SPRING MILLS

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jamison, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee are visiting at Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fetterolf are spending some time at the latter's parental home.

The festival was attended by a large crowd of people but the weather was too cold for it to be a success.

Mrs. H. F. Rossman, who has been in the Bellefonte hospital, was operated on for gall stones, on Monday.

Mrs. William Corman and little daughter, of Cresson, are visiting at the Neese home.

John Horner, who was quite ill, is able to be about again.

Mrs. Adam Finkle is visiting her son and daughter-in-law at Millburg.

The Reformed and Evangelical S. S. have abandoned the idea of holding a children's service.

Decoration Day passed quietly. The Legion boys decorated at the various graveyards. Impressive services were held at the Union at Georges Valley and at Spring Mills. Only one "vet" remains—Daniel Kennelly.

William and Pessler Rossman had a narrow escape from a serious accident on Saturday. Their car skidded, hit a telephone pole, ran through a wire fence and plunged down a steep embankment, finally landing in John Lloyd's garden. The young men were not hurt.

POTTERS MILLS.

Joseph Carson and wife, Miss Lizzie Slack and John Armstrong were to Milroy for Memorial services.

George Condo spent Sunday at the Fred Royer home.

Lenora Faust spent Sunday with her parents.

Miss Catharine Bowersox, of Lewis-town, spent a short time at this place. Quite a few Bellefonte people took supper at the Eutaw House on Memorial Day.

Mr. Phillips has his electric light plant in operation and it makes quite an improvement in our little town.

Roy Smith and wife and son Dean, of Reedsville, and Miss Pauline Treaster, of Milroy, spent Sunday at the Michael Smith home.

Jesse McClenahan and family and his mother stopped and took supper at the Eutaw House one day recently.

Frank McKinney, of Altoona, is spending a short time at his home in this place.

LITTLE NOW GOES TO WASTE

Science Has Discovered Innumerable Methods for Turning Rubbish to Profitable Uses.

One of the most remarkable features of modern life is that nothing need be wasted.

Science has discovered ways of turning every kind of rubbish into something useful. Refuse is burned in specially constructed furnaces, and the heat produced is turned into steam which is used for driving the dynamos that produce electric light. Even the ashes are used to make cement.

Soapstuds, which formerly polluted our rivers, are now strained, mixed with lime, and pressed into bricks, which, when burned, give three times the amount of heat that a similar quantity of coal gas would produce.

A dead horse can be put to almost endless uses. The hair is turned into hair-cloth and stuffing for mattresses; the hide forms leather table coverings; the tendons are made into glue and gelatine; the flesh is used as food for cats and dogs, and the blood is manufactured into prussiate of potash and manure. The bones reappear as knifehandles.

Jelly has been made from old boots and whisky from old shirts. Sawdust can be made into quite edible cakes, and fish-scales into artificial pearls.

Superstitions of Thieves.

A laundryman who for eleven years used his coffin as a safe, was wise in his generation, for it is not believed that any thief would have meddled with such a receptacle. Certainly no professional burglar would have touched it.

For the criminal classes, almost without exception, are steeped in queer beliefs in luck, omens and the like.

The burglar carefully avoids any house where a death has recently taken place. Anything black is anathema to him. The black cat, which to some people is an omen of good fortune, to him is just the reverse. Should a black cat be seen sitting on the steps or sill of a house marked down for plunder he will avoid it. Another animal which terrifies him is a blind dog.

Hudson's Bay Company.

The Hudson's Bay company, incorporated in 1670, connects, by uninterrupted lineage, the North American wilds of the moving picture set with the stern realities of an earlier day. The first records of this staunch example of British enterprise contain the following notation of a shipment made to the company's posts shortly after the earliest expedition to Canada in 1668:

- Two hundred fowling pieces with powder and shot.
- Two hundred copper kettles.
- Twelve gross knives.
- One thousand hatchets.
- The copper kettles used today in these northernmost outposts of civilization are practically identical in design with those of two centuries or more ago.
