REBERSBURG.

Mrs. Hiram Wert is on the sick list. Mr. Stanley, of Williamsport, purchased the Jacob Kerstetter home in West Rebersburg.

Ammon Strayer and wife, of Jersey Shore, spent the past week among relatives at this place.

Rev. McClellan is spending the week in the western part of the state with his children.

Miss Sarah Corman, who spent the past few weeks among relatives, left on Monday for her place of employment at Mansfield, Ohio.

Fisher Mowery, who is employed at Millinburg, spent the past week at this place under the parental roof.

Mr. Benage has rented the Mrs. Wesley Hackenberg farm. The present farmer, George Day, will make sale this spring and quit farming.

Mr. Bender, the west-end garage man, who was on the sick list for the past two months, is again able to attend to his business at his garage.

Mr. Daveler, who conducts a hotel in the Corman-home at this place, has rented the old hotel stand in town and will move there April 1st. The property now occupied by Mr. Daveler was sold recently to William Torbet, of Pittsburgh, who intends occupying the place himself.

On Saturday evening, while the young folks of the town were engaged in coasting along the east side of the local cemetery, a ghost appeared very unexpectedly in their midst, and in less time than it takes to relate the story not a soul was to be seen on the coasting grounds—all had disappeared to a place of safety, leaving their sleds behind, some lying upside down and others standing crossways in the road.

Jack Gulsewite says the critter was within grasping reach of him and had it not been for his fleetness of foot he sure would have been a gone sucker! Now we are sure the ghost was not in quest of coasters, as they were not molested by him, but we presume he wished to reprimand such who are disobedient at home, as well as in the school room. Now, my young friends, from now on obey your parents and when in the school room obey your teacher and be studious, and it is certain that never again will you be molested by wandering ghosts.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holderman spent Saturday afternoon at State College.

Boyd Jordan returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Jordan, Saturday afternoon, from Ft. Wayne, Ind., where he had been attending a business college.

Floyd and Emily Jordan returned to Schuylkill Seminary last Wednesday to resume their studies after spending the Christmas vacation at the parental home. They were accompanied back by Miss Maggie Young who will be employed at the Seminary the remainder of the term.

(From last week.) Misses Anna Martz and Mary Fortney sent Christmas with friends in Altoona.

William Rockey is suffering with blood poison in his hand. Little Mary Swartz is under the doctor's care.

Paul Emenhizer moved from Edward Brown's house into William Rockey's house. Mrs. Frank Brown is on the sick list.

MILLHEIM.

(From the Journal.) Mrs. G. F. Kolb, of Battle Creek, Mich., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gramley.

Mrs. W. S. Musser returned home a few days ago from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Nestle Bowman, in New York City.

Mrs. Lida McCloskey and two children, Jack and Pearl, returned home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Richey, at York.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stover and son Franklin visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Morris, at Williamsport, during the week. While there Mrs. Stover had her tonsils removed.

Miss Sadie Miller, of Philadelphia, and Charles Miller, of Lewisburg, spent several days during the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Miller, of Penn street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fertig and daughter, Hattie, of Lewisburg, and Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Fertig, of Franklin, Ind., were guests of Mrs. E. S. Charles.

Mrs. S. A. Cole, of Mansfield, Ohio, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Orvis M. Shull, of North street. She was accompanied east by her niece, Miss Sara Corman, who makes her home with the Coles, and is visiting her father, G. A. Corman, at Rebersburg.

Hospital Head Drops Dead

Miss Cornelia Happersett, superintendent of the Lock Haven hospital, dropped dead about 1:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon while walking from the hospital to the nurses' home. Miss Happersett came to the hospital a number of years ago from Washington, D. C.
