LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. M. C. Delaney, on Wednesday morning went to Nittany to spend a short time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Yearick.

Breon's garage, Millheim, offers a number of high-class automobiles for sale cheap. Look up their ad on the last page of the Reporter.

Timothy has made the second advance of one dollar during the past week. No. 2 Timothy is now quoted at $22-$23 in the city markets.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Smith, of Centre Hall, are attending the big auto show in Philadelphia, having left here for that city on Wednesday morning.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Weaver, east of Centre Hall, on Sunday morning. She is the first girl in the family, there being two boys.

Attorney N. B. Spangler came from Bellefonte to Centre Hall on Tuesday to spend a few hours with his mother, Mrs. Sarah J. Spangler, at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. W. Crawford.

The Lock Haven lodge of Elks has formed a twenty-piece band with Charles L. Schadt as leader. The band will make its first appearance in connection with the Elks' minstrel in February.

It is remarkable how prompt the average Centre Hall citizen is to clean the snow from the walks after a light or heavy snow fall. There is only an occasional derelict, and sometimes there is good reason for these exceptions.

H. W. Kreamer, Centre Hall's oldest male citizen, was confined to bed from sickness for a few days during the past week. For one of his age he has been remarkably active and enjoyed good health. The Reporter hopes he will soon again recover his normal health.

W. E. Swigart, of the insurance firm of Swigart and Harshbarger, who within the past few months made numerous trips to Centre Hall on insurance adjustment business, purchased the Standing Stone bank building in Huntingdon and is having it remodeled and fitted up especially for the accommodation of insurance business. The firm now occupies a suite of rooms on the second floor of an office building which quarters, although quite large and convenient, have evidently been outgrown.

JUDGE WOODS DEAD.

Pennsylvania Jurist Dies at Lewistown Home on Friday.

Joseph M. Woods, former state senator and one of the most prominently known jurists in Central Pennsylvania, for many years president judge of Mifflin county, died at Lewistown, Friday, death being due to Bright's disease, from which he has long been a sufferer. He was a direct descendant of John Witherspoon, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

Deceased was born January 5, 1854, at New Berlin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Walker Woods. He is survived by three brothers, Samuel S. and William J. Woods, of Lewistown, and Rev. D. Walker Woods, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Gettysburg; one sister, Mrs. W. P. Stevenson, of New York, and the following sons and daughters: Commander James Woods, U. S. N., now instructor at the naval academy; William J., of Lewistown; Joseph M., Jr., a student at Princeton; Mrs. Herbert Kent, of Mount Clare, N. J.; Mrs. Charles Dahl, of Harrisburg; Mrs. Frank Bell, Portland, Ore., and Miss Catharine, formerly a missionary in China, the latter now at home.

Wednesday Morning Coldest.

Wednesday morning the local government thermometer registered four degrees above zero, the coldest this winter. The lowest temperature heretofore was ten above.

11-Lb. Baby Boy Arrives.

On Wednesday of last week a baby boy weighing eleven pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bloomer Weaver, along Sinking Creek, east of Centre Hall. The Weavers have one other child, four years old.

Vocational vs. State High.

The State College High school and Spring Mills Vocational school met in a basket ball contest on the floor of the latter, on Friday evening, the Vocational school winning by a score of 24 to 18.

A week previous Burnham High had defeated the Vocational and State had defeated Burnham.

Gearhart-Thompson.

Harry Gearhart and Miss Hazel Thompson tied themselves to Centre Hall to the Presbyterian manse, where Rev. Kirkpatrick hastily said the words that made two hearts beat as one. After congratulations they returned to their home at Pine Grove Mills. The bride is a daughter of W. F. Thompson and is a charming young woman, well fitted for her new duties in life, while the bridegroom is a son of Ira Gearhart and is an excellent young man.

The Inaugural Address by Radio.

The inaugural address of Governor Pinchot was heard in full at the Dr. H. H. Longwell radio receiving station. The governor began speaking at 12:08 P. M., Tuesday. The address was heard uninterruptedly from beginning to end. Prior to this the oath of office, the prayer, the announcement of the seating of dignitaries on the grandstand, and the divisions passing the grandstand were distinctly heard. It only required a bit of imagination and you were present at the great event.

Pinchot High Spots.

In his inaugural address Governor Pinchot, among other things said:
The decision of the people to establish a new order was made concrete in form and direction by the approval of the Republican majority given to the platform upon which I ran in the primary campaign. The program thus adopted as sound Republican policy was my public pledge, if elected, to use every power of the governorship in an honest effort:
To drive all saloons out of Pennsylvania.
To prevent and punish bootlegging.
To maintain and secure good laws for the protection of working children women and men.
To safeguard the industries of Pennsylvania and promote the prosperity of the state.
To advance the interests of the farmers, who feed us all.
To give our children the best schools in America.
To check centralization and give more home rule to cities, counties, townships, and school districts.
To maintain the direct primary and protect the rights of women voters.
To meet the just needs of those who served in the World war.
To revise and equalize taxes, establish a budget system, and reorganize the state government on a business basis.

To keep the expenses of the state within its income.
To get a dollar's worth of service for every dollar spent.

REBERSBURG.

Last week all the ice houses in town were filled with the frozen crystal. An old-time shooting match was held at Smulton on Saturday afternoon.

The Grangers of this vicinity held their annual oyster supper on last Thursday evening at the Victor Brungart home.

Jacob Gephart had the electric light wires extended from Rockville to his farm buildings, three-fourths mile from the main line.

At present William Smith, of Illinois, is making his annual visit to his relatives and acquaintances in this vicinity.

Willis Best, who was out to Jeanette in search for work, returned home on Saturday. We did not learn whether or not he succeeded in securing a job for the winter.

Mrs. Mary Fehl, who has made her home with Mrs. Abba Woody for the last thirteen years, has changed places and may now be found at the home of George Miller.

Claud Small and wife, who were employed for the past few months in a restaurant at Lewisburg, returned to old Rebersburg and are now occupying part of Mrs. Elvina Winter's brick dwelling house.

Last Thursday while Henry Stytzer was hauling ice from Weaver's dam, he suffered a slight paralytic stroke which affected his speech for the time being. He was taken home and has not been able to leave the house since.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Miss Ruth Rockey, who is employed at State College, spent the week-end at the home of her parents.

The W. C. T. U. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Ishler last Saturday afternoon.

C. W. Swartz and wife, William Swartz and daughter Frances, all of State College, took supper at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. David Fortney, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holderman went to Altoona Friday afternoon to attend the funeral of the latter's brother, Frank Beaver, which was held at that place Saturday afternoon.

Business Integrity

Membership
Altoona Booster Association

is founded on honest, perpetual service.

Among the names printed here are institutions which have served the people of this Community for years—some of them for more than a quarter of a century.

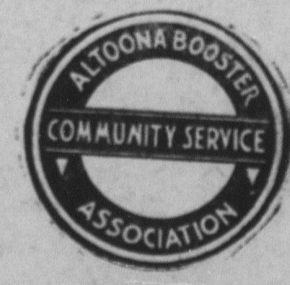

Business integrity (honest service) is the keynote of industrial and civic success and you know it—your home merchant knows it and your district merchant knows it.

The Altoona Booster Association is a builder for the success of this district—YOUR DISTRICT.

You might as well sink your money in the South Seas as send it out of your shopping radius because shopper and merchant and town depend on each in turn, for their support.

MORAL: Buy where you live!

If you come here come Wednesday—Suburban Day—and feel welcome.
