

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Light frost Monday morning.

J. D. Vomada, of near Red Mill, purchased a Durant touring car from J. I. Fetterolf, the local dealer.

Mrs. R. W. Barber, of Mifflinburg, spent the week-end with Rev. and Mrs. Hollenbach at Aaronsburg.

C. F. Emery traded his big Chevrolet on a 4-passenger Oldsmobile, making the deal with the Decker Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geary and daughter, Miss Agnes, spent Sunday with friends in Williamsport.

Edwin Musser, of Spring Mills, was a business visitor in town on Friday. He holds a position in the Spring Mills silk mill.

Undertaker F. V. Goodhart attended a meeting of the Undertakers' Association held in Altoona the latter part of last week.

Four million copies of the King James version of the Bible have been distributed by the American Bible Society since its organization.

Mrs. John Eckenrood, of Greensburg, is at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Garsel, in Centre Hall, and expects to remain here for some time.

Mrs. (Rev.) R. Iris Goss and family, of West Milton, are guests at the local Lutheran parsonage while Rev. Goss is attending Reformed Classis at Beulahsburg.

S. H. Poorman, of the Poorman garage, Bellefonte, was in town on Monday showing off the superior qualities of the Chandler auto. He also handles the Cleveland.

White, Brown and Buff Leghorn Chicks, also Rocks and Reds, each week now. Poultry Feeds and Supplies. Both 'phones. Order early.—C. D. Bartholomew, Centre Hall, Pa., 022.

Letters of administration on the estate of Mrs. Sarah Phillips, late of Potter township, deceased, have been issued to Cyrus Brungart as administrator. Advertising to that effect appears in this issue.

Miss Romie Snyder, of Mifflinburg, attended the commencement exercises at Centre Hall, Friday evening, and the following day went to visit her uncle, David Snyder, at Bonlsburg, going from there to Milroy for a short visit before returning home.

Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck and Rev. John S. Hollenbach attended a meeting of the clergy of the county called in Bellefonte last Thursday morning for the purpose of laying plans for interdenominational missionary institutes at several points in the county.

There is always an entertaining and instructive picture on at the Scenic—no matter what night you go there. If you have been going to the Scenic regularly you will o. k. this and if you are not seeing the performances on the screen, you can prove this by going there.

George Stover, who is employed by William McClellan at the grain house and trucking, had the misfortune to have his right arm broken at the wrist, Tuesday morning. He was cranking a Ford when the machine back-fired, the crank striking his wrist with the result noted above.

Miss Catharine Bradford, R. N., who has been located at Williamsport for some time, paid her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bradford, in Centre Hall, a brief visit, returning to Williamsport Tuesday afternoon. While in Centre Hall she entertained her cousin, Miss Larue Ruth Ishler, also a R. N.

Memorial services will be observed at Sprucetown at 1:30 P.M. The speaker will be Rev. John S. Hollenbach, of Aaronsburg. The ceremonies at this point have long been largely attended and it is urged by the citizens of that community that this year's be no exception to the good rule.

C. Ellsworth Parker, representing the Mellon National Bank of Pittsburgh, was in town on Tuesday in the interest of that financial institution. It was his first trip through Penns Valley and it is scarcely necessary to say that he was impressed with Penns Valley as a whole and Centre Hall in particular as being tidy and prosperous in appearance.

James E. Harter, of Coburn, for some time has been afflicted with eye trouble and last week consulted with specialists at Philadelphia and Lancaster and he states that he was given very little encouragement. The specialists informed him that he is afflicted with hardening of the eye balls and that science has as yet discovered nothing to rectify the ailment.

A bit of inquiry and observation convinces one that much of the good results in State road work is due to the minor individual boss in charge. Where the road man in charge has a proper conception of a really good road, how to acquire it, and the persistency to do, the roads covered by him are very superior to other sections where men of less ability and perseverance are in management, although both have equal opportunity. While this is true in all lines of work, it is especially noticeable on the State roads.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Orvis Weaver and family moved from Salona to Centre Hall.

A cantata will be rendered in the local Presbyterian church on Sunday evening at 7:30.

A bunch of Mifflin lassies, in "knicker," hiked to the top of Nittany Mountain on Sunday.

M. A. Sankey and sister, Miss Edith Sankey, beginning of this week drove from Middleburg to Centre Hall.

J. I. Fetterolf made a trip to Altoona on Tuesday, and brought back a Durant touring car and also a Star coupe.

Mrs. Belle Bible and daughter, Miss Marion, of Mifflinburg, are visitors at the J. D. Moore home, Mrs. Bible and Mrs. Moore being sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Bradford returned from their southern trip much delighted, and report their friends they visited, the Shadie family, well and prospering.

Mrs. (Dr.) William Reed Morrison and daughter Victoria, of Boston, Mass., are spending several weeks at the home of the former's father, G. O. Benner, in Centre Hall.

S. G. Walker and two sons, of Spring Mills, were pleasant callers at the Reutter office early Monday morning, Mr. Walker having come to town to deliver a quantity of eggs.

W. H. Herman, of Junia, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Colyer over Sunday. Mr. Herman is employed in the blacksmith shop of the Pennsylvania railroad at Junia. He and his father recently made a pleasure trip to New York City and found it a mighty busy center.

IF YOU RAISE CHICKS you will be interested in the Kerlin advertisement in this week's issue. They are offering the famous Allen's Full-Nest Foods, made over their own formula, at remarkably low prices. Turn to their advertisement immediately and read every word of it.

Mrs. John Bible and granddaughter, Miss Miriam Bible, of Mifflinburg, visited at the home of Mrs. Bible's sister, Mrs. John D. Moore. Miss Bible returned to Mifflinburg on Tuesday, where she is employed in a silk mill. The ladies make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Rossman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kerlin, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerlin and baby Billie, of Centre Hall, and Rev. J. W. Wagner, on Monday, went to Williamsport in the Kerlin Nash. The trip was made in the interest of the Kerlin Grand View Poultry Farm which is passing through an exceedingly prosperous season.

D. K. Keener, a student in the theological seminary connected with Franklin and Marshall college, Lancaster, filled appointments at Spring Mills, Union and Centre Hall on the Reformed charge, on Sunday. It is understood that he will officially accept the call to this field as soon as he is licensed to preach, which will be during the approaching commencement period.

Colonel W. H. Shoemaker, the Pennsylvania naturalist and folk lore writer, was a passenger from the east on the branch Monday morning. He was met here by several young men who took him by car to Treaster Valley, in Seven Mountains, where there was held on that day a meeting of State Foresters, Mr. Shoemaker being a member of the State Forest Commission.

At the expense of considerable labor the all field on Grange Park was put in its best-ever condition. The diamond was scraped, and the whole outfield rolled with a steam roller. It is now in very passable condition, except that the western boundary, a fence, is too close for a good hit in that direction. The field was prepared for the games scheduled by the Centre County league, the proposed new field on the grounds lately purchased by the Park association not having been yet laid out.

CHINESE NOW CLAIM HONOR

Buddhist Priests Said to Have Discovered America Long Before Day of Columbus.

Legends common to the literature of both China and Japan relate that about the year 400 Huwil Shan, a Buddhist missionary, in company with five brother priests, found a land many miles to the eastward of China which he named Fusang. They sailed along the Chinese coast to Kamchatka and thence along the Aleutian islands to Alaska. The description of the peoples they found fits the Aleuts and the Eskimos as they are today.

From Alaska, which they called Great Han, they sailed along the coast to Fusang. Huwil Shan describes the dwellings made of blocks of sun-dried mud, which housed many people, a description which fits the pueblos of ancient America. He mentions a plant used in making cordage and paper, which yielded tender edible sprouts. The maguey plant also answers this description.

He also describes a plant and its fruit which is the species of cactus commonly known as the prickly pear. From the Chinese records, therefore, Fusang was very like Mexico.

A few years ago the Chinese government directed its historian to make a search of the imperial records, and from them came the foregoing account.

L. L. Smith Property Sold.

L. L. Smith sold his private dwelling house and garage, on the diamond, to Gardner B. Grove, of Centre Hall. The price has not been made public, but it is thought to have been about $6,000. What Mr. Grove has in mind is not known.

Mr. Smith will now go on with his program of erecting a garage to the rear of the show room he is remodeling, formerly the Goodhart furniture store.

PUBLIC SALE.REAL ESTATE*and PERSONAL PROPERTY

To undersigned, administrator, will sell at public sale, on the premises, one half mile South of COLEY, on at 12:30 o'clock P. M., the personal property of Sarah Phillips, late of Potter township, Centre county, deceased, as follows, to wit:

SATURDAY, JUNE 2nd, 1925.

Sink, Cupboard, Extension Table, lot of Dishes, 6 Dining room Chairs, 3 Rocking Chairs, lot of Cooking Utensils, Organ, Music Cabinet, New Piano, in fair condition, Coal Stove, Couch, lot of Carpet and Rugs, Lamp, Bureau, Bedstead, Springs, good Bed-room Suit, and many other articles not mentioned.

CYRUS BRUNGART,

L. F. MAYES, auct. Administrator.

ALSO, at the same time and place, the Real Estate of the late Sarah Phillips will be offered by the heirs of said deceased; consisting of three separate tracts.

All three messuages, tenements or tracts of land situate in the Township of Potter, County of Centre, State of Penna.

TRACT NO. 1, bounded as follows: Beginning at a stone corner thence by lands of D. C. Long, North 15 degrees West 4 perches to a stone; thence along same North 49 degrees West 32 1/2 perches to a stone; thence along same North 39 1/2 degrees West 37 1/2 perches to a stone corner; thence by lands of James Glasgow's heirs, North 83 1/2 perches East 119 perches to a stone corner; thence by lands of William Klinefelter, et al, South 30 1/2 degrees East 35 1/2 perches to a stone; thence South 29 degrees West 12 perches to a stone; thence North 8 degrees East 2.5 perches to a post; thence by lands of W. H. Lee, South 61 degrees East 24.5 perches to a post; thence by same South 31 1/2 degrees East 12 perches to a white pine; thence South 61 1/2 degrees West 15 and three-tenths perches to a stone, the place of beginning; CONTAINING 5 ACRES AND 95 PERCHES.

TRACT NO. 2, bounded as follows: Beginning at a stone corner thence by lands of P. D. Phillips, North 31 1/2 degrees West 74 perches to a post; thence by the same North 61 degrees West 24 perches to a post; thence by lands of William Klinefelter, North 80 degrees East 17.5 perches to a post; thence by lands of John H. Lee, South 41 1/2 degrees East 22 perches to a point in public road; South 54 degrees West 8.3 perches to the place of beginning; CONTAINING ONE ACRE AND 120 PERCHES, neat measure.

TERMS OF SALE: 20 per cent down; balance on time or when deed will be prepared and acknowledged.

BY THE HEIRS.

EXCITED WRATH OF DICKENS

Great Writer, at His Best, Denounced Public Hangings, Which Were Disgrace to English Law.

Charles Dickens, at the time of the execution of Manning and his wife for the murder of Patrick O'Meara, was at his fullest power as a writer. In a letter to the London Times he wrote:

"I believe that a sight so incomely and awful as the wickedness and levity of the immense crowd collected at the execution this morning could be surpassed by no man, and presented by no heathen hand under the sun. The horrors of the gibbet and the crag which brought the wretched murderer to it find it in my mind before the trodden bearing, looks and language of the assembled spectators. When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold."

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a concourse of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold.

When I came upon the scene at midnight the shrillness of the cries and how