REBERSBURG.

Several ice houses have been filled during the past week.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Brungart, one day last week.

Charles Brungart, last week, moved from Wolf's Store to Smulton, into a part of Henry Shower's tenement house.

Charles Mallory, who was employed at Pittsburgh, returned home and is on the sick list.

Floyd Gramley and family, of Horsehead, New York, spent the Christmas season with relatives at this place.

Mrs. George Bruchbill, who spent the past few months at Pittsburgh, returned to this place last week.

William Bair was called to Altoona on account of the serious illness of his son, George, who has been an invalid for several years.

One night last week Clark Gramley suffered a light paralytic stroke which affected his speech for the time being. He has since almost entirely recovered.

Lee Kidder is a fox hunter of some note, and on last Wednesday shot three foxes—one red and two of the grey variety.

LOOSE. Mrs. Lydia Loose, widow of the late Samuel Loose, died at the home of her son, W. E. Bair, on last Sunday a week ago. She was buried the following Wednesday at this place, in the Lutheran and Reformed cemetery.

One day the past week while Allen Brungart was watering a bull, the animal suddenly turned on him. Although Mr. Brungart was armed with a dung fork, which he used on the infuriated animal very lavishly, the bull did not mind the treatment in the least and succeeded in backing Mr. Brungart against the manure shed wall where he gored him to such an extent that he was obliged to take his bed for several days. Had it not been for the timely aid Mr. Brungart received he doubtless would have been gored to death.

SPRING MILLS

Happy New Year to everybody. Ralph Bartges, of Newberry, was a visitor at the C. C. Bartges home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myers, of Sunbury, spent the holidays at the C. G. Decker home.

Grover Gentzell and family, of Harrisburg, were visitors at the George Gentzell home during Christmas vacation.

The week of Prayer services began in the Evangelical church on Tuesday evening. Rev. C. F. Catherman of the Methodist church preached the first sermon.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

It's blue and yellow all Pennsylvania autos are carrying.

1922 had 53 Sundays, the year beginning and closing with a Sunday.

Just before the rains of last week set in, the reservoir was on the point of overflowing.

Capt. G. M. Boal is on one of his mid-winter visits to the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Meyer, at Reedsville.

Philip and Stuart Musser, of Centre Hall, have obtained employment in Akron, Ohio, and are now located in that city.

Mrs. F. A. Foreman, of State College, was a guest of her sister Mrs. L. R. Lingle, in Centre Hall, on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mrs. Boyd, who for several weeks was housekeeper for Mrs. John G. King, in Centre Hall, returned to her home a short time ago.

Jacob Sharer, Jr., of near Centre Hall, went to Jersey Shore, last week, with the expectation of becoming a fireman on a freight engine.

Miss Phoebe Potter, of Pennsylvania Furnace, last week, visited Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs in Centre Hall. Miss Potter makes her home with her nephew, Isaac Campbell, and for one of her age—past eighty years—is quite active.

The Shreckengast family, east of Centre Hall, last week entertained Miss Ruth Wieland, of Philadelphia, a superintendent of a department in the Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia. She is a daughter of the late Newton Wieland, formerly of Brush Valley, but who later with his family moved to Williamsport.

Miss Verna Hanna, of Youngstown, Ohio, visited her grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Bauser, at Potters Mills, for a short time at Christmas. Miss Hanna is engaged in instructing telephone operators in the more advanced methods of operating the complex switch boards found in the large Bell telephone exchanges.

Charles Taylor, aged fifteen years, son of the late John Taylor, of Colyer, who accidentally shot and killed Irvin Meiss a few weeks ago, was sentenced by Judge H. C. Quigley to Glenn Mills reform school. The jury who held the inquest gave a verdict of accidental killing through negligence. The boy had never before or since been accused of wrong doing. He was taken to the school last Thursday by Sheriff Duke-man.

Just Now - -

IT is a real and lively sense of duty that prompts us to express to our Centre Hall friends our appreciation of their patronage during the past year.

Old friends have made many new ones during 1922 for Altoona and its famous Booster Stores and Institutions.

Right here let us call your attention to the special advantages to be derived from a visit to Altoona Booster Stores early in the new year.

"Move Quickly" Prices for reasonable merchandise are in order because inventory is at hand, lots have been broken and merchandise has been handled, making it advantageous to you and to the merchant to clear his shelves to make room for Spring offerings.

Along with the hope that you will take advantage of these wonderful opportunities to buy reasonable merchandise at good savings, we wish you a full measure of prosperity and happiness for 1923, and pledge our continued efforts to serve you faithfully and most economically with the best obtainable.
