The PINK LABEL this week.

THE DEATH RECORD.

DAUP.—After an illness of about a week from pneumonia and other complications, Mrs. Daniel Daup died on the 2nd instant at her home in Centre Hall. Interment was made in Centre Hall the following Thursday, Rev. J. F. Bingham officiating.

Mrs. Daup was a most highly respected and loved woman. She was unassuming in manner, kind and gentle, yet firm in her convictions which was the guide of her actions. She was long a consistent member of the Evangelical church and took a prominent part in all church activities of that denomination, and also continuously lent financial aid to the limit of her ability. She was devoted to her home and husband and adopted son, Daniel Smith Daup, for whom she cared since two years of age.

Mrs. Jane Ann Daup was the daughter of Evan and Anna (Miller) Evans and was born in Gregg township. Upon marriage she and Mr. Daup set up housekeeping at Spruce town and two years later began farming on Rankin heirs' farm, near Pottery Mills. Later the couple moved to the Dauberman farm along Sinking Creek, and while there they purchased the Rankin farm where they had previously lived. This farm was tilled by them for ten years and then, sixteen years ago, they came to Centre Hall, renting the farm.

Aside from the husband and son mentioned previously, there survives the deceased a sister, Mrs. Margaret Strohm, and a brother, Robert Evans, in Michigan. Her age was seventy years, nine months and five days.

MEEHAN.—The sudden death of Laura Strohm Meehan, wife of Martin P. Meehan, of New York City, will come as a shock to her friends in this vicinity. Mrs. Meehan had been out on a brief shopping expedition on the afternoon of July 6, and on returning to her apartments was seized with a heart attack that proved fatal. Her husband discovering her lifeless body when he came home early in the evening.

Mrs. Meehan was born at Centre Hill on Sept. 8, 1865, and was the youngest child in the family of Michael and Catherine Strohm. She was married to Mr. Meehan on May 4, 1893. The greater part of her life was spent in Philadelphia and New York.

During the war she spent a year in the employ of the Government, in the chemical warfare service, and after the armistice she was given an honorable discharge from the United States Army. She was one of a very few women in the country who could boast of this distinction.

The funeral, which was private, was held from the home of Mrs. M. E. Strohm of Centre Hall, on the afternoon of July 9, interment being made at the Centre Hall cemetery. Mrs. Meehan is survived by her husband, and by one sister, Mrs. Myra J. Kerr, of Ogden, Utah, as well as by numerous nephews and nieces.

Fry.—Mrs. Sarah Fry died at the home of one of her two daughters in Manchester, N. H., on Monday, and will be buried at Mitterstown, this state, Friday afternoon. Her maiden name was Miller, and she was born in Millin county. She and her husband for many years lived at Millers town and from there went to New Hampshire. There survive her two daughters and a sister, Mrs. Louise Reese, living in Oregon. She was aged about ninety years. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. Adam Smith, late of Centre Hill, deceased.

ISHLER.—Miss Lydia Elizabeth Ishler died on Sunday at the home of her father, William Ishler, near Colyer, at the age of thirty-seven years, five months and twenty-two days. Interment was made Wednesday forenoon near Tusseyville, Rev. J. F. Bingham, pastor of the Evangelical church officiating. Besides the father there survive a brother and a sister.

DELONG.—John H. DeLong died in Burlington, Iowa, aged 67 years. He was born at Livonia, where he grew to manhood and taught public school for twenty-six years in Centre and Clinton counties.

Mr. DeLong is survived by his oldest brother, Thomas DeLong, of Linden, and his youngest sister, Mrs. A. K. Stover, of Livonia. A daughter, Aretta DeLong, of Burlington, Iowa, and a son, C. Aubrey DeLong, of Connecticut, also remain.

Burial was made at Livonia from the home of George Stover; services in the Reformed church by the minister in charge, Rev. W. A. McClellan, assisted by Rev. William Beirly.

CHARLES.—John E. Charles, long a resident of Boalsburg, died at the Geisinger hospital, Danville, where for five to six weeks he was being treated for an affection of the heart. His age was sixty-two years. His wife died a year previous. There survive the deceased two sons, Foster and John, both of Boalsburg.

The body was shipped from the hospital to Boalsburg where interment was made. Rev. J. W. Wagner, pastor of the Lutheran church, had charge of the funeral services.

Reception to Pastor and Bride.

A reception was tendered Rev. Dallas R. Keener, the newly elected pastor of the Centre Hall Reformed church, and his bride, by the members of the various Reformed churches comprising his field, on Friday evening in the local Reformed church. The attendance was quite large and a splendid spirit prevailed. It fell upon T. M. Zuber, of Spring Mills, to be master of ceremonies. Those who gathered for the occasion were seated in the main audience room when the minister and bride were ushered in, and after congratulations and felicitations were over, Rev. M. C. Drumm, representing the ministerium, welcomed the young couple after a prayer offered by Rev. W. R. Picken. Another speaker was N. C. Hafner, a student in the Lancaster Seminary and personal friend of Rev. Keener.

To show their well-wishing in action a handsome china dinner set had been purchased, and this was presented to the couple in a few well chosen remarks by Mrs. F. M. Fisher. Congregation singing and a duet by Mrs. J. Shannon Boozar and Miss Caribel Emerick interspersed the program.

When these features of the reception were over, Rev. Keener graciously acknowledged the hearty welcome, the well-wishing and the handsome and valuable gift.

The program was further carried out by repairing to the Sunday-school room where refreshments were served and impromptu talks were given by Prof. L. O. Packer and Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, both devoting the serious features to the welfare of the young.

League Board Meets.

The board of managers of the county baseball league met in the Elks parlor, Monday evening. Permission was granted Millheim to secure a battery outside its six-mile limit. Two young men—Schuure and Rutherford—of Laurelton, have been selected. The team made the plea that it was weak.

The solemn agreement that gate receipts on holidays be split four ways, was knocked into a cocked hat, resulting in State College and Millheim pocketing $100 each for the July 4th games, and Bellefonte and Centre Hall getting their $40 guarantee. Bad omen.

50TH ENCAMPMENT AND GRANGE FAIR NOTES.

Grange Encampment and Fair committee will meet on Grange Park on Saturday afternoon. Necessary changes and improvements will be considered, as the date, September 1, for the next Encampment grows nearer.

Responses from State Grange officials indicate an unusual number will visit the Encampment and Fair this year.

B. B. Schedule for Week.

Thursday's twilight—Centre Hall at State College; Millheim at Bellefonte. Saturday, afternoon—State College at Millheim; Bellefonte at Centre Hall.

Deaf Marries Deaf and Dumb.

Pannie L. Bitner, aged fifty-five, of Coburn, deaf and dumb, was married in Williamsport on Monday to James H. Reagle, same age, of Red Top, Union county, who is deaf.

JONAH AS MOSLEM PROPHET

Followers of Mohammed Regard His Tomb as One of Their Most Holy Places.

Close to the mound in Mesopotamia that once was Nineveh, is another, known to the Arabs as Nebi-Yunus, atop of which is the tomb of Jonah. How the followers of Mohammed came to adopt this perfectly good Hebrew as one of their own prophets is not clear, but the fact remains that his tomb has been a Moslem shrine for upward of a thousand years, observes E. Alexander Powell in Harper's Magazine.

The sarcophagus itself, covered with priceless Persian shawls, the offerings of pilgrims, stands in the center of a square, vaulted chamber, the floor of which is considerably below the level of the ground, thereby giving the interior, which is lined with porcelain tiles of the "lost" shade of Persian blue, a most refreshing coolness after the sun glare outside.

Depending from the dome by a silver chain, so that they swing directly over the resting place of the intrepid Jewish seafarer, are several "swords" of the swordfish. When I asked the aged mullah who was in charge of the shrine what they were, he explained, in a tone which betrayed pity for my ignorance, that they were the teeth of the whale that swallowed Jonah!

THREE STRAIGHT VICTORIES.

ting was timely, as was also that of Klinger and Ross. Newton Crawford at second cut off several hits by clever catches.

A line drive from Bradford's bat in the fourth inning felled Montgomery, who was struck in the face by the hit ball but he soon recovered and pitched out the game.

The two umpires, Keichline and Toner, both Bellefonte men gave Centre Hall a square deal, and the team would be glad to see them on the job at later games.

The box score follows:

Table with columns: CENTRE HALL, R, H, O, A, E. Rows: C. McClintic, Frank, Ross, Gross, N. Crawford, W. Bradford, Klinger, A. Crawford, Garis.

BELLEFONTE

Table with columns: R, H, O, A, E. Rows: W. Kline, Gordon, Lowe, Long, Smith, Beezer, Deltrich, Fisher, Montgomery, Weber.

Centre Hall, 15; Millheim, 10.

Saturday's game at Centre Hall was slow and uninteresting, the locals winning over Millheim by the score of 15 to 10. They batted the veteran Windom Gramley freely, but he said, he was poorly supported, Millheim putting up their most ragged game of the year. McClintic, for the locals, pitched well up to the seventh when, due to fatigue through running the bases, he weakened and Gross finished the game. Lefty McClintic found Gramley for a safe hit each time at bat—four in number—and hit safely twice in one inning, the sixth, when the locals gathered seven runs.

Following is the box score:

Table with columns: CENTRE HALL, R, H, O, A, E. Rows: C. McClintic, H. Emery, Klinger, Ross, W. Bradford, N. Crawford, Keller, Frank, M. McClintic, Gross.

MILLHEIM

Table with columns: R, H, O, A, E. Rows: Smith, S. Miller, G. Musser, R. Miller, Cable, Lockwood, M. Brown, R. Brown, W. Gramley.

Bellefonte defeated State College on Saturday by the score of 5 to 2, thereby regaining the lead in the league, the standing of which to date is as follows:

Table with columns: Won, Lost, P.C. Rows: Bellefonte, State College, Centre Hall, Millheim.
