

Why Farmers are Turning to

In 1922 Chevrolet jumped from seventh to second place in sales of all cars, and to first place in sales of fully equipped modern cars.

Purchases by farmers were the chief factor in this remarkable development.

Farmers want automobiles not only of low first price, but also of low later cost for operation and maintenance.

They want room, comfort, and the ability to stand up under hard conditions.

They find that Chevrolet, fully equipped as sold, is the best value per dollar in the low-priced field, and neighbors tell them it costs less per mile to operate.

Usually, Angela—a clock is different from a man.
Andrew—What do you mean?
Angela—Well, when it strikes it keeps on working.

Owliah,
"And he left legacies," droned the lawyer, "to wit— Here he paused. "To who?" intoned the judge.

Qualified to Enter.
"When are you going to let me kiss you?" "Come around on Friday. That's amateur night."

Life is short, and yet some people waste it in longing.

Courtship is a sort of co-partnership.

Useful in Some Households.
The University of Missouri recently established a pistol range for girls. It has caused considerable comment, among which the following might easily take first rank:

"Are you doing target practice with a pistol?" Bob asked.
"Sure!" Marjorie replied.
"Get any credit for it?"
"No, of course not. Girls do not get credit in military, silly!"

"Of course, I know that, but they might give you credit in some other department."
"For instance?"
"Well, how about domestic science?"

A Sentimental Show.
"This is billed as a love story and comes up to its billing."
"Also its cooling."

Canada Offers Farmers their chance to get ahead

If your hard work and investments are not giving you the return they should—if high land prices and high rentals are blocking your road to success—if you are beginning to see how hard it is to compete with low-priced lands that are equally fertile, you owe it to yourself and your family to get the facts about farm opportunities in Canada. Lower-priced land—lower overhead—lower taxes and operating costs—may be the solution of your problem.

Low-Priced Land—the Secret

Virgin prairie land at $15 to $30 an acre, with long terms, if you want them, close to railways and market towns, schools, churches, telephones, highways—these vast virgin prairies offer you the last great farm opportunity. The fortunes of the United States were built on low-priced land. These lands are now gone—perhaps beyond your reach—but Canada's lands are still low-priced. You may have missed the first chance—don't miss the last.

Your Own Farm—Prosperity, Happiness
The opportunity that fits your particular financial and family needs awaits you in Canada, and the Canadian Government Agent will help you find it. Land of great and continuous fertility, (Western Canada's wheat crop in 1922 was the biggest in history), land suitable for stock-raising, dairying, mixed farming, fodder crops, market gardening, to suit your experience and your pocketbook. Land that pays for itself in a few years' crops; hundreds of Canadian farms have produced crops in one year worth more than the price of the land.

Rent If You Prefer—Pay Out of Profits
The Canadian Government has devised a means by which you can "try out" a farm for a year or two before investing, and at the same time increase your capital for the day when you are ready to buy a farm of your own. Many Canadian land owners are willing to rent a portion of their holdings; others are already retiring and will rent on easy terms, in some cases giving an option of purchase. If you have a farm outfit, or the means of buying it, even if your other capital is small, this is your chance to try out the country for yourself. Seeing is believing. See for yourself. A year or two on a rented farm may be the road to success. If you have present holdings which you cannot sell to advantage, hold them another year or two, conditions may improve, but start in Canada at once. Lands are being taken up; nothing is gained by delay.

Taxes Favor the Producing Farmer
Western Canada's tax system encourages farm production and the improvement of property. Taxes on an improved farm are less than on an unimproved one, and there are no taxes at all on the farmer's buildings, machinery, live stock, automobile, crops, or personal effects. Tax laws are designed to aid the farmer in building up a home of his own.

Get the Facts—Costs You Nothing
The Canadian Government maintains Information Bureaus where you can get the facts—dependable Government information—without cost. The officials are not land agents—they have nothing personally to sell—they are satisfied officials of the Government of Canada, maintained to be of service to you, without any charge. Let us know something of your position, and receive free book with maps, and the free service of the Canadian Government Agent in your territory; also information on lower special railway rates on being arranged for a trip of inspection. ### GILT-EDGED MODESTY

The hard-bolled captain of industry whom a friend was introducing a young man just out of college and seeking a job:
"He is a fine, modest young man," said the friend.
"Modest?" snorted the big man.
"What in thunder has he ever done to become modest about?"—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

Deep-Seated Grudge.
"You refer to the prosperous looking person as a 'coal baron'."
"Quite so," replied the disgruntled proprietor of a fuel business.
"But he's not a real nobleman?"
"Certainly not. And since I've been dealing with him I've found out that he's not even one of nature's noblemen."

Insult to Injury.
Fair One—Officer, arrest this man. He has been trying to flirt with me.
Mere Man—What! Her! Why officer I wouldn't flirt with her for a million dollars.
Fair One—Now, officer, you simply must arrest this man. He has insulted me.—American Legion Weekly.

Snake—Why so sad?
Zebra—I'm sick of looking like a jail bird, that's why.

Can't Be Done.
Your face may be your fortune, mister. But effort is misplaced.
In trying to increase your wealth by being double-faced.

Business in Politics.
"A man can't use money in politics any more."
"I'm glad of it," said Senator Sorghum. "If things had kept on the way they once started, the candidates would have been lining up at the primaries with 'shop early' slogans."—Washington Star.

Secret Diplomacy.
Her Chum—However did you make your husband give you that lovely all-season trip?
Mrs. Wyse-Guy—Don't tell a soul. I had mother write and ask when it would be convenient for her and father and my two sisters to come and make us a nice, long visit.

Behind the Times.
Clancy—What would you do if I kissed you?
Nancy—How do I know? You know very well that I haven't been to the movies lately.

Overpaid.
"Tennyson J. Daft receives a good deal more money for his poetry than he deserves," stated old Festus Pester.
"How much does he get?" we asked.
"I haven't the slightest idea."

SURE THING
"Do you consider thirteen at table unlucky?"
"Yes, with food at present prices."

Of Course Not.
It's really not consistent. As any one can see.
When a fellow's living in "A Flat" To snore in loud "High C."

Nothing Lacking.
"So you've started to shave yourself, eh? Don't you miss the barber's chatter?"
"Not at all. You see, I set my phonograph going during the process."

Another Fine Point Settled.
"Speaking of the suitan," said Professor Pate, "I really don't perceive that desertion of a great many wives is any worse than the desertion of one."
"It isn't worse," replied J. Fuller Gloom. "It's better."

Frightened by Shadows.
"Cheer up, old man," said the optimist. "Things aren't as bad as they seem."
"No, but they seem so," groaned the pessimist.

WHEEZING NOISE IN HER THROAT WORRIED HER

Shortness of Breath and Choking Spells; Chest Rattled and Wheezed.

BALTIMORE LADY SAYS HYPO-COD RELIEVED IT

"I surely was worried about my breathing. I would wheeze so loud in my chest and throat you could hear me all over the house. Then I would get short of breath and almost choke at times. Finally, after I had used inhalers, salves and all sorts of things, a good friend told me about this wonderful medicine called Hypo-Cod and I sent to the drug store for it. It helped me so much I was almost cured after just a few days, so I kept right on taking it. By the time I had taken three bottles you could see my system was toning up fast and I gained ten pounds. From that time on it wasn't hard for my system to throw off and fight the trouble and soon my throat was okay and results were so amazing the whole family was surprised. In fact, it helped me so much I was every way I guess everybody at our house has taken Hypo-Cod since then. I recommend Hypo-Cod because it was the only thing that ever did me any good at all. My family swears by Hypo-Cod," enthusiastically declared Mrs. A. Henry, 319 2 1/2 St., Baltimore, Md.
If your system is too weak to throw off some minor ailment—don't try to cure the trouble—just get busy putting your system in fighting shape and soon as you build and tone yourself up your system will throw off such troubles like water off a duck's back. Hypo-Cod is the most palatable, effective and powerful reconstructive tonic made. It is a wonderful strength-building tonic. It is pure, wholesome and not expensive at all. Even the smallest drug store has Hypo-Cod.—Advertisement.

Musical "Typewriter."
Music may be easily transported from one key to another, and also transcribed onto paper by means of a new device that is in the nature of a musical typewriter. The transposing apparatus consists of a portable keyboard that is superimposed upon the piano keyboard, along which it can be moved for a range of two octaves. Underneath each of the superimposed keys is a bent lever that transmits the impact of the finger to the corresponding piano key. Therefore, by shifting the superimposed keyboard, it is possible to change the key of any musical composition in any way desired. In connection with the transposing device is an attachment, which serves either as a score writer or to make a perforated record for player pianos.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

No Meeting.
A young reporter was sent out by the city editor of one of the Rochester papers to report a meeting.
About two hours after the assignment was made the young reporter returned with a sad countenance.
The city editor told him to get the report up immediately, as it was nearly time to go to press.
"There will not be any report on that meeting," was the answer.
"Why not?" queried the city editor.
"There was no meeting," replied the young reporter. "It broke up in a big row and the chairman was chucked under the table."—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Kansan's Destructive Laugh.
In the days when horseflesh was in flower one of the hardest things in town was to get horses accustomed to Job Hofer's laugh. Every time he took off the main hitch and helped himself to a real mastodon gurgle of glee there were two or three runaways down Main street. The horses largely have passed, but Job's laugh has the same devastating effect. Today he became amused at something while in Lem Lump's Ford, and two panes of window glass fell out.—Eldorado Times.

INFORMATION CAME TOO LATE

Small Boy Could Tell for Himself
When Locomotion Was Actually in Progress.

The Woman was going to Indiana. With her were a young man and his four-year-old son. The train had not yet started.

"Daddy, have we started?" questioned the boy excitedly.
"No, son, I'll tell you when we do," the father answered, and continued to discuss with the Woman the unbecoming length of the new dresses.

"Are we going now, dad?" persisted the child, after a few seconds.
"Not yet, Bob. I'll tell you when."
A few minutes later the train began to move. The father turned to his son.

"We've started now—sonny."
With an air of indifference the child answered:
"Oh, well, now I can tell by myself we're going."—Chicago Journal.

Was Not That Serious.
Elinor got a new tricycle and the next morning she announced that she was too ill to go to kindergarten.

Mother had her suspicions, which later were confirmed when, after an hour or so lying in bed, Elinor observed, "I don't think I'm sick enough to hurt that tricycle any."

Has your mealtime drink said "Pay up!"

A GOOD many people have had that message from coffee or tea after the drug, caffeine, has had its effect upon nerves or digestion.
Frequently the message comes at night, when nerves won't quiet down and sleep won't come, after the dinner cup of coffee.
There's no unfriendly after-notice from that good cereal beverage, Postum.
Postum delights the taste, gives comfort and satisfaction, and is free from any possibility of harm to health.
Try Postum with your meals for a few days and let the whole family, the children included, share in its appetizing, invigorating goodness. It will bring better nights and brighter mornings.
Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared; made by boiling, fully twenty minutes.
