farming and will operate the A. P. Krape farm. He will take over the implements used by Mr. Krape, his father-in-law, thus obviating the holding of a public sale by Mr. Krape. Mr. Reish, until spring opens up, will be found in the G. O. Benner store, where he is clerking.

Miss Elizabeth Boozer, a trained nurse in the Allegheny General Hospital, Pittsburgh, came to her home in Centre Hall, on Tuesday, and will remain here until after Christmas.

A. J. Eungard and daughter, Estie, of near Penns Cave, were callers at this office a few days ago. Mr. Eungard is farming the old homestead and is making a success of it.

The butcher sells a lot of meat because he knows just how to get the choicest cuttings from what used to be a cow.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The sixth Community Sale was held at Bellefonte, Saturday, 16th, inst.

Mrs. Grace McCoel, of Spring Mills, came up to Centre Hall on Friday to visit her father, A. C. Ripka.

Harold Keller, a freshman at Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, is at his parental home in Centre Hall for the Yuletide.

Harry Weaver, employed in the Pennsylvania railroad shops at Altoona, came home Friday for a short visit with his family.

Mrs. Annie Kilnefelter, of Tusseyville, went to Bellefonte, on Friday, where she will stay at the home of Charles E. Gates for several weeks.

On Saturday morning Mrs. John A. Martz and two children, of Centre Hall, went to Birdsboro to spend a week with her niece, Mrs. Jerome Auman.

This is the time of year when various societies and organizations elect officers. Give us a list of officers elected and we will cheerfully publish them.

Mrs. P. Roy Dutrow, of Williamsport, came to Centre Hall to spend the Christmas season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Spayd. Mr. Dutrow is due here next Saturday.

Miss Carrie Sweetwood, a trained nurse, who makes her headquarters in Philadelphia, is expected home for the Christmas season. This is dependent, however, on how well the case she is now on progresses toward recovery.

Mrs. W. H. Blausner, who conducts the Blausner store at Pottery Mills, was a pleasant caller at this office last Thursday. Having the true Christmas spirit within her, she decided to make two of her relatives happy throughout 1923 by having the Reporter sent to them each week.

Maybe the reason that so much out-of-town Christmas shopping is being done is that local merchants have not interested their trade in their own goods through advertising in the home paper. The fellow who goes after the business is the one who gets it, and advertising is the best known way of going after it.

During the Christmas season many strangers will be entertained by the Reporter readers, and mention of all of them will be made in these columns if those who entertain will go to the trouble to inform a representative of this paper. Any item of legitimate news is always welcomed here. Will you not please pass it on to us?

During Thursday of last week snow fell to the depth of from four to six inches, and the day was quite cold. Snow began falling between four and five o'clock a. m., and continued throughout the greater part of the day. During the following night it moderated sufficiently to melt the snow so that the brisk wind was unable to chase it and block the roads.

With the first issue of the Reporter in January credits on subscription paid will be indicated on the pink label which will appear at that time. If you have not paid your arrearages recently and wish a more creditable showing on your label, kindly send a remittance to this office before the first of the year. We trust that a number who should will start the new year with a clean slate.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bittner, of near Tusseyville, last week, attended the funeral of Miss Mary Neyhart, at her home in Buffalo township, near Mifflinburg. Miss Neyhart was almost eighty-five years of age and was a cousin to Mr. Bittner. The following brothers and sisters survive: Simon Neyhart, of Rittenberg; John H. Neyhart, of Buffalo township; Jacob Neyhart, of Lochiel; Mrs. Elizabeth Kaler, of Lewisburg, and Mrs. Lydia Mamery, of Selingsgrove.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Luse and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Carter, Wednesday of this week, took up their residence in Williamsport, where they purchased a home a few weeks ago. They had planned to leave town the beginning of the month, but it appears the party who occupied the house was unable to vacate it until a few days ago. The household effects were conveyed to their new home by auto—a truck taking a load last week—and the remainder was carried there by a large moving van on Wednesday. The families followed in autos.

A hunting party from Coatesville, camping in the Seven Mountains back of Linden Hall, was in somewhat of a stew and created some stir in the valley when they reported, one day last week, that one of their party had disappeared without leaving a trace. It appears that a friendly tussle with a companion hunter resulted in his being injured somewhat, and next day he remained at the camp instead of going along with the hunting crew. When the hunters came back they failed to find their man, and at once gave alarm. He could not be discovered, and finally, as a last resort, the news was telephoned to his family at Coatesville. Instead of the family being exercised over the incident the hunters were somewhat astonished that the missing man was at home and safe.

DEATH RECORD

KRUMRINE.—Dr. Henry A. Krumrine died Thursday night of last week at his home in Williamsport, following an illness of several months.

A few months ago he was forced to give up his dental practice on account of ill health, due to kidney trouble, as he gradually failed in health until four weeks ago he became bedfast and declined rapidly. Dr. Krumrine was a member of all the dental societies, the American Dental Association, State Dental association, Susquehanna Dental association, and the Locoming Dental society. He first practiced in Milton, later in Williamsport, and for the last few years in Newberry. He was born at Spring Mills, and was a son of Henry Krumrine, Sr. His age was about 66 years. He was a member of the Locoming Presbyterian church and was affiliated with the Masonic bodies. He is survived by his wife and three brothers: Edward, Albona; Fred, Milton; Elias, Rebersburg. Mrs. Israel I. Grenoble, of Gettysburg, also survives.

STOVER.—James Stover, a lifelong resident of Bellefonte, died at the Bellefonte hospital Wednesday of last week following an illness of several weeks with a complication of diseases. He was a son of Daniel H. and Kate Huey Stover and was born in Buffalo Run valley on Christmas day, 1877, hence was almost forty-five years old. He is survived by his mother, living at Coleville, and the following brothers and sisters: Harry, of Altoona; Lloyd, of Bellefonte; Guy of Cleveland, Ohio; Beryl and Elvin, at home; Paul, of Tarentum; Miles, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mrs. H. B. Mattern, in the western part of the state.

BILLETT.—Mrs. Charlotte Billetts died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. Clarence Waite, in Tyrone, following four months' illness with a complication of diseases. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Robb and was born at Nittany, Centre county, on January 22nd, 1850, hence was in her seventy-third year. She is survived by four daughters. Burial was made in Birmingham.

NEARHOOD.—Mrs. Elizabeth C. Nearhood, wife of Edwin C. Nearhood, died at her home at Sheraden, near Pittsburgh, following a three weeks' illness with pneumonia. She was a daughter of John J. and Sarah C. Ocker, and was born at Rebersburg fifty-five years ago. During the early part of their married life Mr. and Mrs. Nearhood lived in Centre Hall where Mr. Nearhood was employed by Wolf & Crawford, general merchant, and later removed to Bellefonte where he held a similar position in Yeager's shoe store and also as shipping clerk in the Potter-Hoy hardware store. Seventeen years ago they moved to Sheraden and that has been their home ever since. Mrs. Nearhood was a member of the Methodist church and of Cyrus Chapter No. 78, Chapter of the Eastern Star.

In addition to her husband she is survived by one son, Harry Nearhood, of Pittsburgh, two sisters and one brother, namely: Mrs. A. E. Haugk, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. J. W. Ruhl, of Mifflinburg; and Forrest J. Ocker, of Bellefonte.

Young men starting out in life will not be able to follow the footsteps of the late John Wanamaker, the merchant prince. He began life at twenty-five per week. There are no such jobs today. $2.50 might buy for the young man of today a necktie, but neither hat, shoes nor shirt, and then most of our young fellows feel they ought to start where Mr. Wanamaker quit.

C. J. Goodnough, of Emporium, has Governor-elect Pinchot's support for speaker of the house. He is an out-and-out Eighteenth Amendment man and subscribes to all the other positions of the Pinchot platform.

Pianos and Player Pianos.
George E. Meyer, the piano man at

PINE GROVE MILLS.

To everybody a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick was entertained at supper on Sunday at the home of Postmaster Barr.

Miss Edna Gearhart was admitted to the Bellefonte hospital for an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Etta Corl is shy type of her best cows that were crushed to death under a topping straw stack.

For the third time the Presbyterian S. S. has gone over the top for the Armenian sufferers.

Edgar Gentzel moved from Shamokin to State College last week. He was a former Gregg township resident.

The Catharine Johnson farm at Pine Hall was sold to James Markie of State College for $30,200.

Pennsylvania lodge No. 276, I. O. O. F., will hold their annual banquet in their hall on Friday evening, Dec. 23. The Odd Fellows orchestra will furnish the music.

George Deter, a Civil war veteran, member of Co. E, 45th Pa. Vol., was run down by a passing automobile several weeks ago and on Friday was discharged from the Bellefonte hospital and taken to his home at Graysville.

The Lutheran S. S. will hold their Christmas entertainment on Christmas eve; the Pine Hall Reformed S. S. will hold theirs on Christmas evening; Pine Hall Lutheran on Saturday evening, Dec. 30th, while the Presbyterian S. S. will be content with a treat of fruit, nuts and sweets.
