Every constitutional amendment to be voted for at the coming election will increase the running expenses of the State, and the taxpayers must pay the bill. Constitutional amendments, as a rule, are for the purpose of increasing the political force for political effect.
Time moves slowly to him whose employment is to watch its flight.

THE DEATH RECORD.

FORAY.—Miss Gertrude Foray died Monday forenoon in the Bellefonte hospital, to where she was taken from her home in Centre Hall some weeks ago for treatment for ailments that gradually sapped away her life.
The deceased was a daughter of George and Rebecca Foray and lived all her life in Centre Hall. She was a seamstress and diligently pursued her occupation for many years. Her age was sixty years.
A brother, William F. Foray, of Centre Hall, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Snyder, of Muncy, survive the deceased.
Funeral services were held at her home Wednesday forenoon. Rev. J. F.
Bingman, pastor of the Evangelical church, of which denomination the deceased was a member, being the minister in charge. Interment was made in the local cemetery.

RICE.—Mrs. Maria Rice died at her home west of State College from the effects of a paralytic stroke and other complications, on Saturday. The funeral was held on Tuesday, services by Rev. S. C. Stover, pastor of the Boals-burg Reformed church, and to which denomination the deceased belonged, burial being made at Pine Hills. She was the widow of James Rice, who died a few years ago. There survive highway between Lancaster and Philadelphia. Mrs. Ishler chatted and joked with her friends before retiring about ten o'clock. She seemed to be in unusually good spirits. About midnight members of the party were awakened by her violent coughing. A physician was summoned and she died about one-half hour after he arrived.

Deceased was born near Zion, her maiden name being Lemima Garbrick.
Had she lived until the 31st of this

A Happy Gathering.
A delightful gathering took place on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Horner, on Nittany Mountain, taking the form of a reunion of the one time mountain folks. The main feature of the gathering was the sumptuous dinner spread on the green across the yard, which included all the good things of the season. Another remarkable feature of the gathering was the presence of four generations of the Housers: John Houser, aged 84 years; his son, William Houser; daughter, Anna Mary Walker; her daughter, Frances.
The day was enjoyed by renewing old memories and taking snap-shots of the happy crowd.
Those present were: Mr. and Mrs.
George Horner of Nittany Mt.; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace O. Horner, Miss Gertie Maser, Miss Jessie Rodes, Gun-ard Barkman, all of McKeesport; Mr. and Mrs. William Houser and son Ralph, John Houser, Mr. and Mrs.
Floyd Walker and two children, Frances and Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Callahan, of near Linden Hall; Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Green and children Edna and Wendell, of Oak Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Horner and daughter The-Velda, Malvin, Tevola, Kenneth, Ruth, Florence and Gerald, of near Bellefonte; Mrs. Edith Knapp, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. George and three children, of Pine Grove Mills.

At the close of the day a very appropriate piece of poetry, composed and donated by Mrs. M. S. Thomas, of Kline—Boozier.

A telegram received on Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Boozier, in Centre Hall, broke the news that their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Boozier, and Harry L. Kline, of Youngstown, Ohio, had been united in marriage in Youngstown. The couple became acquainted five or six years ago when Mr. Kline came to Centre Hall to conduct the drug store then owned by Dr. H. H.
Longwell. Miss Boozier was then on vacation, having taken up nursing.
Their friendship grew into love, culminating in their marriage as stated above. The bride was located at Pittsburgh for several years where she followed her profession, but had been at the parental home during the greater part of this month preparing for the event.
The couple will live in Youngstown, where Mr. Kline, a short time ago, purchased a drug store.
Mr. and Mrs. Kline have the Re-

The Reporter wishes the couple happiness and success in the life before them.

The Eutaw House was the scene of a joyous reunion of the four Arney sis-

Mary Herring of Altoona; Mrs. John F. Mullen of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Minnie Richard of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Laura Lee, mother of the proprietor, Wilmer E. Lee, met there rather unexpect-move to Centre Hall about the first of the year and will occupy the flat in the Bartholomew building, and intends running the business in the channel followed by the former proprietor. An additional incubator of fifteen thou-the plant a forty thousand capacity.

HOME AFTER 9,300-MILE TRIP.

Touring Notes from Mr. and Mrs.
George E. Meyer.
Lanark, Ill., Aug. 16, 1923.
This is a town of 1297 population in Northwestern Illinois. Here we are at the home of a niece, Mrs. Phoebe Wise, before marriage Phoebe Gettig, of Altoona. We got here today at noon.
This is a big day here—called "Old Settlers' Day"—so we have some special amusements. Last night we camped a tFulton, Ill., had some rain during the night and the roads are muddy today.

We are now 8,200 miles on our way.
The day following last writing we came to Denver, Colorado, and put up at the auto camp ground, which is one mile long, and 1500 cars were there.
We stayed over two nights; did the weeks washing and went around the city. We were in the post office which takes up one city block; in the museum where are many different kinds of minerals just as they came out of the ground; also, other things of interest.
We put in some time in the capitol building which was built 30 years ago.
This is the finest capitol we have yet been in. The pillars all through the building are of marble, quarried in Pueblo county, Colorado, and are of the most beautiful color and design—no two look alike. The dome is all gold, from their own state. Colorado is a state rich in many things, especially mineral. Some very good farming and stock raising. The harvest was about over but we saw some of it. As we left Colorado and came into Kansas we saw fields of corn totally destroyed by hail. Colorado has pretty good roads.
As we drove through the western part of Kansas about all we saw was wheat fields and most of the wheat was on shocks, but the crop not good; further on farming is wheat, corn and oats.
Through Missouri the farming is much like eastern Kansas; the corn is very good; much of the wheat and oats is standing on the shock and waiting for the thresher. Some places the grass has grown up so that you see only half the shocks and they have gotten black from the weather. Hogs and cattle are raised extensively in Missouri. Through the western part of Illinois where we have been the land is hilly and the roads rather rough.
We are seeing new things all the while. We are enjoying good health.
We find everybody very sociable.

Huntingdon, Pa., Aug. 27, 1923.
We are nearing home now and expect to reach there Tuesday evening.
Since last writing we were through Chicago; visited Montgomery Ward & Co.'s big store, and drove on east, stopping at Canton, Ohio, Thursday night, and coming to Altoona Friday; stayed there till Sunday; then to Huntingdon, and today are going to C. U. Welchland's at Orbisolia, and home tomorrow evening.
The trip has been a grand success—9,300 miles, and only one tire that lost any air, due to a nail running into it.
GEORGE E. MEYER.
