

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. J. D. P. Smith and two children, of Franklin, are at the home of the former's grandmother, Mrs. Susanna Spangler, in Centre Hall.

Steve Matis, farmer on the Brockerhoff farm near Old Fort, made a trip to New York last week to meet a nephew who was a newcomer to the states.

The business men of State College will make an auto trip to Williamsport returning by way of Lewisburg, Old Fort and Boalsburg today (Thursday).

Mrs. Russell Grove and daughter Jean, of Pittsburgh, Miss Janet Krider and brother Paul, of Lock Haven, are visiting at the B. Gardner Grove home.

Vernon Hill, aged 26 years, of Williamsport, was electrocuted at his home when he came in contact with an electric light fixture while taking a bath. He leaves a wife and two children.

Almost fifty members were added to the State College W. C. T. U. at a recent meeting. The organization is now working on its quota of $250,000 wanted by the Governor for enforcement of the civil law.

James W. Swabb announces himself in this issue for the office of county commissioner. Mr. Swabb is well known throughout the county and has always stood four-square with the party from which he is now asking a nomination.

The Lewistown city council, its mayor, chief of police and a number of private citizens passed through Centre Hall on a trip to "learn something about municipal government," on Tuesday. The party dined at the Park hotel, Williamsport.

Miss Louise Smith returned from Philadelphia after a month's visit there at the home of her aunt, Mrs. H. M. Stoffel. Mrs. Stoffel and little daughter Phyllis accompanied Miss Louise to Centre Hall, reaching here on Monday and is now a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. L. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Ains and two daughters, and Miss Margaret Hadlock, all of Pittsburgh, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Funk, in Centre Hall. They came here by car on Sunday and will remain at least until the end of the week. Mr. Ains is an electrician and is located in the Oliver building, Pittsburgh.

Guy C. Brosius, of Rauchtown, has been appointed superintendent of schools in Clinton county to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Ira N. McCloskey. Mr. Brosius is a Bucknell graduate and has been connected with the faculties of the University of Pittsburgh and Dickinson College.

After a stay in Hartford, Connecticut, since spring with his daughters, Mrs. Egan and Mrs. Robertson, D. D. Brishin returned to his home here on Saturday morning. Mrs. Laura Lee, his housekeeper, who had also been with her children at Pittsburgh, Scranton and Potters Mills during the meantime, opened the Brishin home on Friday.

Mrs. Amelia King, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Morris Pury, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Hiram Lee, of State College, a niece of the ladies, are looking forward to an auto tour in the near future to Gettysburg and from there to New York City, with the compliments of H. W. D. English, of Pittsburgh, a brother of Mrs. King and Mrs. Pury, who will furnish them with an auto and driver for the trip.

The C. D. Bartholomew family, except the head of it and Mrs. Maggie Kremer, are in Philadelphia for a week, having left here in their new Chalmers sedan with Miss Helen Bartholomew at the wheel. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Lohr. Mrs. Kremer accompanied them as far as Lewistown, where she will remain with Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Kremer until the party returns.

Mrs. Earl Tuten is a republican candidate for the nomination for recorder. She is the widow of Earl Tuten, at one time elected recorder, and lives in Phillipsburg. To date she is the only female candidate in either party. Mrs. Tuten is being backed, so the report goes, by the Hon. Harry Scott. She toured her county in his support when he was a candidate and lost for senator.

Dr. G. W. Hosterman, who has been in Pennsylvania for a year or more with his son, Sumner V. Hosterman, Esq., in Lancaster, together with Attorney Hosterman, wife and son, have been at Robersburg among friends. The former found his way to Centre Hall on Monday and remained until Tuesday. He is looking fine and says he feels it. He stated that Prof. C. F. Shaw and Mrs. Shaw are now in Australia in the city of Sidney and will remain there for a few months. They left California last fall and will have the novel experience of passing through three winters within the period of twelve months. Winters in Australia begin officially June 21.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Elizabeth Reese and granddaughters Misses Madaline Chase and Loretta Anderson, all of Conemaugh, were guests of Mrs. Reese's son, William and family, returning home on Monday.

Mrs. Charles W. Geary and children are here from Newport for the summer vacation at the home of Mr. Geary's mother, Mrs. Bell Whiteman. Mr. Geary brought his family up by auto on Sunday but was obliged to return.

Rev. E. Roy Corman, of Cressona, has been tendered a call from the First Reformed Church at Sunbury. He is undecided whether or not to accept. Rev. Corman is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher, of Centre Hall.

Mrs. James B. Lingle came to the home of Mr. Lingle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lingle, in Centre Hall, last week for a brief vacation. The Lingles are located in West Virginia at Bethany, where Mr. Lingle holds a position at Bethany College.

One hundred and fifty acres of land have been added to the 1800 acres of farm land belonging to and operated by the Pennsylvania State College agricultural school. The tract adjoins the college experimental orchard and will be utilized by the horticultural department.

The church-going population in Centre Hall on Sunday had the pleasure of hearing three out-of-town ministers the appointment in the Reformed, Presbyterian and Lutheran churches having been filled by other ministers than the pastors in charge. In the Reformed church Rev. Rahm, of Jacksonville, Lehigh county, held services, while the pastor, Rev. Keener, filled appointments in his charge. Rev. Kirkpatrick, of the Presbyterian church, exchanged pulpits with Rev. John McCracken, of Juniata. In the Lutheran church, Rev. H. C. Thompson, of Johnstown, appeared in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League.

Come to town, Mr. Farmer, come to town. We will be obliged to move out if you refuse to come in. The town is here only because you are outside, without you there is no reason for our existence; without you we have no means of support. When you do come to town we will use every honorable means to thwart any effort to lessen your comforts here; we will stand by you and not permit you to be humiliated without reason; we have no grudge against you or your children; park your old Ford or timonaine wherever you can find room; stay as long as you like, and if you feel like it, make 'er snort when you go out—just so you come back.

Mr. and Mrs. Erdman West, of New Brunswick, N. J., stopped here with Mrs. West's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lambert, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, on their return from an extended trip through the fruit belts of New York and Canada. Mr. West is connected with the New Jersey State Department of Agriculture in the capacity of chief inspector. The auto party consisted of about one hundred, some of them ladies, but most of them instructors or professors of various agricultural colleges throughout the states. Penn State was represented by Dr. Orton and Dr. Kern, of the department of pathology. The trip was a most delightful one and full of interest. Mr. West states the cherry crop so extensive that canneries are not able to handle the supply.

AN ORDINANCE

DEFINING DISORDERLY CONDUCT AND PROVIDING PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATION THEREOF.

BE IT ORDAINED AND ENACTED by the Council of the Borough of Centre Hall, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same:

SECTION ONE. That disorderly conduct within the limits of the Borough of Centre Hall, shall be and is hereby defined as an act, word or conduct causing or tending to cause a disturbance of the peace and good order of the Borough, or causing or tending to cause any danger, discomfort or annoyance to the inhabitants of the Borough, or users of the Borough thoroughfares, and shall include loitering, fighting, drunkenness, vagrancy, begging, the making of unnecessary noises, using profane or indecent languages, the parking of automobiles and other vehicles within a distance of fifteen (15) feet on either side of any public or private fire hydrant or hydrant; the driving, stopping or parking of any automobile, truck, or other vehicle on the left hand side of any street, lane or alley in the direction in which they are travelling; reckless or careless driving; the stopping or parking of cars, trucks and other vehicles along the streets, lanes and alleys in the direction in which they are traveling, except at an angle of forty-five (45) degrees with the curb line of such streets, lanes and alleys; the operating of cars and trucks with cut-out open; the running of an engine on any car or truck for more than five minutes, while the car or truck is not propelled; the use of no or less lights on cars and trucks than provided by law; or any other use of automobiles, trucks or other vehicles by the owners, drivers or occupants thereof, as shall endanger the safety or interfere with the comforts or convenience of persons using or residing on or along the thoroughfares of the Borough, or any conduct which is contrary to law. All the foregoing offenses as coming within the definition of said disorderly conduct are hereby declared to be unlawful.

SECTION TWO. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof before a Burgess or Justice of the Peace of said Borough, be subject to a fine of not less than TWO DOLLARS, nor more than TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS and costs for each offense at the discretion of said Burgess or Justice of the Peace, and in default of the payment of such fine and costs of prosecution, shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding one day for each dollar of fine and costs imposed.

ORDAINED AND ENACTED into an Ordinance at a regular meeting of the Council of the Borough of Centre Hall, this sixth day of July, A. D. 1923.

E. M. HUYETT,

Attest:—
FRANK M. FISHER,
Secretary of Council.
AND NOW, to wit, July sixth, A. D. 1923, the above Ordinance is hereby approved.

T. A. HOSTERMAN,
Burgess.

Important Notice to Milk Shippers

—announcing the issue of $875,000 8% Cumulative First Preferred Capital Stock of the Western Maryland Dairy, Inc., offered to investors by the Commonwealth Bank, Baltimore, Md.

Believing that the public offering of these shares by the Commonwealth Bank will result in an oversubscription, Irvin D. Baxter, Chairman of the Board, and Asa B. Gardiner, President, of the Western Maryland Dairy, Inc., have asked the Bank to give preference to subscriptions received from dairy farmers and others doing business with the Company.

This the Bank has agreed to do. Subscriptions for these shares should be given promptly, therefore, to any employe of the Company; or mailed direct to the Western Maryland Dairy, Inc., Linden Avenue and Dolphin Streets, Baltimore, Md., or to the Commonwealth Bank, Howard and Madison Streets, Baltimore, Md.

In the case of subscriptions received from persons not doing business with the Company, the Bank will give preference in allotments to small subscriptions.

One or more shares may be purchased at $51.50 per share, plus accrued dividend, either for cash or at the rate of $5 per share down and $5 a month. The investment will earn 7 1/2%, free of the present normal Federal income tax, dividend checks being mailed every three months from July 1, 1923.

A pamphlet containing detailed information about the Company's assets, earnings and operations will be sent to anyone on request.
