

WANTS TO HELP OTHER WOMEN

Grateful for Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill.—"I am willing to write to any girl or woman who is suffering from the troubles I had before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My back always ached, so I could not go about my housework, and I had other troubles from weakness. I was this way for years, then my sister-in-law took the Vegetable Compound and recommended it to me. In the time I have been taking it and it has done wonders for me. I keep house and am able to do lots of work besides."—Mrs. HELEN SEVICK, 2711 Thomas St., Chicago, Ill.

Women suffering from female troubles causing headache, irregularities, pains, bearing-down feelings and weakness should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Not only is the worth of this splendid medicine shown by such cases as this, but for nearly fifty years this same sort of experience has been reported by thousands of women.

Mrs. Sevick is willing to write to any girl or woman suffering from such troubles, and answer any questions they may like to ask.

Gloomy Ikey. With one terrific split the rolling ship sunk slowly down beneath the waves. All the passengers were thrown into the sea, and among these were two Jewish gentlemen, who happened to be clinging to the same spar.

After floating about in this way for some time they both felt very much exhausted. Toward the end of the second day, however, one of them sighted a ship, and with renewed hope, he cried to his companion: "Ikey, I see a sail!"

"Vat good does that do us?" replied Ikey. "We ain't got no samples!"

Had His Own Twelve-Pounder. First Visitor (on board ship)—I tell you what, wouldn't you like to hear those six-pounders roar?

Second Visitor—No; I get enough of it. Our new baby's a twelve-pounder.

The woman who builds castles in the air doesn't have to worry about housecleaning.

Many a slow-going man would be willing to rush the growler.

Harrisburg.—A saving of $17,500 in the next two years in the department of mines is expected to result through the reduction of office rent allowance to mine inspectors who have offices in their homes and in the rate allowed for automobile hire. Secretary of Mines Walsh told Governor Pinchot and members of the executive board, inspectors who maintain offices in their residences will be given not to exceed $5 a month rent allowance and five cents a mile for automobile hire. Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

BARNYARD LADIES

"Quack, quack," said Mrs. Duck. "Shriek, shriek," yelled Mrs. Goose. "Cackle, cackle, cackle," said Mrs. Hen.

"Moo, moo, moo," said Mrs. Cow. "Ma-a-a," whined Nanny Goat. "We've thought out things for ourselves," said Mrs. Duck. "Quack, quack, we have done that."

"That is the truth, shriek, shriek," yelled Mrs. Goose. "You have said words of sense and honesty, cackle, cackle," said Mrs. Hen.

"To be sure, to be sure you have, moo, moo, moo," said Mrs. Cow. "You have, ma-a-a, you have," said Nanny Goat. "Ah, yes, you have!"

"I was a charming young hen," said Mrs. Hen, and a charming Madame Hen I will always be. But I like my own name better than I do Mr. Rooster's name, and so I have always kept my own. Such has been the way all the hens have done."

"I am very sweet and friendly," said Mrs. Duck. "But I, too, like my own name better than Mr. Drake's family name, and so I have kept my own name. And all the Ducks have done the same. The family name is so splendid a one."

"Just what I have done, shriek, shriek," said Mrs. Goose. "I told Mr. Gander that I would be his devoted mate, but that the name of Goose was so famous a name I could not give it up for the dull name of Gander."

"And I said the same to Billy," said Nanny Goat. "I told Billy that I loved the name of Billy, but that I wanted to be called Nanny all my days, and Billy shook his goatee and said that he thought the idea was good."

"I'm so gentle and so placid, but I told Mr. Bull that I like my name of Cow so much. It has such a pleasant, lazy sound."

"Yes, I quack my genial, friendly way about the pond, but I did insist upon keeping my good old family name of Duck," said Mrs. Duck again.

"The Mr. Roosters crow and seem so conceited," said Mrs. Hen. "But they're not bossy. They said we should keep the good old barnyard Hen-family name for ourselves."

"Ah," said Mrs. Duck, "we love our family names. There are people who have great books in which are the histories of their family names."

"Well, we don't need to have histories written about our names. Our names speak for themselves! Yes, anyone can tell just by looking at me that I belong to the good old Duck family."

"And anyone can tell by looking at me that I belong to the good old Cow family," said Mrs. Cow. "And anyone can tell just by looking at me that I belong to the good old Goose family," said Mrs. Goose. "So can anyone tell by looking at me that I'm a member of the famous Nanny Goat family," said Mrs. Nanny Goat.

Just a Little Smile

THE ONE THING

Every time the teacher asked Johnny a question she always got the same answer, "I don't know."

"Johnny," she said, "what is twice eight?" "Don't know."

"Well, then, four times six?" "Don't know."

"Who was the husband of Queen Victoria?" "Don't know."

The teacher became exasperated. "Is there anything you can answer?" she asked sardonically.

"Yes'm," he replied. "And what is that, pray?" "The telephone, m'm."

FELLOW VICTIMS. The woodpecker wept in deep dismay as the shades of evening stole for he had been laboring all the day on an iron telegraph pole.

Sensitive Soul. "Can you assure me," he asked, "that my wife will come safely through the operation?"

"No," the surgeon replied. "I'm sorry to say that I can't make any such promise. It may be fatal, but I feel—"

"Doc, I can't bear to hear any more. Go ahead."

HAS NEVER HAPPENED YET. He dreamed a dream and then woke up. And laughed, for it was funny; He dreamed his wife had written him And did not ask for money.

Mother Goose Revised. There was a young woman Who lived in a stew. She had so many sweethearts She didn't know what to do.

Saves Cost of Presents. "Do you keep birthdays at your home?" asked the friend. "Yes," replied the father of several unmarried daughters, "a secret."

Used to It. "What are you so sore about?" "That man called me a robber?" "Just one man called you that? Forget it. I'm called that by thousands of men every day and I don't pay any attention to them."
