He had been suffering for some time from hemorrhages of the lungs, but he was able to fill his place as a clerk in the Gilliland drug store, State College, up until Monday prior to his death.

Mr. Homan was married to Miss Vera Homan, who with two children—Warren and Annie—survive him, as do also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Homan, of State College, and five brothers and three sisters.

Services were held at the home, after which the body was brought to Centre Hall for interment, the officiating minister being Rev. Harkins, pastor of the Lutheran church. His age was thirty-one years.

GEARY.—Harry H. Geary died at Newport Perry county, Wednesday of last week, after suffering from an affection of the heart for a period covering several years. The body was brought to Millheim on Sunday where interment was made. The deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Geary, of Newport, formerly of Millheim. Besides the parents there survive the deceased's brothers and sisters: Mrs. J. B. Kerstetter, Coburn; Mrs. N. A. Auman, Millheim; Frank P. Geary, Centre Hall; Mrs. George Wagonseller, Newport; Mrs. Ernest Brown, New Haven, Conn.; and Charles W. Geary, Newport. His age was thirty-five years.

NEFF.—Mrs. James B. Neff died at her home at Antonita, Colorado, on Saturday, 12th inst., from pneumonia following an operation she underwent a month previous. Interment was made in the family plot beside that of her husband.

Mrs. Neff before marriage was Miss Blanche Leitzel. She was a native of this county and well known to many readers of this paper in this locality where she spent many of her girlhood days. She was born March 12, 1860. Her husband, now deceased, was a native of Potter township. There survive two children—Charles and Sue E. now Mrs. C. A. Hompton.

GENTZEL.—Jacob J. Gentzel, an aged and respected citizen of Penn township, died rather unexpectedly at his home west of Coburn of heart failure, at the age of 77 years, 6 months and 29 days.

He is survived by his wife and two children—Harry, of Burnham, and Mrs. Milton C. Vonada, of Penn township.

Interment was made in the Heckman cemetery.

MAIZE.—The death of Mrs. Frank Maize occurred at her home in Glen Iron, after an illness of six months with cancer of the stomach. Mrs. Maize was a woman of fine character and a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. She was born in Centre county, August 10, 1866, and was aged fifty-six years, nine months and one day.
