

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

George R. Meiss, of Colyer, advertiser's sale for October 6th. He has had some fine Guernseys to sell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McWilliams, of Johnstown, were over-Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Goodhart.

Carl A. Auman, of Steubenville, O., spent a few days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Auman.

Miss Edna Bailey, daughter of Mrs. W. V. Godshall, will return to Pittsburgh where she is attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Diekey and little daughter, of Altoona, were guests during last week of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Knarr, in Centre Hall.

After teaching school for two years, Frederic Moore is pursuing his studies for the ministry in Dickinson College, at Carlisle. He previously graduated from Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport.

Miss Katie Keller, daughter of P. K. Keller former residents of Centre Hall and now living in the Pittsburgh district, was the guest of her friend, Mrs. C. D. Mitterling, in Centre Hall, last week.

M. N. Miller and Joseph Carson, both of Potters Mills, are sporting Maxwell cars which are taking the place of cars of a lower grade. The cars were purchased through C. P. Ramer, of Tusseyville, the local dealer.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bailey, of New York City, were arrivals in Centre Hall on Sunday and expect to remain for about two weeks. They are making their headquarters at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. W. W. Kerlin.

Miss Mary Blingman, daughter of Rev. J. F. and Mrs. Blingman, on Tuesday, left for Myerstown, Lebanon county, where she entered Albright College as a student. Miss Blingman is a graduate of the local and State College high schools.

Mrs. Carl Shurtz and daughter, Bettie, of Pittsburgh, were the guests of the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. Oliver Funk, in Centre Hall. This was their first visit to this section and it is scarcely necessary to say that they were delighted with the country.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Smith and daughter, Miss Marguerite, of Williamsport, for a day during the Grange Encampment and Fair, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks. Mr. Smith is the head of the Smith printing company, a big-going concern in Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rossman, of Millinburg, were in Centre Hall for a few days last week, and on Monday, in company with the former's brother, George Rossman, and daughter, Miss Mildred, of Rock Springs, started for Howell, Michigan, by auto, where they will visit a brother of the gentleman.

The following persons were entertained at the H. L. Elbright home for a few days last week: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bartley and daughter, of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Peffit and daughter, of Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Speese and children, of Lewisport; Mr. and Mrs. William Brandt and Mrs. Carrie Troutman, of Millers-town.

There should be some concerted action on the part of the south-side residents of Centre county looking forward to keeping the state roads sufficiently clean of snow, during the coming winter, to make auto travel safe. For a long period last winter Penns Valley was practically isolated from the county seat. This should not again be repeated.

Dr. Alfred Beirly, of Chicago, forwarded a contribution to the Centre Reporter of unusual interest and unusual character. As soon as possible it will appear in print and illustration. Dr. Beirly has done much for the development of the great city of Chicago and in his communication gives Centre Hall a plan for industrial, educational and social enlargement.

John H. Horner, who for the past thirteen years has been a tenant on the Henry Stoner farm near Tusseyville, will quit the farm next spring, but will make sale of his farm stock and implements some time this fall, the exact time having not yet been decided upon. Mr. Horner, for the past two years, has been afflicted with rheumatism and has done practically no farm work himself during that time. He is undecided where he will locate.

Mr. and Mrs. Jared Mowery and son, Harry J., just completed a visit of two weeks or more among friends in Penns Valley and on Saturday passed through Centre Hall in their car on their way to Tyrone, where the last stop with friends was made prior to reaching their home in Youngstown, Ohio. It is twenty-two years since Mr. Mowery left Centre Hall. He first located in the Lewistown district, and fifteen years ago found Youngstown, where he has been continuously employed. The Mowery family is enjoying good health and although very attentive to their work and duties are not failing to take enough time to enjoy life.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

It will be a whole year until the next grangers' picnic.

W. C. T. U. meeting at the home of Mrs. S. W. Smith, Saturday evening at 7:30.

Mrs. Ellen Bower, of Bellefonte, is at the Meyer home in Centre Hall and caring for Mrs. Meyer.

The elder press at Centre Hall will run Wednesday, 19th inst., and at regular times thereafter throughout the season.—adv.

George L. Horner, of Pleasant Gap, was a Reporter caller Monday morning to advertise a pair of fine young mules in the Reporter. See adv. elsewhere.

The executive committee of the county Sunday-school Association will meet at the Tri-County Training camp, along Spruce Creek, on Sunday, at 2:30 p. m.

Prof. D. P. Stapleton, of Millinburg, has been re-elected principal of the Herndon public schools, a position he has filled for several years. Prior to going there he was principal of the Millheim schools.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Royer, at Potters Mills, on Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Geesey and children Bernard and Miriam, of York, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Goss and children Miriam and Roy, of Milroy.

The third diphtheria-prevention clinic was held on Tuesday of this week. Thirteen children were inoculated. The clinic will be continued; any parents wishing to have the benefit of the anti-toxin treatment should apply to Miss Grace Smith, for blanks. Both phones.

Oscar Berry returned to Washington, D. C., on Tuesday morning to resume his school work. He came here early in the summer with the Long and Berry families, who camped in the mountains, and since breaking camp has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McClellan and Harvey Flink.

Visitors at the Samuel Gross home last week were Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ammerman, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Alters, of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, of Erie; Mr. and Mrs. Fry and daughter, of Wheatland; Tully Bell, of New York City, and his sister, Mrs. Chambers, of Bellefonte.

Mrs. D. J. Meyer, who since the middle of last week has been seriously ill at her home in Centre Hall, is considerably improved, and her family and friends are looking forward to complete recovery in the near future. During the early stages of her illness, Mrs. Cora M. Boob, who happened to be in town, was pressed into service and took care of her until arrangements with others were made for a like service.

A most enjoyable surprise family gathering was held at the Woodward house, at Woodward, a short time ago. All the children of Mrs. Celinda Hosterman, excepting Mrs. Edgar Stover, of Bloomfield, N. J., were present, as follows: Theodore, of Akron, Ohio; Willet, Thomas, Wesley, Oliver, Charles (and family), and Herbert, all of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Bertha Zimme, of Johnstown, and Miss Lida, of Woodward.

The finished portion of the state highway over the Seven Mountains is in fine condition, and once oiled and chipped a drive over these mountains will be one of the prettiest in all Central Pennsylvania. There yet remains a considerable part of the road to be built, but during the next two months much work can yet be done and perhaps the whole can be completed. The Millin county side of the road is also in very good condition.

Country districts are waking up to the fact that the dog tax law passed in 1921, which provides that the dog tax be turned over to the state, is a losing proposition. Before the enactment of the present law the dog license money remained in the county treasury after the fines had been paid and was for the use of the county, whose citizens paid the amounts. It looks very much as though a lot of the men sent to the legislature from the country deserve being termed "Rubens."

Guests entertained at the home of Mrs. Lucy Henney, last week, were: Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Henney, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Erb and daughter Lila, of Lestrobe; Mrs. Claudia Henney, of Butler; Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart and sons Clem and Herbert, Miss Helen Smith, Mrs. Decker, of New Bloomfield; Miss Laura Stewart, of Landburg; Mrs. Dora Armstrong, of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Henney, of Pittsburgh; Miss Emma Aitkens and Mr. Gaever, of Reedsville; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gregg, of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Croizer and son Leonard, of Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Henney, Mrs. Guy Aurand, Mrs. J. Ralph McCook, Mrs. Christ Carr, Mrs. John Kuhns, Mrs. Lester Sluts, of Lewistown.

I have on hand a high-quality coal, suitable for threshing. Give this coal a trial—we know you will be pleased. WM. McCLENNAN.

Four Injured in Auto Wreck.

Four young men were injured, three of them seriously, Saturday evening, on the road at Dale Summit, between Pleasant Gap and Lemont, when the car in which they were riding upset. The driver of the car, Raymond Acheson, turned out to pass another car running into a ditch, lost control of the car and struck a telephone pole. Acheson was severely injured about the head. Elias Hawkins received a fractured left leg. Frederick Artols suffered severe injuries to his head and chest and also internal injuries and Theodore Cunningham was slightly hurt. They were all taken to the Bellefonte hospital. Cunningham was discharged Monday morning and Acheson and Hawkins are improving, but the recovery of Artols is doubtful.

Balley-Senior.

Otto E. Balley and Miss Anna G. Senor were married at the home of the bride's parents, in Germantown, Philadelphia, on Saturday, last. They are honeymooning at Asbury Park, New Jersey. The groom is a traveling salesman for the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company, with headquarters at Philadelphia, and is well known in Centre Hall, where he lived for a time.

Lost Four Last Week.

Last week was a disastrous one for the local baseball club. Four defeats were registered. On Tuesday, the strong Pridesburg nine handed out a defeat; on Thursday, the equally strong Reedsville lunch took both morning and afternoon games, and on Friday, the State College league team wound up the season by being returned an easy winner.

Operated On for Appendicitis.

Philly Mingle, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Goss Mingle, of Philadelphia, was operated on Monday night in a Philadelphia hospital. The young man was in Centre Hall a short time ago, but not feeling well went to Reedsville to the home of his aunt, Mrs. C. H. Meyer. While there symptoms of appendicitis made their appearance and this induced Mrs. Meyer to hurry him to his Philadelphia home. A telegram received by Capt. G. M. Beal, on Tuesday, indicates Mr. Mingle is in a very favorable condition.
