THE DEATH RECORD.

FINKLE.—In the death of Adam Noah Finkle, at Spring Mills, on Tuesday, one of Gregg township's most highly respected and prominent citizens passed away. Mr. Finkle had been ill for some time from Bright's disease and later was seized with grip, terminating with death after a few weeks. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning, 9:30, o'clock, from his residence—Rev. M. C. Drumm, the present pastor of the Lutheran church, and Rev. J. M. Rearick, of Elk Lick, a former pastor, will perform the religious rites. The Masonic ritual will also be used by a chaplain from that organization. The funeral will be without ostentation, this being in keeping with the life of the deceased. Interment in the Georges Valley cemetery.

Mr. Finkle was a son of David and Rebecca (Heckman) Finkle, and was born in Milheim, February 2, 1868. When but eighteen years of age he began lumbering, being first employed by Grove and Wolf, who then operated in Georges Valley. He followed that occupation during his entire life, his good judgment, ability to handle men, and willingness himself to apply not only hands but brains, brought him ample reward. At the time he became ill the last time he was about to begin operations on Pine Hill, Potters Mills, the one remaining virgin pine tract in Penn's Valley.

It was on August 14, 1888, that he was united in marriage to Miss Ada Heckman, the couple going to house-keeping in Georges Valley. Later they moved to Spring Mills, and from there to their present well-appointed home near that place. Mrs. Finkle survives her husband as do also these children: Marion, Mrs. Russell Condo, Spring Mills; Rufus R., Milburnburg; Madeline Elizabeth, at home; Helen Heckman, Mrs. W. H. Rockey, Altoona; two brothers also survive—Calvin J. and Robert F., both of Spring Mills.

Mr. Finkle long loyally supported the Lutheran church and later became a member of that denomination. As is indicated above, he was also a Mason. He was public spirited and supported all movements looking toward the advancement of his community. In the home he was an ideal man, and was fond of home life.

SCHOLL.—Elizabeth Scholl, daughter of William and Susan Homan, was born at Farmers Mills, on November 2, 1851, and died in Sunbury April 19, 1923, aged 71 years, 5 months and 17 days. She is survived by her husband, Thomas Scholl, and one daughter, Mrs. N. F. Peffer, of Sunbury; two grandchildren, Thomas Ray Yearick, of Sunbury, and Mrs. John G. Meyer, of Coburn; also one sister, Miss Susan Homan, and four brothers, Jacob and John Homan, of Spring Mills; Samuel Homan, of Lewisport, and George Homan, of Aaronsburg.

She was a member of the Lutheran church from girlhood. Interment was made at Aaronsburg Monday forenoon; services by Rev. M. C. Drumm.

BIERLY.—Mrs. Pauline (Frank) Bierly, relict of the late Reuben Bierly, died very suddenly of heart trouble at her home in Rebersburg. She was born at Wolf's Store on March 22, 1846, and had therefore attained the age of 77 years and 22 days. She was a daughter of ex-Associate Judge Samuel and Sarah Frank, both of whom have long since answered the final summons. June 23, 1867, she was united in marriage with Reuben D. Bierly, who died eleven years ago, but four sons survive, as follows: Willis F., Charles C., Samuel A., and Curtis M., all of Rebersburg. Two brothers also survive—Dr. G. S. Frank, of Milheim, and James P. Frank, of Rebersburg.

May 9, 1862, she united with the Lutheran church and was a most consistent member until death. She was a kind and loving mother and a good neighbor, and will be missed by a host of friends.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Rearick, a former pastor. Interment was made in the Lutheran and Reformed cemetery at Rebersburg.

MUSSER.—Jacob Musser, a highly esteemed resident of Haines township, died at his home, along Pine creek, aged 7 years, 8 months and days, from pneumonia following two paralytic strokes.

Mr. Musser was born in Gregg township, a son of Michael and Mary (Homan) Musser. On October 9, 1873, he was united in marriage with Mary Homan, of Haines township, who survives with the following children: William F., of Penn township; John M., of Burnham; Mrs. John H. Fultz, of Rockview; Mrs. C. H. Musser, of Coburn, and Mrs. G. B. Stover, of Penn township. There also survives one sister, Mrs. C. J. Stover, of Woodward.

He was a member of the Coburn Lutheran church for many years. Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church at Coburn, conducted by Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck, and interment was made in Fairview cemetery at Milheim.

HOUSER.—Emanuel Houser, of College township, died at Houseville after a two weeks illness of pneumonia. He was aged a little over sixty-one years. He began life by opening a general store at Houseville in 1887 and discontinued it in 1899, during much of which time he was postmaster. After closing his store he took up the carpenter trade. His wife, formerly Little-May Resides, survives with two children, Frederick K. Houser, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. R. A. Hoy, of Williamsburg. He also leaves a foster daughter, Mrs. Hennigh, of Perkasie, and one brother, Daniel F. Houser, of Bellefonte.

HARTSWICK.—Miss Henrietta Hartswick died in Williamsport, on Thursday, at the advanced age of 96 years, at the home of her niece, Miss Kate Walker.

Miss Hartswick was born at Stormstown, Centre county, and had lived there until 1904 when she went to Williamsport to make her home with Mrs. James Mansel, a sister. Following Mrs. Mansel's death, she made her home with her nieces, the Misses Walker.

Interment was made at Stormstown on Monday.

Besides her husband she is survived by her two children, John C., at home, and Mrs. James M. Foust, of Spring Mills; also two brothers and one sister—B. M. Greninger, of Freeport, Ill.; E. K. and Mrs. George Wise, of Rebersburg; also five grandchildren. Two children preceded her to the great beyond.

Interment was made in the Spring Mills cemetery, services being conducted in the Lutheran church with Rev. M. C. Drumm officiating.

Whitewashing State Treasury Scandal

The winding up of the prosecution of former State Treasurer Herman M. Kephart was done in such a way, as to completely whitewash the state treasury scandal. Although Kephart was fined $3425, the method employed was such that it forestalled the quizzing in court of higher-ups alleged to have been involved in the juggling of the treasury figures during the Kephart administration. The Pinchot administration previously agreed to this method of closing the Kephart case.

Democratic members of the House, at a caucus, decided to demand a thorough legislative investigation into the activities of the Treasury Department during the Kephart regime. A resolution asking for the appointment of a committee, with full power to conduct the investigation, probably will be introduced.

The Democrats are said to feel that Kephart's plea of noble contredre was nothing more than an easy way of whitewashing the treasury scandal. They have been informed, according to reports, that the investigation conducted by Auditor General Lewis was restricted in some particulars because of legal limitations, and that a legislative probe might have the effect of bringing some hitherto unknown phases of the Kephart administration into the limelight.

AUTO OWNERS TO FOOT BILL.

Will a $34,000,000 Tax for 'Em Up! State Finds Easy Picking.

The joy riders at Harrisburg during recent years and the educated fellows now at the wheel of State Government, who need as much as $17,000,000 more, not only to pay the cost of the old joy ride, but for the new one already started, propose to levy an added tax of $17,000,000 on the automobile owners of Pennsylvania.

Like owning an automobile, this seems to be the easiest possible way out in the view of the machinists, as well as the new men and women in charge of the State Government, and we fear the unfortunate automobile owners are in for it. The proposed $17,000,000 added tax upon automobile owners is based upon the idea that they are going to have their present tax doubled, which will mean, after the passage of the proposed new tax, that automobile owners will pay $34,000,000.

Some money, this, even to the automobile owners, of whom there are so many already paying more than they can afford. But what will they do about it? They constitute an army of voters large enough to make themselves a factor in Pennsylvania. The tax raisers and the spenders realize this, apparently, but will the automobile owners continue to join the 100,000 or more machine-controlled black and white voters in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and elsewhere in furnishing enough votes to elect men to office who find them such easy picking? Will paying $17,000,000 more than the $17,000,000 they are now paying induce them to take a real interest in the manner in which their money is being expended?

The Doctor Was Right

When the good old family doctor was asked about baking powders, he said: "Use Royal. It is made from Cream of Tartar and is absolutely pure. You could dissolve a couple of teaspoons of Royal in water and drink it with benefit. That's a health test mighty few baking powders can meet." The doctor was right.
