POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Sheriff.
We are authorized to announce that E. R. Taylor, of Bellefonte, will be a candidate for Sheriff of Centre county, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters as expressed at the primaries to be held on Tuesday, September 18th, 1923.

Pinchot calls from 9 to 5 o'clock a full day. There are a lot of us would like an easy boss like that. Under such conditions Harrisburg officials and clerks will not get many cramps in their muscles.

Distrust in the members of the senate and house by Governor Pinchot is greatly hampering the governor in carrying through his program. He is not willing to trust any one on either floor to be his spokesman. This lack of confidence by those who favor a large portion, if not all, the program mapped out by the governor, is being resented by the members who infer that they are to be mere puppets for the governor and are, supposed to take their position on the stool whenever the governor whistles and cracks the whip. To date, the governor's program has made little headway, and it is largely due to the fact that Pinchot mistrusts everyone.

CHURCH BUILDING FOR SALE.—The Presbyterian church building at Spring Mills is offered for sale. Send your offers for same to James H. Potter, Bellefonte, Pa.

THE DEATH RECORD.

JORDAN.—Mrs. Stewart Jordan passed out of this life at her home at Tusseyville, Saturday evening. She was afflicted with cancer, and in August of 1921 underwent an operation for its removal. The operation brought only temporary relief, her death having been due to the ravishes of that much-dreaded disease.

Mrs. Jordan was the mother of two children—Boyd and Andrew—both of whom survive, as does also her husband. She was the daughter of Calvin S. Bodtort, of near Tusseyville, and is survived also by him and these brothers and sisters: Mrs. C. R. Ramer, Tusseyville; Mrs. Robert Brock, Jersey Shore; Mrs. Blaine Palmer, Potters Mills; John E. Bodtort, Jersey Shore; Charles Bodtort, Milroy. Her age was 44 years on December 2nd, last.

Funeral services were held Wednesday by Revs. Maneval and Carls, interment on Zion hill in the Evangelical cemetery.

ULRICH.—The widow of Aaron Ulrich died at the home of her son, Charles Ulrich, below Spring Mills, on Saturday morning. The cause of her death was pneumonia. Interment was made at Millheim, on Tuesday, the funeral having been conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. S. Hollenbach, who is pastor of the Salem Reformed church of which the deceased was a member. Before her marriage to Mr. Ulrich, the deceased was Miss Sarah Jane Weaver, daughter of Henry Weaver, of Wolfs Store. Her husband died five years ago, but she is survived by three children, namely, Charles M., at whose home the death occurred; Mrs. Annie Harter, of near Millheim; and Mrs. John Zerby, of near Spring Mills. A sister, Mrs. Lizzie Hogan, of Unionville, also survives.

WILKINSON.—After an illness of but a few days John Wilkinson, of Potters Mills, died at his home on Sunday morning. He had been a sufferer from asthma which a few days before his death developed into pneumonia. The funeral was held on Wednesday, interment in the Spruce town cemetery, Rev. C. F. Catherman having charge of the services.

Mr. Wilkinson was a sawyer, but during the latter years was not engaged in that work. He was born at Potters Mills, being a son of John and Rachel K. Wilkinson, May 5, 1855, making his age 67 years, 9 months, 6 days. There survive him his wife, who before marriage was Miss Ella Hartman, also a resident of Potters Mills, and these children: Mrs. H. B. Spangler, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. P. A. Carson, Potters Mills; Mrs. A. L. Bubb, Reedsville; Mrs. J. J. Cameron, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. P. P. Henshall, State College; also a sister, Miss Alva Wilkinson, of Harrisburg. A son, Harry, died in Bellefonte three years ago.

SHAWVER.—Isaac A. Shawver died at his home in Millheim on Tuesday afternoon. Interment will be made Friday morning at Milroy.

Mr. Shawver suffered a paralytic stroke about ten years ago and for some time since has been almost entirely helpless. He was landlord at the Old Fort hotel, and from there went to Millheim to engage in the same business, retiring upon Dr. Allison purchasing the hotel. He is survived by a wife, whose maiden name was Miss Maggie Gill, one daughter and two granddaughters.

OHNMACHT.—Miss Susan Ohnmacht, who has long been a resident of Bellefonte, died on Friday. Her age was nearly eighty years. She was born in Germany and came to America when twenty years old. She devoted her time in Bellefonte to the sale of musical instruments and teaching music.

BREON.—Mrs. Catherine Breon, widow of the late Elias Breon, died at her home at Smulton, of paralysis, aged 75 years, 5 months and 19 days.

She was a daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth Rupp and was born August 14, 1847. On July 11, 1869, she united in marriage with Elias Breon, who preceded her to the grave about five years ago. This union was blessed with the following children: Mrs. Charles C. Small, of Smulton; Mrs. Daniel Sheehan, of Causga, N. Y.; Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg, of Rebersburg; George W. of Ogden, Utah; Ezra S., of Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Elmer Swope, of Millheim, and Myles W., of Smulton. Also two daughters, Mrs. Clarence Long and Orpha M., who preceded her to the grave.

Interment was made in Rebersburg.

STOVER.—Mrs. Mary Stover, relict of Thaddeus D. Stover, died at her home at Smulton, following a short illness with pleuro-pneumonia, aged 87 years, 3 months and 23 days.

Her husband died about seven years ago, but she is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Kate Burd and Mrs. Carrie Detwiler, both of Smulton, and Mrs. H. H. Royer, of Rebersburg.

Mrs. Stover's maiden name was Mary Guisewite and she was born and grew to womanhood in Haines township. She was a noble woman, a kind mother and good neighbor.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Shultz, pastor of the Rebersburg Lutheran charge. Interment was made in the Lutheran-Reformed cemetery at Rebersburg.

McNITT.—Mrs. Sarah Reed McNitt, the mother of Andrew McNitt, of Bellefonte, died at her home in Reedsville, after an illness of some months, due to her advanced age. Mrs. McNitt was born in Milflyn county, and spent all her life there. She was aged over 82 years, and was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church since early girlhood. Her husband, Alexander McNitt, died several years ago, but she is survived by the following children: Andrew McNitt, of Bellefonte; A. Brown, of Milroy; O. J., of Reedsville; R. C. of Milflyn; Nancy and Rhoda J., at home, and Mary, wife of Rev. Steckel, of Detroit, Mich. Funeral services were conducted at her late home; interment in the Reedsville cemetery.

Who Can Beat This?
Six Rhode Island hens owned by Rev. J. S. Hollenbach, of Aaronsburg, laid 113 eggs during the month of January. This is within one egg 12 eggs per hen in 31 days. Indications promise a higher average for February since the rate so far this month is a little better than 2 eggs from each hen in three days.

Burkholder—Vonada.
At the Methodist parsonage, Spring Mills, on Wednesday of last week, John H. Burkholder, of Potters Mills, and Mrs. Elizabeth Vonada were united in matrimony. The groom is a well-known resident of Potter township, and at present is employed on the Kerlin poultry plant, but it understood that he will again resume farming operations on his large farm at Centre Hill in the spring of 1924. The bride, whose maiden name was Shaffer, is a resident of the Zion district and for several years has been an operator in the Commercial telephone exchange at that place. She is held in the highest esteem in her circle of acquaintances.

After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Burkholder spent several days at the Burkholder home at Potters Mills, after which Mrs. Burkholder returned to her work as a telephone operator. Within a short time, however, she will resume her position as mistress of the Burkholder home. The Reporter joins with a host of the friends of the bride and bridegroom in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

In other words, the class pledged itself to contribute $50 in addition to the contributions recently made. This brings up the total contribution from the Lutheran church to $390.

way They Get Nowhere.
A story that harks back to the Civil war concerns a troop of Confederate mountain volunteers and their colonel. They had been sent for by a certain Confederate town, but before they could arrive the federal forces were in command of the city. The auxiliaries arrived in the night and found the town deserted. Not caring to mix unnecessarily with the Union troops they turned around and rode out of the town by the first gate and road they found. Before them stretched a fine smooth highway and they took it for all they were worth. They rode all night without passing any villages or signs of civilization. The country side seemed not only deserted, but also unpopulated as well. When the sun peeped over the Blue Ridge mountains the colonel drew up suddenly. "What's the matter, sah," asked the lieutenant. "Dummit, sah," roared the colonel, "we've been galloping around a race track all night."—San Francisco Argonaut.

Lunenburg Gloucester of Nova Scotia.
In Lunenburg, the Gloucester of Nova Scotia, the smell of fish is in all and over all. Churches, fish flakes, curing plants, steep hills, bold headlands, shipyards, skilled fishermen and a mighty fleet of fishing vessels, ozen and German-looking faces, figures and names, are the characteristics. The place was settled by Hessians back in George IV's time, and marked traces of the early settlers remain. The homes are so neat that they even put lace curtains at the cellar and woodshed windows. A prodigious clanging of church bells goes on in Lunenburg every Sunday, for the place has many places of worship.

From Lunenburg come some of the hardest and most skillful mariners and fishermen in the world, while the fishing fleet and the vessels built here have a wide reputation.
What the Mouth Denotes.
Suspicion and secretiveness are denoted by a mouth which slants to either side and has lips tightly drawn, while intolentness, arrogance, and other traits similar in character have as a result of long study, come to be associated with a mouth where the lower lip protrudes. A mouth may not be an infallible guide to character, but that its shape, form, and expression is influenced by thoughts, emotions, and actions is readily acknowledged by those who have made a study of this most sensitive feature.
