

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Merchant C. F. Emery was housed up for a few days with an attack of grip.

Felix A. Lee, who had been living in Sayre, this state, has removed to Detroit, Michigan.

I will have fresh fish and oysters the latter part of every week until further notice.—Wilbur Bland, Centre Hall.

James Furner, of Colyer, on Tuesday morning, went to Leanon where he will make his home with his sister, Mrs. G. A. Cooke.

Will not one of the Bellefonte newspapers please tell us just what took place in the library of the court house, one night not so long ago.

Dr. W. E. Park has been transferred from Philadelphia to Oteen, N. C. He is in the U. S. Army service—a specialist on one or more diseases.

Harry McGirk, of Bellefonte, beginning of this week, left for Florida where he will spend the winter. Mrs. McGirk will follow some time in April.

Sheriff Dukeman, of Bellefonte, came to town on the first train Tuesday morning and from here went by auto to attend to legal business down the valley.

Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick has been teaching one of the Potters Mills schools during the past ten days, owing to the illness of the regular teacher, Miss Brown.

William Harter, one of Coburn's prominent citizens and lumberman, was in Centre Hall Friday night of last week, having come this far on his return trip to Bellefonte.

Mrs. R. R. Finkle, of Mifflinburg, arrived in Centre Hall Monday afternoon. She came to see her father, Merchant C. F. Emery, who was ill beginning of this week.

The difficulty with which autos met in traveling during the past few weeks is very much felt in towns like Centre Hall. The evenings especially have been dull, scarcely any out-of-town people coming to the little centers.

J. T. Decker, one of the lumber firm of Decker Bros., was at his mill the latter part of last week. A lumber inspector was on hand at that time looking over lumber ready for shipment.

George E. Heckman, of near Centre Hall, was a business caller the other evening. Mr. Heckman is one of the successful farmers down the Brush Valley road, and is every year improving not only his farm but his home.

Dogs chased a fawn from the Seven Mountains to the Stiver farm where it was found dead near a wire fence. On the opposite side of the fence tracks of dogs were seen, indicating that it was the finish of a hard chase in which the little animal lost out.

Farmer C. T. Crust, east of Centre Hall, lost the best horse in his barn a few days ago, by death. Only two years ago she was valued at $300. Mr. Crust at that time having refused $275 for the animal. Now Mr. Crust offers for sale her mate, also a fine animal. See ad in this issue.

Mrs. Clara Meeker, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Paul E. Bradford, and Mrs. Robert E. Meeker, attended the funeral of Mrs. Meeker's sister, Mrs. George Kerstetter, at Jersey Shore, on Friday. Mrs. Kerstetter is aged some fifty years and is survived by her husband and two children.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Wilson, of Schapville, Illinois, are in Centre county on a combined business and pleasure trip. While at Centre Hall, from where the couple went west and prospered, the yewer entertained by Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Benner. Like when in Centre county, Mr. Wilson is interested in the creamery business.

The funeral of John Wilkinson, which took place last week, was attended by these persons from a distance: Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Spangler, of Park Ridge, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Henshall, State College; Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Butz, Reedsville; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Henney, Latrobe; Lewis Foust, Lewistown; John Wilkinson, Jr., Mrs. Mabel Smith, and William Smith, Spring Mills.

The funeral of Mrs. Stewart Jordan, at Tusseyville, last week, was largely attended. Those from a distance who paid their last respects to the deceased were: Rev. and Mrs. Chris. Madisonburg; Mr. and Mrs. John N. Boal and children, Huntingdon; Mrs. Helen Brock, Jersey Shore; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dickert and daughter Miss Helen Woodrich; Floyd Jordan and Miss Emily Jordan, students at Reading.

Not as many public sales of livestock and farming implements are looked in Penna Valley as is usually the case. A number of the sales advertised are simply surplus stock sales and others are the result of the discontinuance of partnership farming. While both of these classes are bonafide sales, it however indicates that there are not as many farmers quitting the farm as has been the case during the past few years. And this is a favorable condition.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Musser Cokron is reported no better by her friends. She continues to be a patient in the Bellefonte hospital.

Frank H. Breon, who had been in Elburn, Illinois, for some time, is again at his home at Millheim. On his return he stopped at Harrisburg.

The train from the east was two hours late Monday night. Some of this time was spent at Lindale digging the train out of a snow bank.

There has been no improvement in the physical condition of Harry Harper since the last issue of this paper. His condition from his first illness, two weeks ago, has been alarming.

Saturday night was next to the coldest night during this winter. Mercury stood at zero, and at eight o'clock Sunday morning it warmed up about two degrees. It was mighty cold during all of Sunday.

The Lock Haven hospital will have for its new head, Miss Virginia Ludenken, of Atlantic City, N. J. She has been superintendent of the Atlantic City hospital for five years and previously held important positions in hospital work.

A Masonic temple to cost $173,000 will be erected on the site of the Central hotel, at Grove and Main streets, Lock Haven. The structure will be of buff brick, trimmed with Indiana limestone. The entire structure will be used for Masonic purposes.

Joseph Cole and John McCartney, two Snow Shoe hunters, who killed a deer that they found wounded while hunting for foxes near Snow Shoe on December 22, 1922, were each fined $100 and costs by Kline Woodring, Bellefonte justice of the peace, at the continued hearing held Friday. William G. Runkle, attorney for the hunters, said he would make an appeal.

Mrs. Frank S. Long, of Washington, D. C., whose serious illness was mentioned in last week's issue of this paper, is improving and is now able to sit up in bed. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Geiss Wagner, of this place. Mrs. Wagner, who has been at the bedside of her daughter during the past ten days or more, expects to remain with her for an indefinite time.

THE TIME OF THE JUDGMENT.

doing "despite unto the Spirit of grace," (Heb. 10:29.) They have despised the only means provided for the salvation of their souls. The divine decision is not an arbitrary decree. In it there is naught of predestination, according to the old-time view of this doctrine. The redeemed have obtained salvation by the acceptance of the Lord Jesus Christ. The impenitent have rejected the gracious provision, and the divine fiat announces their decision, and declares that it shall stand forever. So solemn indeed are the days in which we live. We know not how long this period of examination will continue. We know not how soon our cases will be reached before this heavenly court. The door of mercy still stands ajar. Christ still pleads as our great High Priest. While yet there is time let us flee to Him and find refuge from the coming storm.

(The Judgment of the Wicked.) Following the completion of the work of the investigative judgment occurs the outpouring of the wrath of God, as brought to view in the seven last plagues of Revelation 16. Christ then comes to take his children home to the mansions which He has prepared for them. (John 14:1-3.) With a voice of authority and power He calls the sleeping saints from their dusty beds. They are raised incorruptible, and with the saints who are living on the earth, are caught up to meet the Lord in the air. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God; and dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air, and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words. (I Thess. 4:16-18.)

This resurrection of the just is known as the first resurrection; of the character of those who have a part in it, and of their freedom from the thralldom of sin, it is said: Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection; on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years. (Rev. 20:6.) The glory attending the advent of the Lord becomes an agency of transforming power to the saints of God, but an agency of destruction to the wicked, they are unable to stand before the Son of man. As the sign of His coming draws near the earth, they are filled with fear. They seek to flee from His presence, and in abject terror call to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, for the great day of His wrath is come, and who shall be able to stand?" (Rev. 6:16, 17.)

In the solemn service attending the cleansing of the sanctuary on the day of atonement was foreshadowed this exile of the great deceiver. When the priest had finished his ministry in the most holy apartment, he came forth bearing in his on body the sins of Israel. He laid his hands upon the head of the scapegoat, and confessed over him "all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat." The goat was then sent away into the wilderness waste. In the same manner, when the work of the investigative judgment has been completed, the sins of God's people will be placed upon Satan, and as the scapegoat was sent into a land not inhabited so Satan will be confined to this earth in its desolate condition.

The time will now come in the eternal purpose of God for His universe to be forever cleansed of the terrible blot of sin which has marred it for six thousand years. The case of everyone has been decided, and the measure of punishment each is to receive has been determined. Christ now takes upon himself the execution of this divine judgment. The apostle John describes the scene as the King of Kings and Lord of lords goes forth to visit upon the impenitent their final doom: "And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew but himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood; and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations; and he shall rule them with a rod of iron; and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written King of Kings, and Lord of Lords. And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth; and all the fowls were filled with their flesh. (Rev. 19:11-21.) The Son of man again descends to the earth, not as when he came the first time a helpless babe in Bethlehem's manger to suffer and die upon the cross, but as a triumphant conqueror, as King of Kings and Lord of Lords, to enter upon the dominion bestowed upon him by his Father. The spot upon which His feet rest is purified and made holy by His sacred presence, says the Prophet Zechariah (14:4)

And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth; and all the fowls were filled with their flesh. (Rev. 19:11-21.)

Orin Osman moved on Thursday to their new home at Centre Furnace, they having rented the Etters home there. Howard Frazier will move into the house vacated by the Osmans.

Mrs. C. E. Brown, of Philadelphia, spent several weeks in this section, having been called here owing to the serious illness of her cousin, Miss Sarah E. Wieland.

Tuesday, the 13th, was Dorothy Ishler's sixteenth birthday, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ishler, gave a surprise party in her honor, at which nineteen guests were present.

Bradford and Co. have unloaded an assorted car of Purina Chows, as follows:

Cow Chow, Pig Chow, Chicken Chowder, Chick Chow, and Startena Chow for baby chicks.

If you want the best results for money invested get into the habit of feeding Purina Chows to your stock. Let the cow decide. She will show you why it pays to feed the 24 per cent. protein Cow Chow.

When you buy Poultry Feeds, don't make it guess work; you run no risk when you feed Purina Poultry Chows. Pig Chow will cut down the loss of pigs by feeding the sows and pigs right; it is balanced to meet their feed requirements.

Just a word about chicks. We have the so-called Startena Chow Feed for baby chicks, as well as the chick feed. Start your baby chicks right by feeding Startena Chow and chick feed.
