REBERSBURG.

The Reformed parsonage is receiving a coat of paint.

Mrs. Lester Minnich is seriously ill at this writing.

Sterl Miller, who has been ill with rheumatism, is again able to be about.

Samuel Mowery and wife and Wm. Brungart and wife motored to Union county last Thursday.

Scott Stover motored to Millinburg on Saturday and transacted some important business.

During the past week Millin Moyer built a concrete walk leading from his house to the barn.

Some of our farmers are busy making hay; the grass is short owing to the cold spring and late drought.

Robert Smull and wife, of Newark, motored to this place and are spending some time with the former's parents.

Edwin Wolf has added greatly to the appearance of his dwelling in west Rebersburg by giving it a coat of paint and building a large porch to the front.

There is a certain boy who has hardly reached his teens who made himself bold enough to hurl stones and break sixteen window panes at the William Haines slaughter house. Mr. Haines knows who does this mischief, and unless he stops this business the young fellow will find a home out of town.

GEORGES VALLEY

Some hot weather—103 in the shade. Miss Mary Gobble spent Sunday with her friend, Mrs. Gladys Lingle.

W. K. McClellan, of Burnham, visited his sister, Mrs. Ira Lingle, on Sunday.

Mrs. Ray Lingle and little daughter, Geraldine, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lingle.

Miss Erma Emrick, of Penn Hall, spent the week end at the home of her aunt, Mrs. C. J. Lingle.

Quite a number of young folks from the valley attended the show at Lewistown on Monday.

FRUITTOWN.

Miss Irene Detwiler, of State College, spent the week end at her home in this place.

The Children's Day service rendered in the Evangelical church was largely attended.

Miss Miriam Foss, of Altoona, spent some time with her friend, Mabelle Detwiler, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Sheffer and son, of Youngsville, are spending a few weeks among friends and relatives here.

Those who spent Sunday at the T. J. Fleisher home were: Rev. and Mrs. Wineberg, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gettig and family, all of Braddeck; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fleisher and family, Frances Wagner and Bernice Wertz of Lewistown; Mrs. H. E. Foust and Bernice Wagner, of Centre Hall.

MILLHEIM.

(From the Journal.)

Miss Mary Gutelius will leave Friday for Easton to begin the season as junior director and play leader with the Community Chautauqua on the Festival circuit.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Auman and children, of Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Auman, of Harrisburg, were Sunday guests of the gentlemen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Auman.

Miss Grace Boob, of Philadelphia, is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Boob, near Woodward. Miss Boob, of Sunbury, also was a visitor at the parental home.

Miss Lida Winklesiech, who holds a position as chemist in a large wholesale drug establishment at Indianapolis, Ind., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Winklesiech, near Woodward.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Musser and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meyer motored to Red Lion on Friday where they visited Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Riechley. They returned home Monday evening and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Riechley and children.

Michael Bower, of Moccasin, Ill., is visiting his brother, F. P. Bower, at Aaronsburg. Mr. Bower, who is 83 years old, is a native of Haines township and was one of Centre county's Civil war volunteers. He left this section 53 years ago for the west.

Decreased Production Urged.

Resolutions urging all the farmers in the jurisdiction of the grange to cut down production in an effort to boost low prices on farm products, were adopted at a meeting of the Pomona Grange, No. 5, at Bloomsburg, recently.

At the same time the farmers decided to work shorter hours, observe holidays and a weekly half holiday in furthering their program, while stoppage of buying, insofar as practicable, also was decided upon in an effort to increase the surplus of manufactured articles.

All of Columbia county and a part of western Luzerne county are included in the jurisdiction of the grange, with approximately 3,000 farmers, at least half of whom own their own farms.

Speakers commented on the necessity of the farmer doing the work of two men if he is to accomplish all he sets out to do and the resolution to "do only the work of one man," decrease production and observe holidays followed.

LIMIT HAD BEEN REACHED

Good-Natured Irish Woman Evidently Was Willing to Overlook a Good Deal, but—

The Woman, according to her promise, went to the suburbs to take dinner with friends. She boarded a pay-as-you-enter car and settled down for a long ride. Soon her attention was attracted by the entrance of a big, fat woman with a large market basket and a huge bundle. She sat in the seat nearest the door on the left, set the basket at her feet and then piled the loosely wrapped bundle on top. All went well until a man got in at the next block. Then, as the car gave a lurch, he fell over the basket and knocked off the bundle, which burst open and a turkey rolled on the floor. "I beg your pardon," he stammered, utterly confused, while the woman picked up her turkey, rewrapped it and put it back in place.

"Ah, and there's no harm done. It's all right, God bless ye."

The car jolted on and presently stopped again to take on another passenger. A second gentleman dropped in his fare, lurched forward and tripped over the basket. Again the ill-fated turkey tumbled in the dust. The passengers giggled, but not the woman. She rested her elbows on her hips and eyed the man with a pugnacious light in her eye.

"Sorry, madam, but—" he began.

"Ah, it's all right this time. God bless ye. But—I'll give the devil to the next poor fool who comes in."

And the glint in her eye told how much the next passenger would have to be thankful for if he watched his toes and avoided that basket.—New York Sun.

FINALLY SAW GREAT LIGHT

New Distinction Accorded George Washington by Wideawake Little Indiana Youngster.

Because Milburn had been reading about George Washington at school, his mother gave him an illustrated book about Washington, relates the Indianapolis News. The first picture in the volume was that of George Washington on a horse, gazing with a rapt expression at a part of the country of which he was supposed to be the parent. Under the picture was the caption, "George Washington, the Father of His Country."

Milburn opened the book and began to read, "George Washington—George Washington, the father—" but there he halted. Finally, he appealed to his mother.

"Study the picture for a while, and see if you can't make it out," his mother advised.

Milburn did study the picture. Suddenly he had an inspiration, and almost bursting with pride, he shouted:

"I've got it now. George Washington, the father of the horse."

Up-to-Date Advertising.

As the late party-goer opened the door he saw a man wearing a burglar's mask kneeling before the safe. The next moment the man had turned and placed a revolver at the other's head. "Throw up your hands," cried the intruder.

With the meekness of a lamb and the speed of an express train, he obeyed.

"You understand," remarked the man, pleasantly, "that I can, in the present circumstances, loot the premises at my pleasure."

"I do."

"You realize that you are at my mercy?"

"I do."

"Well, then," cried the masked man, "you will be interested to know that I got in through your dining room window without the slightest difficulty. Had it been equipped with Popson's patent safety burglar alarms this could not have happened. Installed complete with battery, $25. Allow me to hand you a circular and to wish you the best of good evenings and all the pleasures of the season."

Vanishing.

Plant a tree and get free honorary membership in American Tree association. It hopes to induce a million of us to set out at least one tree this year. Let's make it two million, or more.

You appreciate the forestry problem if you recently have had to buy any lumber. Lumber is vanishing, along with the forests. Our national lumber production now is less than 27,000,000,000 board feet a year, compared with 46,000,000,000 in 1906, though our woodsmen are attacking the forests more vigorously than then. Like liquor—the cask is getting emptier.

He Arrived in Time.

A veterinarian recently called to the home of an East sider was horrified on his arrival to see the children playing with a young timber wolf. The owner explained that he had purchased the animal believing it to be a German police dog. The wolf is now incarcerated in a heavy wire cage in the back yard.—Detroit News.

Naming the Dock.

It was a beautiful little lake. The man who had purchased an estate on it said he must have a dock for his motorboat and asked if there was any timber in the neighborhood. They told him there was plenty of hickory. "Build it of that," he directed, "and I'll name it Hickory Dickory Dock."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Sure to Regret It.

Never make a fool of yourself over a woman. If she marries you, you will never hear the last of it.—Judge.
