PINE GROVE MILLS.

Rev. J. S. English is sporting a new Studebaker-Six.

Among the sick are Mrs. William Ralston, E. E. Page, John English, Mrs. W. Frank, Mrs. Basf Frank.

Henry McWilliams left for Lancaster Thursday to visit his brother-in-law, J. C. Buchwalter, who is seriously ill.

Mrs. Alfarretta Goss is slowly recovering from her fall downstairs and is able to go about.

Mrs. James Swabb and Harry Keller, of Linden Hall, spent Sunday at the J. H. Williams home here.

Mrs. Rebecca Davis visited relatives in the Mountain City the Yuletide season.

Holy communion will be held in the Lutheran church here next Sunday at regular hour. Preparatory services on Friday evening.

Wm. Jacobs, a Civil war veteran, and his wife, are confined to bed suffering of bronchial trouble. Their daughter, Sarah, of Phillipsburg, is attending their needs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dale and daughter Virginia spent Sunday in Bellefonte with Mrs. Kate Saunders who is near the brink so that her recovery is doubtful. She has suffered a relapse.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson and brother Walter motored up from Philadelphia to spend Christmas among Centre county friends. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson accompanied them home on Saturday.

The most enjoyable social event of the season was the Odd Fellows annual banquet last Friday evening. Covers were laid for 176 and all taken. The Odd Fellows orchestra furnished excellent music for the occasion. D. S. Peters as master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Laura Krebs attended the marriage of her niece, Miss Katharine Musser, eldest daughter of A. J. Musser, at Indiana, Pa., to Mr. Peeler, a rising young attorney of that city, on the 23rd, at 12 M. After partaking a dinner the newlyweds departed for a brief sojourn in eastern cities, and upon their return will begin housekeeping in Indiana.

Day after Christmas at 8 a. m., Elmer R. Stevens, of Huntingdon, and Miss Helen E. Bloom, of the Branch, presented themselves at the M. E. parsonage equipped with the necessary documents from Register Sasserman, Rev. J. E. McAlaery, in his happy mood, made their hearts beat as one. After congratulations they departed for the bride's home (Elmer P. Bloom) where a wedding feast was served. The bride is a splendid young lady well fitted for the new position she assumes. They expect to reside at Huntingdon for the present.

DEATH RECORD

NEFF.—A little child, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Neff, of near Boalsburg, died very unexpectedly on Friday, December 22, and caused great grief to the parents. His age was three months. Interment was made Sunday following, at Tusseyville.

STOVER.—Aaron Stover died at his home in Woodward on Dec. 26. Born Jan. 5, 1849, he was aged 73 years, 11 months and 21 days. He became a member of the Reformed church in his early life. He was married on Jan. 4, 1872, to Elizabeth Orndorf, who survives him. They had thus passed the fifty year mark of wedded life, their Golden Anniversary having occurred on Jan. 4, 1922. The funeral services were held in the Evangelical Association church at Woodward on last Friday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. John S. Hollenbach, pastor of the Aaronsburg Reformed charge.

GEHRET.—Mrs. Katie Strouse Gehret died of pneumonia at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Jackson, at Chambersburg, on the 26th of December, aged about 70 years. She was the widow of H. Gehret, of Bellefonte, who died three years ago. She then lived with her three surviving children in Chambersburg. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Emanuel Pyle, of State College, and a host of nephews and nieces, among whom is Wm. H. Homan, of Centre Hall. She was the youngest daughter of Thomas and Eva Strouse, deceased, of Pine Hall. Burial was made at Chambersburg on Dec. 29th.

McWILLIAMS.—William Constantine McWilliams, a boyhood resident of Ferguson township, passed away at his home in Cherry Valley, Ill., to which locality he went about fifty years ago. His age was a little over seventy-one years. In the fall of 1892 he married Miss Amanda McKibben, of Freeport, and she survives with two daughters, Helen and Berenice. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Cyrus B. McWilliams, Mrs. J. C. Goheen and Miss Mary McWilliams, all of Tyrone; Mrs. R. G. Goheen and Mrs. William G. Gardner, of Baileyville, and George, on the old home farm. Burial was made at Freeport.

WALTERS.—Mrs. Levina Walters, widow of Amos Walters, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Walters, in Lewistown, Wednesday morning of last week. She was aged 76 years, 9 months and 10 days. She was confined to bed by illness the past seven weeks, suffering of bronchitis and pneumonia.

Her maiden name was Levina Stoner. She was a native of Millheim; she leaves three sons and three daughters: John Walters, Lewistown Junction; Oscar Walters, of Ferguson Valley; William Walters, of Millroy; Mrs. James Houser and Mrs. John Blair, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. Samuel Collier, of Lewistown.

The following three brothers and three sisters also, survive the deceased: David Stoner, Centre Hall; Mrs. George Zerby, Penn Hall; William Stoner, of Ohio; Reuben Stoner, of Kansas; Mrs. William Mays, of Millheim; Mrs. Susan Long, of Tusseyville.

She was a member of the Evangelical church, Locust Grove, for sixty years.

The relatives and friends met at the Collier home, in Lewistown, Saturday morning, 8 o'clock, and from there went to Spring Mills where the services were conducted in the Lutheran church, burial in the Lutheran cemetery at Spring Mills, Rev. M. A. Kenneley, pastor of the Lewistown Evangelical church, officiated.

STOVER.—Philip D. Stover died at the home of his son, Rev. G. R. Stover, in Hillsboro, Oregon, aged 88 years, 4 months and 20 days. A second son, Edgar, of Salem, Oregon, also survives. He was born in Clinton county and married Hattie E. Stambach, of Aaronsburg, in 1870. He served in the Civil War, having been a member of the Pennsylvania 11th volunteer infantry. He received his honorable discharge at Balls Bluff, Va., in 1865, having been in 33 battles and skirmishes. He was captured by the rebels at Yellow Horse, August 17, 1864, and sent to Petersburg prison and from there to Libby prison, thence to Belle Island, and from there to Salisbury, N. C., where he made his escape November 9, 1864, and re-entered the Union lines. He rejoined his regiment at Hatcher's Run and served until honorably discharged.

Mr. Stover was a man of education and wide reading and from 1870 until 1873 was editor and publisher of the Millheim Journal, and during the eighties edited the Havana Republican at Havana, N. Y.

SHEFFLER.—Mrs. Frances Harrison Sheffler, widow of the late John Sheffler, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Sasserman, following five days' illness with an affection of the liver.

She was a daughter of Thomas and Ruth Purey Harrison and was born at Pleasant Gap eighty-two years ago. Her girlhood life was spent in that place but a good part of her life since her marriage to Mr. Sheffler fifty-eight years ago had been spent in Bellefonte. Since the death of her daughter Kate several years ago she had made her home with Mrs. Sasserman. She was the last member of a family of ten children and of her ten children only five survive, as follows: Mrs. Fearon Hughes, of Niagara Falls; Mrs. Aehler Adams, of Sunbury; Mrs. John Inglebaugh, of Sharon; Clyde, of State College; and Mrs. Frank Sasserman, of Bellefonte.

PATTON.—T. Blair Patton, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania Industrial Reformatory at Huntingdon, and formerly postmaster of Altoona for a period of more than fourteen years, died at his residence at the reformatory after an extended illness, aged a little over 52 years.

Office holders at Harrisburg will not need be too much alarmed about the Pinchot economy. A man who is willing to spend several hundred thousand dollars for the nomination for governor is not likely in the long run to fail to open the till for the boys. When Spruill went into office, the promises he made the good people of Pennsylvania would fill a book. We all know what happened when he got it into his noodle to be a candidate for president. Pinchot has had presidential aspirations for some years and to succeed he must make friends by giving and at the same time make a pretense of being an economist.

Union County Politician Dead.

H. H. Baker, well known Union county politician, treasurer of the Union County Republican committee, was found dead in bed at his home in Milesburg about 9 o'clock Friday morning, Dec. 22d. The discovery was made by members of the household who went to call him when he failed to arise as usual. His age was 62 years.

his sixty-sixth birthday on Thursday of last week. He has very much improved in health, and to some extent can walk without a cane. The restoration of his health is a source of worry to some of his political opponents.

The State legislature met and organized on Tuesday.

Working harder every day, every day.
