Mr. and Mrs. John M. Boob, Mrs. H. H. Leitze and Miss Viola Boob departed for Philadelphia and Atlantic City to spend several days. Mr. Boob, as one of the graduates, will attend the Peerce School commencement exercises being held this week.

S. A. Cole, of Mansfield, O., was an arrival in Millheim to join Mrs. Cole, who has been a guest at the O. M. Shull home for several weeks, and they departed together for their home, stopping over for a day or two at Lebanon.

HOW TO MAKE POULTRY PAY.

For present and prospective poultry keepers:—

Professor Frederic H. Stoneburn, a writer of international reputation, will tell you in the Sunday New York American beginning next Sunday.

The home flock, the side line poultry plant, the commercial poultry farm, chickens, water fowl, turkeys, pigeons and pheasants.

Table eggs and market poultry—exhibition and breeding birds—breeds and breeding—feeds and feeding—houses and equipment—incubating and brooding—diseases and treatment—practical daily management—buying and selling.

Clip these articles as they appear week by week in convenient page form. Professor Stoneburn is an expert. Not only on paper but on the poultry plant; not only with his pen but in the pens.

Thousands of successful poultrymen have profited by his instruction—both those who conduct large poultry establishments and others who make a hobby of back-yard poultry keeping.

He knows poultry from the yolk of the egg to the market for the feathers. He can do every job in the poultry yard with his own hands—and he knows how to get it down on paper as plain as A, B, C.

These notable articles will be of greatest value to the beginner and to the amateur, who need a safe guide; they will be appreciated by the professional poultryman who wishes to keep informed regarding latest developments in the science or art of poultry husbandry.

Professor Stoneburn's contributions will appear each week in the SUNDAY AMERICAN, beginning next Sunday. Watch for them—preserve them. The entire series will make a comprehensive book on modern poultry husbandry.

Lending money's the way To get rid of a bore. Though he never may pay, He keeps out of your way 'Till he comes back for more.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

is greatly relieved by constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions. Circulars free.
