Cause and Effect.
The teacher was angry when Thomas appeared ten minutes late for school one morning.
"Why are you late, Tommy?" he said sharply.
"Please, sir," replied the sinner, "it was late when I started from home."
"Then why didn't you start from home earlier?"
"Please sir, it was too late to start early."

Better for Whom?
Mr. Howell—"Health is better than wealth." Mrs. Powell—"Not for your prospective heirs."

Some straight-laced men have gone crooked.
Luxury is apt to transform pleasures into burdens.

The Honest Teacher.
Seven-year-old Johnny's mother had given him a handkerchief to give to his teacher as a Christmas present, but when Johnny was told about it he curled his lips in scorn and said:
"Aw, mother, I don't want to give it to her. She won't let me do nothin'. It's always Walter and William that get to do ever'thing. Let them get her a handkerchief. I'll give it to Miss _____ (his last year's teacher). She's honest."

Had Nothing but Money.
He (indignantly)—"You married me for my money!" She (sweetly)—"Well, dear, what else had you?"

ALL THE ARTS

Mike had a son in high school, of whom he was very proud. One day he went to the school to see how young Mike was getting on. "Tell me," he said to one of the teachers, "is young Mike making good progress?"
"Yes, indeed," was the reply.
"Phant's he studin'?" asked the Irishman.
"Algebra, English and Latin," replied the professor.
"Lat'in, hey? Well, that's folna. And will he be taught plasterin', too?"

Otherwise Correct.
"I fear you American women look on your husbands as nothing more than walking bank accounts," remarked the lady lecturer from abroad.
"I'll have to take exception to one part of your statement," said the fashionable matron. "With half a dozen cars at his disposal, my husband doesn't have to walk."

In California.
Native—What are you sobbing about, my good friend?
Tourist—This wonderful climate—this great country—
Native—Well, now, stop and stay here the rest of your life. You don't have to go back.
Tourist—I'm not going back, but think what I've missed by not being born here!

UNSEALED
"What we want to do is to get at the solid facts."
"I have been gazing at one for months—the concrete floor of my empty coal bin."

An Exception.
A fool and his dough are soon parted. Is a saying we picked up at school; but what of the grasping old miser? He's surely one kind of a fool.

A Hopeless Task.
Judge Cluer (to young married woman, who would persist in talking in the Shoreditch county court)—You have been married only a short time, and he hasn't taught you to hold your tongue yet.
Woman (emphatically)—And he never will!—London Tit-Bits.

Has a Full Supply.
Hub—So you've been to a teacher of physical culture. Well, what did he tell you?
Wife—The first thing he told me was to keep my chin up.
Hub—Huh! I hadn't noticed any falling off in that line.

Saved by Quick Wit.
"For the first time you forgot to kiss me this morning."
"No, how those words of yours relieve me!"
"What do you mean, dear?"
"Why, I thought you wouldn't notice it."—Stray Stories.

Moved to Safety.
Tourist—What's become of all the "wild west" bandits that used to wash this wilderness in bloody gore?
Native—Oh, the wilds got too tame. They moved to the big cities and got jobs as waiters!

PREFERABLE
"You're pretty light on your feet, little one."
"I'm sure that's better than being light in the head like you."

No Relief.
Federalism, a helpless lot. Their fists on tables thumping. Declare the speeders should be shot. But, bless you, keep on jumping!

Placing Her Way Back.
Miss Oldum (calling)—I play only classic music, dear—Mozart, Beethoven and Haydn, you know.
Hostess's Little Daughter—You're just like my mamma. She doesn't play anything but the pieces that was new when she was young.

Climbing.
"You folks are being taken up by society, aren't you?"
"Well, we don't believe in bragging, but we know three ladies who smoke cigarettes."

Mrs. Gross Praises Tanlac for Overcoming Stomach Trouble—Says Results Are Priceless.

"Before I took Tanlac I only weighed ninety-four pounds and scarcely had strength to sweep the floor; but now I weigh one hundred and thirty-two and am as healthy and happy as can be." This remarkable statement was made, recently, by Mrs. Mabel Gross, 1137 Aldrich St., N., Minneapolis, Minn.

"For nearly two years I had been in a seriously weakened condition and suffered nearly all the time from headache and backache. My nerves were beyond my control and I was terribly dizzy. I couldn't half sleep and my stomach was so out of order that even the sight of food nauseated me.

"The benefits I have received from Tanlac are priceless. I am now a perfectly well woman, and my friends often speak of how healthy I look. Health is worth everything, and that is what Tanlac has meant to me."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35 million bottles sold.—Advertisement.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

Is often caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE will do what we claim for it—rid your system of Catarrh or Deafness caused by Catarrh. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over Forty Years.

The Way Out.
He was a keen business man, but a painfully poor golfer, and, despite constant calls upon the expert advice of his caddy, the greater part of the round had been badly fozzled.

With the ball lying in one of the course's worst bunkers, he sat down and tried to cover his despair by a pretense at consulting his diary before repeating the old question, "What would you advise, James?"
This time the caddy deliberately misunderstood.
"If ye cut straight frae here, sir," he said, "ye'll manage the 4:15 express."

Keep Off the Grass!
The little boy was fond of nursery rhymes and fairy tales, and was always asking questions about them.
One day he asked his mother: "Why didn't the man in the nursery rhyme put up a notice to 'keep off the grass'? Then he wouldn't have been cruel to the maiden."
"Which man, dear?" said his mother; "and to whom was he cruel?"
"Well," said the little chap, "nurse ten tells me about the man all tattered and torn who kicked the maiden off the lawn!"

"Jack has such a clever way of flattering one."
"Did he tell you you were beautiful?"
"That wouldn't have been clever; he told me he was scared to death lest some movie manager should see me."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Oh, Dear, How Cynical.
"Speaking about witty definitions," writes Miss K. C., "let me offer this one: A bachelor is a man who lives alone with the one he loves."—Boston Evening Transcript.

The Blunderer.
A certain hostess never can remember which of her friends know one another. The other day she was talking to an acquaintance and she did not realize that her visitor was the sister of a famous author whose manners are brusque. "Of course," said she, "I have known Mr. Blank (mentioning the author) for years. I knew him before he was married."

"Oh, yes," responded the visitor, with polite interest.
"It's true," continued the hostess, smiling sweetly, "he has no manners, but, then, of course, there isn't a single member of his family that has."

Nerves of Steel

The successful man of today is clear-headed, self-reliant. His keen eye and steady hand result from abundant, self-controlled energy, and steady nerves.

Such a man can overcome difficulties because he is physically fit. Foolish habits of food and drink have no place in his scheme of things. When he finds that coffee disagrees he promptly changes to healthful POSTUM.

This pure cereal beverage is not only free from the health-disturbing drug element in coffee, but there's comfort and satisfaction in its delicious, full-bodied flavor.

You'll find Postum a factor for Health.

"There's a Reason"

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared; made by boiling fully 20 minutes.

Made by Postum Cereal Company, Inc.
Battle Creek, Michigan.
