

Back Given Out?

IT'S hard to do one's work when every day brings morning lameness, throbbing backache, and a dull, tired feeling. If you suffer thus, why not find out the cause? Likely it's your kidneys. Headaches, dizziness and bladder irregularities may give further proof that your kidneys need help. Don't risk neglect! Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands have been helped by Doan's. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

A Virginia Case

S. T. Rowwell, W. Main St., Berryville, Va., says: "A cold settled in my kidneys and sharp pains pierced my back. When I awoke in the morning I found my kidneys in a state of much misery and I felt tired and worn out. My kidneys were irregular in action. I took two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured me, and I have had no further trouble."

Get Doan's at Any Store, 60c a Box
DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS
FOSTER-MILBURN CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

FRECKLES

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of Othine from any drugist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful, clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

Urry, tho' straight hair makes people look very old. It isn't necessary—a bottle of Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer will bring back original color quickly—stop dandruff. At all good druggists, etc., or direct from Hemp-Elo, Chemists, Memphis, Tenn.

ASTHMA

The newest formless poetry is nothing but gas; you can tell that by looking at the meter.

If a skeleton had three feet would it be a bone yard?

Put HANCOCK SULPHUR COMPOUND in your BATH

For Eczema, Rheumatism, Gout or Hives

Expensive health resorts, sought by thousands, have grown around springs containing sulphur.

Hancock Sulphur Compound, utilizing the secret of the famous health waters in your own home, and at a nominal cost, is prepared to make its use most efficacious.

Hancock Sulphur Compound

Use it in the bath, as a lotion applied to affected parts, and take it internally.

60c and $1.20 the bottle.

If your druggist can't supply it, send his name and address and the price in stamps and we will send you a bottle direct.

HANCOCK LIQUID SULPHUR COMPANY
Baltimore, Md.

You Walk in Comfort

If you Shake Into Your Shoes some Allen's Foot-Ease, the Antiseptic Healing powder for shoes that pinch or feet that ache. It takes the friction from the shoe and gives instant relief to corns and bunions, hot, tired, aching, swollen, sweating feet, blisters and calluses. Ladies can wear shoes one size smaller by shaking Allen's Foot-Ease in each shoe. Sold everywhere. Trial package and a Foot-Ease Walking Doll sent post free. Address

Cuticura Soap

Imparts The Velvet Touch

Soap 25c, Ointment 25c and 50c, Talcum 25c.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Removes dandruff, restores falling hair, restores color, and brings about new growth.

HINDERCORNS

Removes Corns, Calluses, etc., stops all pain, restores comfort to the feet, makes walking easy. Use by mail or at druggists. Hindercorns, 15c, 35c, 50c, 75c, 1.00, 1.50, 2.00, 3.00, 4.00, 5.00, 6.00, 7.00, 8.00, 9.00, 10.00.

THE SANDMAN STORY

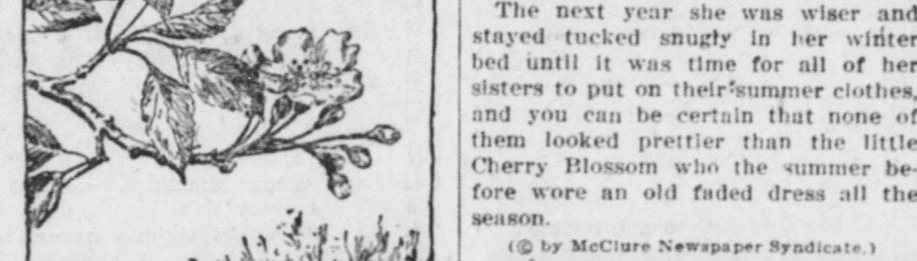

CHERRY BLOSSOM

ONCE on a branch of a cherry tree there was under the soft bark hidden a little Cherry Blossom waiting for the time to come when it could go out in its pretty pink and white gown and show itself to the world.

There were, of course, many of these little blossoms, but this particular Blossom did not like to wait; she wanted to go at once.

So one soft warm morning she peeped out. "Oh, it is summer already," she cried. "I knew it must be time, and here are all of my sisters sitting inside waiting. I shall be the first to show the color of our new gowns."

"If I wait until the others appear who is to admire me? We all will be admired together. I shall not wait for them; I want to be admired all alone."

So this foolish little Cherry Blossom came out the next day in the sun. She did not flit out her skirts at first, for it was not quite as warm as she had thought.

Gentle Breeze floating by stopped to speak to her. "I am afraid you are too early, Cherry Blossom," he said. "My brother, North Wind, has not gone home yet; he is only napping for a day or two, resting for his long journey to his home up North."

"He will be back here before he leaves for good, and I hope he will not catch you. Why did you come out so early? Not one of your sisters is here."

"I was tired of waiting," replied Cherry Blossom, "and so would you be if you had been shut up in the house all winter with never a chance to peek outside."

"Better go back and wait a little longer," warned Gentle Breeze as he wafted away.

But Cherry Blossom did not take the warning, for the next day the sun was warmer and out she threw her pretty skirts for everyone to admire.

But that night how sorry she was that she did not heed the warning of ter, who, as queen of Castile, made Caterina a favorite in Spain whence it was returned to England with Katherine of Aragon. Katherine de Valois, queen of Henry V, brought it to France. Several of the queens of the much-married Henry VIII bore the name of Katherine.

Kathleen, Kitty and Kate are names of individual charm, yet they spring from Katherine and are really only translations, diminutives and contractions of that most popular of feminine names. No name is more universal than Katherine and her various derivatives, partly from association.

The graceful Kathleen originated in Ireland, after Katherine had become established in England. It is an adaptation of the old Ossianic Cathlin, meaning the "beam of the wave" and the name given to one of the stars.

Kitty and Kate are old English names, which stand on their own merits as individual names and are frequently given in baptism. Katie is the Scotch adaptation. Catherine, belonging absolutely to England, has even produced a masculine counterpart, Catherine, Catharin Davita, the famous historian, was so-called since he was unfortunate enough to have Catherine de Medici for his grandmother.

In Italy, Santa Catherina is a term of derision for an old maid. Many hills have been named after Catherine, the Votress of Siena, and Ekaterinburg was so-called in honor of the Russian empress.

In France the name is Catherine. Catherina, Caton and Trinette. In Spain, we have Catalina. Catalina is Italian, and Katherine, Katchen, Kathie and Trina are Teutonic. Katinka is Russian, and Katrina and Koline are Swedish. The Slovak adaptation is Katriska.

The tall, manly gem assigned to Katherine and her derivatives is the moss agate, which promises a bold heart and freedom from danger to its wearer. It is an excellent amulet to be worn by travelers and signifies a dream. Tuesday is Katherine's lucky day and two her lucky number.

Waller's charming poem "Kitty Nell" is familiar to every one: Sweet Katie! Who could view your bright eyes of blue, Beaming humbly through their dark lashes so mild— Ye fair-turned arms, heaving breast, Nor feel his heart warm, and his pulses throb wildly? (© by the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

Also in Other States. This is the opening sentence from an essay on "South Carolina Statesmen," handed in by a high school girl. "At first South Carolina's statesmen distinguished themselves in Diplomacy. Later, most of their attention was confined to politics."—Columbia (S. C.) State.

I love to grunt and I love to squeal. But most of all I love to feel That the farmer soon will come to feed Those who revel in their greed.

"Better," said Pinky Pig. "Slightly better."

And then Miss Ham recited her last one:

There are those who say that love is sweet. There are those who say it is a treat An old, old friend again to meet. But I say it's sweet to eat!

And the pigs thought this was the best of all.

Collective, All Right. Chief Gosper—A teacher asked a boy to give a collective noun, as shot, reindeer, etc. After deep thought, the boy replied: "Hash."

Lillian Rich

Well known in England as a musical comedy star, Lillian Rich, prominent "movie" star in America, not so long ago was associated with Sir Harry Lauder. In America she has gained much fame in big features, one of which was a racing melodrama, scenes for which were taken at the track in Louisville, Ky., when the Derby was being run.

"What's in a Name?"

Dr. MILDRED MARSHALL
FACTS about your name; it's history; meaning; whence it was derived; significance; your lucky day and lucky jewel

KATHERINE

LIKE Mary, the charming name of Katherine, has an almost illimitable history, and its derivations and contractions are endless. It signifies pure, since it was first borne by a maiden martyr, whose name was chosen as the center of an allegory of intellectual religion. Katherine in Greek became Catharina in the Latin tongue. Going further back, it can be found that this martyred Katherine was a virgin martyr of Alexandria, whose history is unknown. Some historians credit her with being the daughter of a king of Egypt but this contention cannot be substantiated. However it is, Katherine's purity and sanctity are unmistakable.

The martyrdom of the original Katherine is recorded in literature and art—the destruction of the wheels that were to have torn her asunder; her martyrdom by the sword, and the translation of her body by angels to Mount Sinai, at whose foot stands a convent bearing her name, where she is adored perpetually, are all familiar themes to the masters of pen and brush. Passing from the sublime to the practical, the fireworks called Catherine wheels are an allusion to the instruments of torture which were destroyed by lightning and the tiny Brown bird known as the Kittywren is so-called from association as her sacred bird.

The crusaders brought home the story of Katherine's martyrdom and her name spread in fame throughout the West. The Italians had a Santa Caterina di Siena, whose influence was potent during the Middle Ages, thus adding another link to the chain of sanctity which surrounds the name of Katherine.

Another famous Katherine was the countess of Salisbury, heroine of the Garter. John of Gaunt had a daughter, ter, who, as queen of Castile, made Caterina a favorite in Spain whence it was returned to England with Katherine of Aragon. Katherine de Valois, queen of Henry V, brought it to France. Several of the queens of the much-married Henry VIII bore the name of Katherine.

Kathleen, Kitty and Kate are names of individual charm, yet they spring from Katherine and are really only translations, diminutives and contractions of that most popular of feminine names. No name is more universal than Katherine and her various derivatives, partly from association.

The graceful Kathleen originated in Ireland, after Katherine had become established in England. It is an adaptation of the old Ossianic Cathlin, meaning the "beam of the wave" and the name given to one of the stars.

Kitty and Kate are old English names, which stand on their own merits as individual names and are frequently given in baptism. Katie is the Scotch adaptation. Catherine, belonging absolutely to England, has even produced a masculine counterpart, Catherine, Catharin Davita, the famous historian, was so-called since he was unfortunate enough to have Catherine de Medici for his grandmother.

In Italy, Santa Catherina is a term of derision for an old maid. Many hills have been named after Catherine, the Votress of Siena, and Ekaterinburg was so-called in honor of the Russian empress.

In France the name is Catherine. Catherina, Caton and Trinette. In Spain, we have Catalina. Catalina is Italian, and Katherine, Katchen, Kathie and Trina are Teutonic. Katinka is Russian, and Katrina and Koline are Swedish. The Slovak adaptation is Katriska.

The tall, manly gem assigned to Katherine and her derivatives is the moss agate, which promises a bold heart and freedom from danger to its wearer. It is an excellent amulet to be worn by travelers and signifies a dream. Tuesday is Katherine's lucky day and two her lucky number.

Waller's charming poem "Kitty Nell" is familiar to every one: Sweet Katie! Who could view your bright eyes of blue, Beaming humbly through their dark lashes so mild— Ye fair-turned arms, heaving breast, Nor feel his heart warm, and his pulses throb wildly? (© by the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

Also in Other States. This is the opening sentence from an essay on "South Carolina Statesmen," handed in by a high school girl. "At first South Carolina's statesmen distinguished themselves in Diplomacy. Later, most of their attention was confined to politics."—Columbia (S. C.) State.

I love to grunt and I love to squeal. But most of all I love to feel That the farmer soon will come to feed Those who revel in their greed.

"Better," said Pinky Pig. "Slightly better."

And then Miss Ham recited her last one:

There are those who say that love is sweet. There are those who say it is a treat An old, old friend again to meet. But I say it's sweet to eat!

And the pigs thought this was the best of all.

Collective, All Right. Chief Gosper—A teacher asked a boy to give a collective noun, as shot, reindeer, etc. After deep thought, the boy replied: "Hash."

Copyright, by McClure Syndicate.

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

MISS HAM'S VERSES

"Grunt, grunt, squeal, squeal," said Miss Ham. "There are such nice words that rhyme with pig that I do believe I shall think up some verses and then, when I have thought them up, I will recite them to you all."

"Grunt, grunt, squeal, squeal," laughed Porky Pig. "You say that as though it would be a treat for us to listen to them."

"And so it will be," said Miss Ham. "It will be a great treat, grunt grunt." "You'd better make up your verses first," said Pinky Pig. "You can't tell how they might turn out. That is my advice to you."

"Of course I didn't ask your advice," said Miss Ham.

"But I'm giving it to you free," said Pinky Pig. "That shows my fine, generous nature."

"Oh, does it, indeed?" squealed Miss Ham. "Creatures who never give anything free except advice I haven't so much use for, and this is the first time I have ever known you to give anything free."

"Well, it is just as well to make a beginning," said Pinky Pig. "I begin by giving free advice—I can't tell what I may end up in giving."

"I can guess, though," said Porky Pig. "I can guess, too," said Sammy Sausage.

"So can I, squeal, squeal," said Sir Percival Pork. "And I can guess, grunt, grunt," said Sir Benjamin Bacon.

"I can guess and my guess will be right," said Brother Bacon. "I am sure I can guess, if my child takes after me," said Pinky Pig's mother.

"So can I," said Mrs. Pink Pig. "And so can I, squeal, squeal," said Mrs. Pinky Pig.

"Well, instead of all talking about being able to guess what I may end up

"I Don't Ask Your Advice."

In giving—guess, then!" squealed Pinky Pig.

And all the pigs grunted and squealed, "You'll end up by not giving anything more than the advice you start off giving."

And Pinky Pig grunted and twisted his tail, but he had nothing to say for he knew that this was the truth.

"You're all talking so much and you're not giving me the chance to recite my verses," said Miss Ham.

"But you said you were going to think them up first," said Porky Pig.

"So I did, but it doesn't take me forever to think up verses," said Miss Ham.

"Gracious," said Porky, "do you mean to tell me you have thought up more than one already?"

"Most certainly," said Miss Bacon. "Well, did I ever," said Porky Pig. "You'd better recite them," said Pinky Pig, "and then, as I said, we'll be able to tell and you'll be able to tell how they've turned out. Just because there are a lot of words which rhyme with pig doesn't mean that your verses will be beautiful. There are words which rhyme with love and many a poet has used them, but it all depends upon the poet or the verse writer what sort of verses they become."

"Let her recite them," said Porky Pig.

So Miss Bacon twisted her tail and recited:

It's old, old news to hear that a pig. In the good old mud just loves to dig. But old news is good news, in this case at least. For there's nothing such fun as a mud-digging feast.

"Fair," said Pinky Pig. "Only fair. And not particularly true, for there are lots of things more fun than mud-digging. Eating, for example."

"Give her a little poetic freedom," said Porky Pig. "In poetry she's not supposed to be too exact. Pray continue," Porky added.

I love to grunt and I love to squeal. But most of all I love to feel That the farmer soon will come to feed Those who revel in their greed.

"Better," said Pinky Pig. "Slightly better."

After Every Meal

WRIGLEYS

In work or play, it gives the poise and steadiness that mean success.

It helps digestion, allays thirst, keeps the mouth cool and moist, the throat muscles relaxed and pliant and the nerves at ease.

To know how good a cigarette really can be made you must try a

Americanism. "The unpatriotic, shiftless methods of congress make me sick." "Write a letter to your representative and tell him so." "I don't know his name."—Country Gentleman.

Cuticura Soothes Baby Rashes That itch and burn, by hot baths of Cuticura Soap followed by gentle anointments of Cuticura Ointment. Nothing better, purer, sweeter, especially if a little of the fragrant Cuticura Talcum is dusted on at the finish. 25c each.—Advertisement.

These slow-motion moving pictures remind a reader of the last hired man he hired.

It isn't necessary to nourish a grievance. Like the orchid, it thrives on air.

A good marksman may miss.

Pat. Process LOOM Products
Baby Carriages & Furniture

Ask Your Local Dealer

Write Now for 32-Page Illustrated Booklet

The Lloyd Manufacturing Company
(Hayward, Washfield Co.)
Dept. E
Menominee, Michigan (19)

Has Marinello a Shop in Your Town?

If not—why don't you take up at once the Marinello Beauty Culture course and open a shop of your own! Learn Hair-dressing, Pompadour and Marcel Waving, Facials and Beauty Culture and make big money.

Marinello guarantees qualified graduates good paying positions or sends them to open Marinello shops of their own. Double salary to become independent and prosperous. Day and Evening Classes. Fulltime instruction. Latest equipment and up-to-date methods. Payable on easy terms. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Call or write for particulars

National School of Cosmetics
Associated with
MARINELLO
School of Beauty Culture

Salute B14
306 Fifth Ave.
New York City

"Marinello Beauty Schools Are All Over the World"

Tutt's Pills
SPEEDY RELIEF FOR CONSTIPATION

BEAUTY, HEALTH SEEKERS
Keep your hold on health, youth and beauty. Nothing so pretty as beautiful teeth. You can have them beautiful, white as pearls, and your mouth clean—safe from germs. Trial size (including sample of Dr. Emet's newest beauty specialty), 10c; larger size, 25c. Satisfaction guaranteed.

DR. EMEY'S LABORATORIES
Sumner Sta., Box 24 New York City

SUMMER CAMP COURSES

In civil, mechanical and electrical engineering; commercial science; agriculture; literature; nonsectarian theology, etc. Fees only $15 each subject. Also graduate courses for degrees in all departments of a regular university. Catalog free. REGISTER AT: CENTRAL UNIVERSITY, Inc., President, P. O. Poplarville, near Chesapeake Beach, Md.

LAUGHABLE BOOKS—"A Southern Negro Sermon," original dialect. "Down in Georgia," contains 40 negro stories—each such postpaid. Sumnerville Pub. Co., Sumnerville, Ga.

W. N. U., BALTIMORE, MD. 21-1923.