Motorcycle and Auto Collide.

A motorcycle driven by James Foust of Spring Mills, and a Dodge car driven by T. A. Hosterman of Centre Hall, collided on the highway between Old Fort and Spring Mills, on Friday. Mr. Foust failed to observe the approaching automobile on account of making observations of his machine. The Dodge car was struck along the running board, crushing in the rear fender. The cyclist was thrown from his machine and rolled onto the grass, but aside from being generally shaken up was not hurt. His machine was badly wrecked.

Mrs. Minnie Harter visited with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Harter, at Altoona, during the week.

Miss Jeanné Kessler has returned from a motor trip from Atlantic City. She brought with her Misses Ida and Eleanor Michlovitz and Mollie Furman of Harrisburg.

Charles Roads, who is engaged in the restaurant and bakery business in Detroit, Mich., was an arrival in Millheim on Saturday and is visiting his mother, Mrs. Jane Roads.

Hop and Mrs. Chas. A. Shaffer and Mrs. Matilda Samon, of Berwick; Mrs. B. H. Bower, of Harrisburg, and Miss Maude King, of Williamsport, spent last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Campbell at their home on West Main street. They were motoring in Mr. Shaffer's car.

Some of our good Republican friends who argued last fall that everything would go to the devil unless Pinchot was elected governor over McSparran are no doubt now willing to say that you could smell brimstone about State College and Bellefonte when the Pike county man cut down the appropriations for Penn State, the state pen and the Bellefonte hospital. And this in the face of approving the raising of salaries and appointing a commission that unless thwarted by Treasurer Snyder can keep on raising salaries indefinitely. A wonderful governor, this Pinchot!

In the old Neapolitan sign language, the expression "That's Honest Talk," was conveyed by placing the index finger of the right hand on the lips and then pointing it straight upward. In this way the Neapolitan said—

"That's Honest Talk"

Nowhere in the world of business is "Honest Talk" more in demand than in the realm of finance.

The outstanding success has been largely due to "Honest Talk" and the aim of THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF CENTRE HALL is to build on this element of confidence and trustworthiness.
